

Contents

S. Durlauf, J. F. Helliwell and B. Raj Long-Run Economic Growth	1
I. Testable Implications of Various Growth Theories and Modelling and Identification of Common Shocks
P. Aghion and P. Howitt The Observational Implications of Schumpeterian Growth Theory	13
M. Forni and L. Reichlin Dynamic Common Factors in Large Cross-Sections	27
II. International Trade and Growth Linkages
R. G. Harris Human Capital and Measurable Dynamic Gains from Economic Integration.	45
R. G. Riezman, C. H. Whiteman and P. M. Summers The Engine of Growth or its Handmaiden?	77
III. Analysis of Co-Movements and Convergence at Regional Level of Incomes
A. B. Bernard and C. I. Jones Productivity and Convergence Across U. S. States and Industries	113
D. T. Quah Aggregate and Regional Disaggregate Fluctuations	137
IV. Public Services, Money, and Growth Linkages
S. Dowrick Estimating the Impact of Government Consumption on Growth: Growth Accounting and Endogenous Growth Models.	163
P. Evans Growth and the Neutrality of Money	187
Subject-Index	203