

CONTENTS

EDITOR'S NOTE	v
INTRODUCTION	xix
THE BOOK OF SEASONS	i
TREATISE ONE: SABBATH	3
Chapter 1. Commandment to refrain from work on the Sabbath (Sec. 1); definition of liability, exemption, permissibility, and nonliability (Secs. 2-4); permissible actions resulting in forbidden work (Secs. 5, 6); liability for prohibited work not required for its own sake (Sec. 7), for unintended work (Secs. 8-11), for intended work performed in an unintended manner (Secs. 12, 13), for uncompleted work (Sec. 14), and for work performed jointly with another person (Secs. 15, 16); work of destructive nature exempt (Sec. 17), but not if preliminary to constructive work (Sec. 18); work performed inadvertently (Sec. 19)	5
Chapter 2. Commandment set aside in case of danger to life (Sec. 1); illness (Secs. 2-10); childbirth (Secs. 11-15); accident (Secs. 16-21); peril in the wilderness (Sec. 22); siege (Sec. 23); peril at sea, flood, etc. (Sec. 24); war (Sec. 25)	10
Chapter 3. Work—particularly cooking—may be commenced on Sabbath eve and left to continue automatically on the Sabbath, but not if it may lead one to perform forbidden work (Secs. 1-22)	18
Chapter 4. Substances which do or do not increase heat (Sec. 1); storage of food in such substances (Secs. 2-6)	24
Chapter 5. The Sabbath lamp (Secs. 1, 2); when permitted (Secs. 3, 4); the wick (Secs. 5-7); the oil (Secs. 8-13); the use of its light (Secs. 14-16); lamp fastened to a door or a tree (Sec. 17); the sounding of a ram's horn in the Holy Land to announce the approach of the Sabbath (Secs. 18-21)	26
Chapter 6. Work done on the Sabbath by a heathen at an Israelite's bidding (Sec. 1); work done on the heathen's own initiative (Secs. 2-8); acts performed by a heathen which are forbidden only as contrary to the spirit of Sabbath rest (Secs. 9-11); contracting with a heathen for work to be done over a longer period of time, including one or more Sabbaths (Secs. 12-15); lending or leasing utensils to a heathen (Sec. 16); partnership with a heathen (Secs. 17, 18); articles carried by a heathen into or out of an Israelite's house (Secs. 19-21); use of a heathen as a carrier of money over the Sabbath (Sec. 22); use by other persons of work deliberately done by an Israelite on the Sabbath (Secs. 23, 24); payment of wages for work done on the Sabbath (Sec. 25)	32

Chapter 7. Statutory kinds of work (Sec. 1); equivalent kinds of work (Secs. 2-4); subsidiary kinds of work (Secs. 5, 6); penalties for performance (Secs. 7-9)	40
Chapter 8. Plowing (Sec. 1); sowing (Sec. 2); reaping (Secs. 3-6); threshing, milking, wounding (Secs. 7-9); pressing juices (Sec. 10); winnowing and sorting (Secs. 11-13); straining (Sec. 14); grinding (Sec. 15); sifting and kneading (Sec. 16)	43
Chapter 9. Baking and boiling (Secs. 1-4); roasting (Sec. 5); melting (Sec. 6); shearing and paring (Secs. 7-9); scouring (Sec. 10); laundering (Sec. 11); carding (Sec. 12); dyeing (Secs. 13, 14); spinning and weaving (Secs. 15-20)	47
Chapter 10. Tying knots (Secs. 1-8); sewing (Sec. 9); tearing (Sec. 10); pasting (Sec. 11); building (Secs. 12-14); demolishing (Sec. 15); striking (Secs. 16-18); hunting (Secs. 19-25)	53
Chapter 11. Slaughtering (Secs. 1-4); skinning (Secs. 5, 6); cutting and clipping (Secs. 7, 8); writing (Secs. 9-16); drawing (Sec. 17)	59
Chapter 12. Burning and extinguishing (Secs. 1-7); transfer of articles from one domain to another (Secs. 8-19)	64
Chapter 13. Transfer of articles from one domain to another (continued) (Secs. 1-22)	69
Chapter 14. Definition of public and private domains (Secs. 1-3), semipublic domain (Secs. 4-6), and exempted region (Sec. 7); area in a public domain less than ten handbreadths high (Secs. 8, 9); crevices (Sec. 10); movement of articles within the various domains (Sec. 11), from and to an exempted region (Sec. 12), from and to a semipublic domain (Sec. 13), across a semipublic domain (Sec. 14), and across an exempted region (Sec. 15); pillars and mounds (Sec. 16); poles and trees (Sec. 17); thrown objects (Secs. 18-19); cisterns (Sec. 20); board thrown on top of pegs (Sec. 21); cisterns (continued) (Secs. 22-23); pools (Sec. 24)	76
Chapter 15. Movement of articles in one domain by a person standing in another domain (Secs. 1-3); window ledge projecting over a public domain (Secs. 4-7); two houses on opposite sides of a public domain (Sec. 8); well in a public domain (Sec. 9); midden in a public domain (Sec. 10); water channel in a courtyard (Secs. 11-14); balcony projecting over water (Sec. 15); waste liquid receptacles (Secs. 16-19); drawing water on board a ship (Sec. 20); scroll rolling out from one domain into another (Sec. 21); removal of thorns, dead bodies, and sea-water (Sec. 22)	83

