

Contents

Preface	xi
Introduction	1

PART I

Preparatory Considerations

1	Difficulties and Misconceptions	23
	The Chief Difficulty	24
	Intellectual Influences on Eckhart	27
	The Special Influence of St. Thomas Aquinas	34
	The Distinction between Primary and Secondary	41
	Basic Misconceptions	47
2	The Reality of the Divine Self	55
	“I Am a Knower”	56
	The Reality of God	59
	“My Truest I Is God”	61
	“God Is Neither This Nor That”	69
	This Sacred Universe	72
	Detached Intellectuality	77

PART II

The Doctrine

1	God and the Human Self	87
	Principial Manifestation	89
	God as Pure Spirit	93
	The Extended Order of the Human Self	96
	The Delusive Reality of the Human Self	103
	The Negation of Negations Is Divine Affirmation	106
2	The Word	114
	The Triune Godhead	116
	The Ground of the Intellective Soul	119
	Principially I Am the Son	126
	The Divine Spark	133
	Within the Word	139

3	The Primal Distinction	142
	The Existential Hierarchy	143
	Nonduality	147
	Isness and Whatness	151
	The Simple Now of Eternity	160
	The Reflection of Unrestricted Isness	162
4	The Inversion	165
	Inverse Analogy	167
	The Primacy of Knowledge	172
	Distinction and Identity	178
	Divine Necessity	184
5	The Veils of God	190
	The Five Veils	191
	Practical Awareness and Enlightened Awareness	197
	The Contemplative State	204
	The Ultimate Realization	210
6	The Detachment	215
	The Pre-eminence of Detachment	217
	Poverty of Spirit	222
	The Nothingness of the Human Self	227
	The Transposition by Transcendent Act	233
	Requisite Supports	239
	Notes	247
	Index	279