Contents

1 : .	et of tables	viii
	List of tables Foreword by Robert Pollin
	Acknowledgments
	List of abbreviations
1	Introduction and summary	1
PA	RT I THE UNRAVELING OF THE 1930S-ERA FRAMEWOR	RK
2	The euro market erodes US financial structure	21
3	Commercial paper guarantees and the emergence of a parallel banking system	29
4	ERISA moves savings into securities markets	34
PA	RT II DEREGULATION AND FINANCIAL INNOVATION CREATE THE CONTEXT FOR CRISIS
5	An overview of financial restructuring and its consequences	43
6	Securitization	46
7	Weaving the web of interconnectedness	51
8	Opaque markets and opaque balance sheets	58
9	Growing concentration leads to "too big to fail"	64
10	Regulating the post-crisis system
11	Mending the financial safety net for savers	82
PA	RT III THE ADVENT OF GLOBALIZATION
12	Dollar hegemony 9
13	Foreign exchange reserves 98

14	the 1990s
PA	RT IV	BUILDING TOWARD CRISIS IN THE GLOBAL ECONOMY
15	Concer	rns and warnings	107
16	Crises	in the periphery of the global system	110
17	Liquid	ity expansion in the period before the crisis	121
PA	RT V	DEBT AND THE COLLAPSE OF MONETARY CONTROL
18	The fa	ilure to halt the emergence and growth of the debt bubble	127
19	Rising	imbalances in credit flows	132
20	Mounting risks of the continuing debt bubble in the new millennium
21	How e	roding monetary tools facilitated debt creation	142
22	Monet	ary tools: what they are and how they function	145
23		ability of capital requirements to prevent or moderate al crises	153
24	How c	risis reshaped the monetary toolkit	157
PA	RT VI	AN AGENDA FOR MONETARY REFORM
25	Introdu	icing a systemic approach	165
26	Creatin	ng a system-wide asset-based reserve system	171
27	Implen	nenting policy under the current and proposed systems	176
28	Implic	ations of the proposed system for the conduct of policy	180
PA	RT VII	REFORMING THE PRIVATIZED INTERNATIONAL MONETARY SYSTEM
29	_	pecial drawing rights replace the dollar and other national cies as a reserve asset?	187

Contents	vii
30 Restructuring flows of private international investment into emerging and developing economies	192
31 Reforming the international payments system	200
PART VIII CONCLUSION
32 Building toward crisis in the global economy—again	219
Bibliography Index	