

Contents

Illustrations ix

Abbreviations xi

Preface xv

1. "A poor little female" 1
  - Biographical sketch 4
  - Survey of Hildegard's works 15
  - Theology and the problem
of feminine authority 34

2. The Feminine Divine 42
  - Theophany and the bride of God 46
  - The mirror of providence, the virgin spring,
and the tree of life 51
  - The eternal counsel 55
  - Wisdom as creatio and anima mundi 64
  - Wisdom's vesture 71
  - The chastishments of charity 75

3. The Woman and the Serpent 89
  - Made in God's image 91
  - The garment and the mirror 94
  - The bright cloud and the shadow 100
  - Eve and Satan 107

4. Daughters of Eve 121
  - Women's sexuality and character 126
  - God, Satan, and fertility 133

Gynecology	143
Healing and magic	148
5. The Mother of God	156
Mary and the ancient counsel	160
Eve and Mary	167
Atonement through the virgin birth	171
Mary as the feminine ideal	181
Mary, the Church, and the priesthood	188
6. The Bride of Christ	196
The Church eternal in heaven	198
Synagogue and Church	204
The wedding on Calvary	211
Christ's virgins and the virgin Church	218
Mother Church and the motherhood of God	228
"An effeminate age"	238
7. Sister of Wisdom	250
Theology and gender revisited	254
Sapiential thought through the twentieth century	258
Feminism and the future of Sophia	265
Appendixes
A. A Hildegard Discography	273
B. Texts of Hildegard's Poetry	275
Index	283