

CONTENTS

ABBREVIATIONS	ix
CHRONOLOGICAL TABLE	x
INTRODUCTION	xi
I ROMANS AND GOTHS	i
Culture and the public service	i
Symmachus	6
The Neoplatonic schools	16
Out of the ivory tower: John the deacon	22
The hard road to church unity: the Acacian and Laurentian schisms	29
Master of the Offices	46
The collapse of toleration	56
Boethius' sacrifice	66
II LIBERAL ARTS IN THE COLLAPSE OF CULTURE	69
Arithmetic	71
Music	78
Boethius' Treatise on Music and its sources	84
Geometry and Astronomy	102
III LOGIC	108
Part of philosophy or a tool of all philosophy?	108
Logic and rhetoric	111
Porphyry	120
Neoplatonists after Porphyry: Iamblichus, Syrianus, Proclus, Ammonius	127
Boethius' commentaries on the Isagoge	131
Translator of Aristotle	133
The Ten Categories	141
On interpretation	152

Future contingents	157
The monographs on logic	163
Propositional logic and the hypothetical syllogism	166
IV CHRISTIAN THEOLOGY AND THE PHILOSOPHERS	174
Faith and history; De fide catholica	175
The Person of Christ	180
The Scythian Monks	185
Nature and person	190
Absolute and relative goodness	203
God the Trinity	211
V EVIL, FREEDOM, AND PROVIDENCE	223
The Lady philosophy	225
From Stoic moralism to Platonic transcendence	228
O qui perpetua	234
Degrees of perfection: the quest for the One	235
Reminiscence: natural theology and the Bible	237
The problem of evil	239
Providence and fate	242
Divine foreknowledge and free will	244
The religion of Boethius	247
PRESERVATION AND TRANSMISSION	254
EDITIONS	258
BIBLIOGRAPHY	261
NOTES	285
INDEX	307