

CONTENTS

Preface	Herbert Giersch	V
I. Services and the Changing Economic Structure
Modern Service Sector Growth: Causes and Effects	Herbert G. Grubel/ Michael A. Walker	1
Discussant	Richard Blackhurst	35
Defining and Measuring Output and Productivity in the Service Sector	Domenico Siniscalco	38
Discussant	Frank D. Weiss	59
II. International Aspects
International Transactions Involving Interactions: A Conceptual Framework Combining Goods and Services	Seev Hirsch	63
Services and Comparative Advantage Theory	H. Peter Gray	85
Discussant	Henning Klodt	104
Trade and Foreign-Owned Production in Services: Some Conceptual and Theoretical Issues	John H. Dunning	108
Discussant	Pan A. Yotopoulos	151
III. Sectoral Analysis
Telecommunications and the Scope of the Market in Services	Gerald R. Faulhaber	156
Discussant	Axel Busch	166
Telecommunications Policy - Assessing Recent Experience in the US, Japan and Europe and Its Implications for the Completion of the Internal Common Market	Günter Knieps	173
Discussants	Tyll Necker Herbert Ungerer	190 192

IV

Protection and the Structure of the Banking Industry in an International Context	Robert Z. Aliber	198
Discussant	Norbert Walter	219
Integrated World Markets in Services: Problems and Prospects	Brian Hindley	222
Discussant	Jürgen Müller	245
IV. Services and International Division of Labour
North-South Trade in Services: Some Empirical Evidence	Rolf J. Langhammer	248
Discussant	J. Michael Finger	272
List of Contributors		274