CONTENTS

ix

Chapter 16. Area enclosed for nonresidential purposes (Secs. 1-4); breach made therein (Sec. 5); residential area sown with a seed crop (Sec. 6); nonresidential area partly roofed over, or broken open into a residential courtyard (Sec. 7); reduction of an area's size (Secs. 8-9); house-yard (Secs. 10-11); enclosed area in open country (Secs. 12, 13); adjacent enclosed areas (Sec. 14); partitions (Secs. 15-23); spreading trees (Sec. 24)	90
Chapter 17. Definition of alley (Sec. 1); conversion to permissible domain (Secs. 2-11); side-posts, crossbeams, fences, corner-pieces, verandas (Secs. 12-35); definition of fingerbreadth, handbreadth, and cubit (Sec. 36)	97
Chapter 18. Minimum quantity of transferred matter: food (Sec. 1), liquids (Sec. 2), fodder (Sec. 3), wood (Sec. 4), condiments, seeds, etc. (Secs. 5-7), dyes (Sec. 8), ink (Sec. 9), eye-paint, pitch, wax, grease (Sec. 10), earth and the like (Sec. 11), rope, etc. (Sec. 12), hair, etc. (Sec. 13), hides (Sec. 14), parchment and papyrus (Sec. 15), live animals and human beings, and dead bodies (Secs. 16-18); reduction of the minimum quantity (Sec. 19); role of motive in transfer of articles (Secs. 20, 21); articles not normally worth storing (Sec. 22); transfer of half of minimum quantity (Secs. 23, 24); effect of swelling and shrinkage (Secs. 25-27); transfer in a vessel (Sec. 28)	107
Chapter 19. Rules regarding articles worn or carried: weapons (Sec. 1), studded sandals and girdles (Sec. 2), rings (Secs. 3, 4), needles and pins (Sec. 5), threads and straps (Sec. 6), women's ornaments (Secs. 7-12), bandages (Sec. 13), amulets (Sec. 14), odd or ill-fitting apparel (Sec. 15), wigs (Sec. 16), blankets and pillows (Sec. 17), belled garments and gathered cloak-folds (Sec. 18), folded cloaks, scarves, and kerchiefs (Sec. 19), fringed cloaks (Sec. 20), craft tools (Sec. 21), drip-pouch (Sec. 22), phylacteries (Secs. 23, 24), Scrolls of the Law (Sec. 25); articles worn or carried before dusk on Friday (Sec. 26)	116
Chapter 20. Burden laden on backs of beasts (Secs. 1, 2); lending, leasing, or selling beasts to heathens (Secs. 3-5); use of a beast to carry a traveler's purse (Secs. 6-7); equipment worn by animals (Secs. 8-13); duty to have one's slaves rest on the Sabbath (Sec. 14)	124
Chapter 21. Definition of acts prohibited as contrary to the spirit of Sabbath rest (Sec. 1); leveling grooves (Secs. 2-4); watering plants (Sec. 5); plucking plants (Secs. 6, 7); sitting on plant-

