

Contents

| | |
|--|------|
| List of Figures | xiii |
| List of Tables | xv |
| Preface | xvii |
| Introduction — Dennis L. Meadows | xxi |
| Part I Nutrition and Energy in the Steady State | 1 |
| Introduction to Part I | 3 |
| Chapter 1 The World Food Problem: Growth Models and Nongrowth Solutions — Donella Meadows | 7 |
| Introduction | 7 |
| The Population-Food Situation | 8 |
| Boundaries in Space and Time | 10 |
| Theories of Population-Food Interaction | 11 |
| Values and Priorities | 33 |
| Primary Policy Considerations | 36 |
| Implementation Considerations | 37 |
| Conclusion | 43 |

Chapter 2

Technologies for a New Life-Style

—John Todd

45

Introduction

45

Guidelines for Research

47

Early Experiments

48

Related Studies

57

Chapter 3

Limits to Energy Conversion: The Case for Decentralized Technologies

—Amory Lovins

59

General Energy Limits

59

Limits to Centralized Electricity

65

Limits to Nuclear Fission Technology

70

Some Preventive Measures

76

Chapter 4

Economic Growth, Energy Use, and Altruism

—Bruce Hannon

79

Energy Conservation

79

Modeling Energy Consumption and Employment

82

The First Obstacle: Income and Energy

88

The Second Obstacle: Trading Energy for Labor

91

The Third Obstacle: Respending Dollars Saved

94

Conclusions

96

Part II Economic Alternatives in an Age of Limits

101

Introduction to Part II

103

Chapter 5

New Perspectives on Economic Growth

—Jay Forrester

107

Social Limits

107

National Focus for Action

109

| | |
|--|-----|
| Intermediate-Term Dynamics | 112 |
| Summary | 121 |
| | |
| Chapter 6 | |
| The Coming Economic Transition | |
| — Hazel Henderson | 123 |
| Government-Policy Economics | 124 |
| Policy Directions for the Coming Economic Transition | 129 |
| Long-Term Goals | 133 |
| | |
| Chapter 7 | |
| Equity, The Free Market, and the Sustainable State | |
| — Donella Meadows | 135 |
| What Is Inequity and Why Should We Care About It? | 136 |
| How Does the Market Distribute the Means of Production? | 143 |
| Is the Free Market Consistent with the Sustainable State? | 151 |
| | |
| Chapter 8 | |
| On Limiting Economic Growth | |
| — Herman Daly | 155 |
| Current Emphasis on Economic Growth | 155 |
| Model for a Steady-State Economy | 158 |
| | |
| Part III The Politics of Equity and Social Progress in a Finite World | 167 |
| | |
| Introduction to Part III | 169 |
| | |
| Chapter 9 | |
| Lessons In Equity from Local Communities | |
| — Earl Finkler | 175 |
| An Introduction to Local Nongrowth Initiatives | 175 |
| The New Mood | 177 |
| Nongrowth and Citizen Participation | 182 |
| Transition—Thoughts on the Nongrowth-Social Equity Frontier | 188 |
| Challenge to Act | 194 |

| | |
|--|-----|
| Chapter 10 | |
| In Defense of Long-Range Federal Planning | |
| — Jacob Javits | 195 |
| The Need for Long-Range Planning | 195 |
| The Criticisms of Long-Range Planning | 197 |
| Planning in the Twentieth Century | 202 |
| | |
| Chapter 11 | |
| The Pitfalls of National Planning | |
| — Maurice LaMontagne | 203 |
| Planning in a New Perspective | 203 |
| The Canadian Planning Model | 205 |
| The Failure of the Canadian Model | 208 |
| Planning Versus Factionalism | 211 |
| The Need for Consensus | 214 |
| | |
| Chapter 12 | |
| Strategies for Societal Development* | |
| — Joan Davis and Samuel Mauch | 217 |
| Introduction | 217 |
| Societal Structure | 223 |
| Strategies for Societal Development | 235 |
| | |
| Chapter 13 | |
| International Migration and World Stability* | |
| — John Tanton | 243 |
| Historical Background and Demography | 244 |
| Effects on Countries of Emigration | 247 |
| Effects on Countries of Immigration | 251 |
| The Worldwide Perspective and Some Ethical Dilemmas | 255 |
| Conclusions | 263 |
| | |
| Part IV Life-styles and Social Norms for a Sustainable State | 265 |
| | |
| Introduction to Part IV | 267 |

| | |
|--|-----|
| Chapter 14 | |
| Prometheus Rebound: An Inquiry into Technological Growth and Psychological Change | |
| — Jean Houston | 273 |
| The Ancient Roots of the Problem | 273 |
| Technology and the Pathology of Space and Time | 279 |
| What, if Anything, Does it All Mean? | 287 |
| Conclusions | 295 |
| | |
| Chapter 15 | |
| Education for Inventing the Future | |
| — Elise Boulding | 297 |
| New Images of the Future | 297 |
| New Information Processing Techniques | 300 |
| | |
| Chapter 16 | |
| Towards a Primary Life-style* | |
| — Robert Allen | 313 |
| Current Prospect: The Grip of Disequilibrium | 313 |
| A New Prospect for Equilibrium: The Development of Norms | 316 |
| Retrospect: An Analysis of Past Equilibrium | 317 |
| New Prospect: Primary Life-styles in a Polytopia | 325 |
| | |
| Chapter 17 | |
| Settlements and Social Stability | |
| — Edward Goldsmith | 331 |
| Modern Instability | 331 |
| Lessons in Stability from our Forebearers | 337 |
| | |
| *Mitchell Prize Winner | |
| | |
| Notes | 351 |
| | |
| Index | 375 |
| | |
| About the Editor | 391 |
| | |
| About the Contributors | 393 |

| | |
|--|------------|
| Contributions to the Conference | 383 |
| Related Publications | 387 |
| Index | 391 |