- roots (Sec. 8); riding an animal and climbing a tree (Sec. 9); unloading a beast of burden (Sec. 10); gathering fruit in a basket (Sec. 11); pressing and squeezing fruits and vegetables (Secs. 12-16); fanning, straining, and draining (Sec. 17); cutting vegetables and fodder (Secs. 18, 19); pounding (Sec. 20); use of medicinal foods and beverages, and other medications (Secs. 21-31); sifting (Sec. 32); kneading (Secs. 33, 34); feeding animals (Secs. 35, 36) 129
- Chapter 22. Taking bread out of the oven (Sec. 1); visiting a bathhouse and washing (Secs. 2, 3); warming water or oil (Secs. 4-6); steeping (Secs. 7-8); warming in the sun (Sec. 9); mixing (Secs. 10-11); use of seasoning (Sec. 12); use of depilatories (Sec. 13); use of a mirror (Sec. 14); wringing (Sec. 15); salvage of liquid contents of broken vessels (Sec. 16); rubbing clothes and scraping footwear (Secs. 17, 18); wiping one's hands (Sec. 19); drying one's clothes (Sec. 20); plugging gutters (Sec. 21); creasing and ironing clothes (Sec. 22); using rouge and stuffing pillows (Sec. 23); tearing clothes (Sec. 24); removal and replacement of doors (Sec. 25); plaiting hair, reassembling articles of furniture, etc. (Sec. 26); erecting a tent or canopy (Secs. 27-33) 140
- Chapter 23. Making entrance and exit holes (Secs. 1, 2); stopping up holes (Sec. 3); sawing, producing musical sounds, swimming (Secs. 4, 5); acts resembling the fashioning of a utensil (Sec. 6); polishing silverware, dishwashing, bed-making (Sec. 7); cleansing by immersion (Sec. 8); tithing of produce (Sec. 9); oiling new leather (Sec. 10); spreading wax or grease (Sec. 11); acts resembling, or leading to, writing (Secs. 12-13); dedication of articles to sacred use (Secs. 14-16); casting lots (Sec. 17); casting accounts (Sec. 18); reading documents, lists, etc. (Sec. 19); rescuing articles from a conflagration (Secs. 20-28) 148
- Chapter 24. Acts preparatory or auxiliary to business transactions (Secs. 1-4); acts preparatory or auxiliary to the performance of a religious duty (Secs. 5, 6); execution of judicial punishment (Sec. 7); guarding of property (Secs. 8, 9); acts performed during twilight (Sec. 10); acts performed by a minor (Sec. 11); moving articles in weekday manner (Secs. 12, 13) 157
- Chapter 25. Definition of utensils used for permissible or prohibited work (Secs. 1, 2); moving of such utensils (Secs. 3-9), of utensils set apart (Secs. 10, 11), of broken articles (Sec. 12), of a vessel's lid (Sec. 13), of joined articles (Secs. 14-18), of offerings (Secs. 19, 20), of articles made available for use on Friday (Secs. 21, 22); annulment of a vessel's availability for use (Secs. 23-25); shifting an animal bodily (Sec. 26) 162

CONTENTS

xi

Chapter 26. Moving of: weavers' tools (Sec. 1), brooms and bricks (Sec. 2), potsherds (Sec. 3), privy stones (Secs. 4, 5), scraps of mats, clothing, etc. (Sec. 6), ladders and canes (Sec. 7), doors and bolts (Secs. 8-10), candelabra (Sec. 11), shoes, clothes-presses, etc. (Sec. 12), "pots of ordure" (Sec. 13), oil, grain, etc. (Secs. 14, 15), fodder (Secs. 16-19), corpses (Secs. 20-23)	170
Chapter 27. Sabbath limit: definition of (Secs. 1-3); varieties of (Secs. 4-8); as applied to travelers (Secs. 9, 10); re-entry into (Sec. 11); unintentional and intentional violation of (Secs. 12-14); excusable violation of (Secs. 15-17)	176
Chapter 28. Residences situated $70\frac{2}{3}$ cubits outside town limits (Secs. 1-4); cities situated within $141\frac{1}{3}$ cubits of each other (Sec. 5); measurement of the Sabbath limit (Secs. 6-10); measuring tools (Sec. 11); measurement of rifts (Sec. 12), undulating ground (Sec. 13), walls (Sec. 14), hills (Sec. 15), distances greater than 50 cubits (Sec. 16); reliability of surveyors (Secs. 17, 18); credibility of informants (Sec. 19)	181
Chapter 29. Commandment to proclaim the sanctity of the Sabbath (Sec. 1); form of Sanctification (Sec. 2); form of Habdalah (Sec. 3); time and conditions of Sanctification and Habdalah (Secs. 4, 5); the use of wine (Secs. 6, 7); place of Sanctification (Sec. 8); procedure in absence of wine (Sec. 9); omission of Sanctification, and recital of the Great Sanctification (Sec. 10); premature recital of Sanctification and Habdalah (Sec. 11); Sanctification and Habdalah in the middle of a meal or immediately after a meal (Secs. 12, 13); specifications of the wine (Secs. 14-17); Sanctification and Habdalah on festival days (Secs. 18-23); order of benedictions at the termination of the Sabbath (Sec. 24); benediction over the light (Secs. 25-27); form of Habdalah on a festival day in the middle of the week (Sec. 28); reason for the benediction over the spices (Sec. 29)	186
Chapter 30. Four duties relating to the Sabbath (Sec. 1); honoring the Sabbath (Secs. 2-6); delighting in the Sabbath (Secs. 7-10); limitation of travel on Friday (Sec. 11); prohibition of fasting (Sec. 12); rules governing warfare and sea voyages (Sec. 13); marital intercourse included under delight (Sec. 14); basic importance of the observance of the Sabbath (Sec. 15)	194
TREATISE TWO: ' Erub	199
Chapter 1. Definition of ' erub ' (Secs. 1-3); reason for it (Secs. 4, 5); form of it (Secs. 6, 7); components and amount of it (Secs. 8-11); weights and measures (Secs. 12, 13); permissible and forbidden components (Secs. 14, 15); manner of preparing an ' erub

(Secs. 16, 17); 'erub kept in more than one receptacle (Sec. 18); alley-partnership does not make courtyard-'erub unnecessary (Sec. 19); transfer of ownership by an individual preparing an 'erub for all the residents (Sec. 20); 'erub must be ready on Friday (Secs. 21, 22)

200

Chapter 2. Renunciation of one's rights in favor of the other residents (Secs. 1-6); effect of a participant's death (Sec. 7); cave occupied jointly by an Israelite and a proselyte (Sec. 8); courtyard occupied jointly by one or two Israelites and a heathen (Secs. 9, 10); two courtyards, one within the other (Sec. 11); leasing a heathen's domain (Secs. 12, 13); the case of lessor and lessee both heathens (Sec. 14); window opening from one Israel- 207
ite residence to another (Sec. 15); status of renegade or heretical Israelite (Sec. 16)

Chapter 3. Window between two courtyards (Sec. 1); window between two houses or two stories (Sec. 2); wall or straw stack between two courtyards (Secs. 3, 4); dais beside a wall (Sec. 5); shelf projecting from a wall (Sec. 6); palm-trunk, ladder, or straw partition (Sec. 7); tree used as ladder (Sec. 8); reduction of a wall's height or thickness (Sec. 9); partly breached wall (Secs. 10, 11); trench between two courtyards, or board between two balconies (Secs. 12-14); courtyards situated on different levels (Secs. 15, 16); waste lots (Sec. 17); roofs, courtyard areas, etc. (Secs. 18-20); cistern between two courtyards (Secs. 21-23); wholly breached wall (Sec. 24); blocked door or window, or collapsed wall (Sec. 25)

213

Chapter 4. Residents of a courtyard who take their meals at a common table (Sec. 1); need contribute only one loaf to a joint 'erub (Sec. 2); same rule applies to residents of a courtyard who have already prepared an 'erub among themselves (Sec. 3), or to several conveyors of the 'erub to its place of deposit (Sec. 4); status of father and son, or teacher and pupil (Sec. 5); brothers, wives, or servants who do not share the same table with the head of the household (Sec. 6); several groups of people sharing a large hall (Sec. 7); one person owning property in another person's courtyard (Sec. 8); several rooms one inside the other (Sec. 9); interconnected houses separating two courtyards (Secs. 10, 11); status of a resident who is on the verge of death, of a minor, and of a guest (Sec. 12), of an absent resident (Sec. 13), and of an absentee lessor (Sec. 14); failure to prepare an 'erub, and status of residents of a balcony or upper story (Secs. 15-18); two courtyards one within the other (Secs. 19-22); three courtyards opening into one another (Sec. 23); balconies situated one above the other (Secs. 24, 25); three-storied houses (Sec. 26); two opposite upper floors overlooking a courtyard (Sec. 27)	221

Chapter 5. Token partnership by residents of an alley (Secs. 1, 2); transfer of ownership by one alley resident to the others (Sec. 3); courtyard connected with two alleys (Secs. 4-9); courtyard connected with both alley and open country or enclosed area (Sec. 10); absent resident of an alley (Sec. 11); renunciation of rights by one alley resident in favor of another (Sec. 12); effect of failure to contribute to, or prepare, an 'erub upon the token partnership (Secs. 13, 14); failure to form a token partnership (Sec. 15); heathen or Sadducee alley resident (Secs. 16-18); token partnership in a city (Secs. 19-24)	229
Chapter 6. Token fusion of Sabbath limits (Secs. 1-5); when valid (Sec. 6); its components (Sec. 7); its location (Secs. 8-12); established by proxy (Sec. 13); effect of inaccessibility or uncleanness of the token food (Secs. 14-16); deposit in a cemetery (Sec. 17); joint token fusion of Sabbath limits (Sec. 18); transfer of ownership for a token fusion (Sec. 19); purchase of the token food (Sec. 20); token fusion for one's wife, child, or slave (Sec. 21); deposit by messenger (Sec. 22); variation due to proxy's preference (Sec. 23); benediction required over token fusion (Sec. 24)	236
Chapter 7. Establishment of a token residence by standing on or near the spot (Secs. 1-4); invalid if location is unspecified (Secs. 5-7); establishment by messenger (Sec. 8); mere setting out for the spot is sufficient (Sec. 9); status of students boarding with country folk (Sec. 10)	245
Chapter 8. Two different token residences for the same day invalid (Secs. 1, 2), with one exception (Sec. 3); Sabbath limits applicable also to festivals (Secs. 4, 5); Sabbath residence may be stipulated to apply to one Sabbath and not another (Sec. 6), or to whomever, or whenever, one wishes (Sec. 7); procedure for two consecutive days of a festival (Secs. 8-13); procedure for a festival falling on Friday or on both Thursday and Friday (Secs. 14-15)	249
TREATISE THREE: REPOSE ON THE TENTH OF TISHRI	255
Chapter 1. Commandment to rest on the Day of Atonement (Secs. 1, 2); permissible acts (Sec. 3); commandment to fast on that day (Sec. 4); other forbidden acts (Sec. 5); duty to add part of the preceding and following weekdays to the fast-day (Secs. 6, 7)	257
Chapter 2. Minimum of food and drink sufficient to constitute violation of the fast (Secs. 1-4); particular kinds of food and drink (Secs. 5-7); exemption of the sick (Secs. 8, 9); training of children in fasting (Secs. 10, 11) 259

 Chapter 3. Washing, bathing, and wading (Secs. 1-6); use of footwear (Secs. 7, 8); anointing with oil (Sec. 9); burning lamps (Sec. 10) 262

TREATISE FOUR: REPOSE ON A FESTIVAL 265

Chapter 1. Definition of festival days and of work prohibited on them (Secs. 1-4); work that can be done just as well on the eve of the festival (Secs. 5-8); preparation and cooking of food (Secs. 9-13); food owned jointly by Israelites and heathens (Sec. 14); food prepared for heathens or animals (Sec. 15); washing and anointing with oil (Sec. 16); acts resembling, or leading to, prohibited work (Secs. 17, 18); food prepared on a festival for a Sabbath or vice versa (Secs. 19-20); second day of festivals in the Dispersion (Secs. 21-24) 268
 Chapter 2. Things set apart or newly born (Secs. 1-18) 275
 Chapter 3. Slaughtering and its auxiliaries (Secs. 1-7); kneading and baking (Secs. 8-11); cheese-making and pounding condiments (Sec. 12); crushing groats (Sec. 13); sifting and straining (Secs. 14-17) 281
 Chapter 4. Kindling and extinguishing fire (Secs. 1-7); breaking earthenware, etc. (Sec. 8); sharpening knives (Sec. 9); chopping firewood (Secs. 10, 11); taking down shutters (Sec. 12); assembling detachable parts (Sec. 13); arrangement of logs and hearthstones (Secs. 14, 15); caring for domestic animals (Sec. 16); immersion of vessels (Secs. 17, 18); business transactions (Secs. 19-25); offerings, tithes, and charitable contributions (Sec. 26) 285
 Chapter 5. Carrying of: burdens (Secs. 1, 2), staff, pouch, chair (Sec. 3), ladder (Sec. 4), produce and meat (Sec. 5); sending of gifts (Secs. 6-8); festival limits (Secs. 9-20) 292
 Chapter 6. 'Erub of dishes (Secs. 1-15); the duty of honoring the festivals (Sec. 16) and rejoicing in them (Secs. 17-20); appointment of officers to patrol public places (Sec. 21); funerals on intermediate days of a festival (Secs. 22-24) 298
 Chapter 7. Work on intermediate days (Secs. 1-3); deliberate postponement of work to the intermediate days (Sec. 4); sewing and building (Sec. 5); harvesting (Sec. 6); pickling (Sec. 7); brewing (Sec. 8); work done by craftsmen (Sec. 9); work required to satisfy public needs (Secs. 10, 11); trial of lawsuits and execution of writs (Sec. 12); writing of scrolls, letters of greeting, and personal accounts (Secs. 13, 14); funerals (Sec.

CONTENTS

XV

15); inspection of plagues, and marriage (Sec. 16); haircutting and laundering (Secs. 17-19); personal grooming and use of cosmetics (Sec. 20); washing of clothes by persons emerging from the state of impurity, and similar cases (Sec. 21); commercial transactions (Secs. 22, 23); work done by heathens, or urgently required for one's livelihood (Sec. 24); hiring of workmen (Sec. 25)	305
Chapter 8. Irrigation of crops (Secs. 1-4); trapping of vermin (Sec. 5); repair of walls, fences, etc. (Sec. 6); house repair (Sec. 7); digging graves and building tombs (Secs. 8, 9); doctoring plants, etc. (Sec. 10); tending flocks (Sec. 11); leveling ground, etc. (Sec. 12); manufacture of ovens, etc. (Sec. 13); waterproofing jugs, etc. (Sec. 14); care of animals (Sec. 15); moving household goods (Sec. 16); work done on the eve of a festival (Secs. 17-21)	313
TREATISE FIVE: LEAVENED AND UNLEAVENED BREAD	321
Chapter 1. Prohibition of leaven during Passover (Secs. 1-3); leaven kept over Passover (Sec. 4); leaven mixed with other food (Sec. 5); food containing a leavened ingredient (Sec. 6); minimum of leaven required to constitute transgression (Sec. 7); time limits of the prohibition (Secs. 8-10)	324
Chapter 2. Putting away leaven (Secs. 1, 2); searching for leaven (Secs. 3-19)	327
Chapter 3. Disposal of leaven (Secs. 1-4); failure to search for leaven (Sec. 5); benediction to be recited (Sec. 6); nullification of undiscovered leaven (Secs. 7-10); method of destroying leaven (Sec. 11)	333
Chapter 4. Commandment requiring that leaven should be neither seen nor found in one's house (Secs. 1, 2); leaven deposited by a heathen with an Israelite (Secs. 3, 4); leaven left by an Israelite with a heathen as a pledge (Sec. 5); sale of leaven to a heathen (Secs. 6, 7); inedible leaven (Secs. 8-12)	337
Chapter 5. The statutory kinds of grain subject to leavening (Secs. 1, 2); boiling of grain or flour (Secs. 3, 4); parched grain (Sec. 5); moistened barley (Sec. 6); moistened wheat (Sec. 7); wheat or barley grains found in cooked food (Sec. 8); commandment to guard unleavened bread (Secs. 9, 10); preparation of unleavened bread (Secs. 11-20); precautions to be taken with vessels (Secs. 21-26)	340
Chapter 6. Commandment to eat unleavened bread on the night of the fifteenth of Nisan (Secs. 1-3); composition and nature of unleavened bread fit for fulfillment of this commandment (Secs.

4-9); who must eat it (Sec. 10); nothing may be eaten after it (Sec. 11); eating of it on the eve of Passover (Sec. 12)	346
Chapter 7. Commandment to tell on the night of the fifteenth the story of the miracles wrought in Egypt (Secs. 1-5); manner of recital (Secs. 6-8); regulations governing the wine (Secs. 9, 10); Hāroset (Sec. 11); bitter herbs (Secs. 12, 13)	350
Chapter 8. Order of the Passover night ritual (Secs. 1-14)	354
[Chapter 9]. Text of the Haggadah (Secs. 1-39)	359
TREATISE SIX: RAM'S HORN, ETC.	367
Chapter 1. Commandment to hear the blast of a horn at New Year (Secs. 1, 2); horn used in idolatry or obtained by robbery (Sec. 3); profanation of the festival for the sake of the horn (Sec. 4); damaged and unfit horns (Secs. 5-7); horn sounded in a cistern or cave (Sec. 8)	369
Chapter 2. Who must hear the horn's blast (Secs. 1-3); both blower and listener must have the intention to fulfill the duty of listening to the blast (Secs. 4, 5); blowing the horn on the Sabbath (Secs. 6-10)	372
Chapter 3. Number and varieties of blasts (Secs. 1-6); benedictions required (Secs. 7-13)	375
Chapter 4. Dimensions of the booth for the Feast of Tabernacles (Sec. 1); fit and unfit booths (Secs. 2-16)	380
Chapter 5. Covering of the booth (Secs. 1-21); booth erected on top of another booth (Sec. 22); one booth inside another (Secs. 23, 24); borrowed or stolen booth (Sec. 25)	384
Chapter 6. Who must dwell in the booth (Secs. 1-4); manner of dwelling (Secs. 5-9); leaving the booth (Secs. 10, 11); benedictions required (Sec. 12); dwelling in the booth on the eighth day of the festival (Secs. 13, 14); failure to erect the booth, and extraneous use of its wood and decorations (Secs. 15, 16)	392
Chapter 7. Components of the lulab (Secs. 1-8); manner of taking it up (Secs. 9-12); when taken up (Secs. 13-18); who must take it up (Sec. 19); the other willow (Secs. 20-22); the circuit of the altar or Ark of the Law (Sec. 23); carrying the lulab in Jerusalem (Sec. 24); watering the lulab (Sec. 25); smelling the myrtle and the citron (Sec. 26); eating the citron (Sec. 27)	396
Chapter 8. Unfit lulab (Secs. 1-11); rejoicing in the Temple during the Feast of Tabernacles (Secs. 12-14); duty to rejoice in the fulfillment of commandments (Sec. 15)	403
TREATISE SEVEN: SHEKEL DUES	409
Chapter 1. Commandment to pay half a shekel (Sec. 1); weights of various coins (Secs. 2-4); shekel dues payable in current coin

CONTENTS

xvii

(Secs. 5, 6); who must pay (Sec. 7); no longer payable after the destruction of the Temple (Sec. 8); method of collection (Secs. 9, 10)	411
Chapter 2. Boxes used by the collectors (Sec. 1), and by the money-changers in the Temple (Secs. 2, 3); baskets used in the Temple (Sec. 4); procedure of taking up the heave offering (Secs. 5-9); qualifications of the officiating priest (Sec. 10)	413
Chapter 3. The money-changer's premium (kollybon) (Sec. 1); who must pay it (Secs. 2-6); amount of the kollybon (Sec. 7); shekel dues lost in transit (Secs. 8, 9); shekel dues obtained by fraud or theft (Secs. 10, 11); shekel dues paid in error (Sec. 12); money set aside in excess of the amount due (Sec. 13); money found outside the boxes for shekel dues (Secs. 14, 15)	417
Chapter 4. Use of the moneys collected (Secs. 1-12)	422
TREATISE EIGHT: SANCTIFICATION OF THE NEW MOON
[See Yale Judaica Series, Volume XI]	427
TREATISE NINE: FASTS
Chapter 1. Commandment to pray and sound the alarm in times of trouble (Secs. 1-3); communal fasting required by the Sages at such times (Sec. 4); days on which fasting is to be appointed (Sec. 5); fasting on Sabbaths and festivals (Secs. 6, 7); persons exempted, and permission of eating on the preceding night (Sec. 8); fasts undertaken by individuals (Secs. 9-15); procedure upon cessation of the trouble (Sec. 16); court to sit on fast days to inquire into the cause of the calamity (Sec. 17)	431
Chapter 2. Afflictions requiring communal fasting (Secs. 1, 2); definition of oppression (Sec. 3), war (Sec. 4), pestilence (Secs. 5, 6), plagues of noxious beasts and vermin (Secs. 7-10), crop damage (Sec. 11), collapse of buildings (Sec. 12), epidemics (Sec. 13), economic crises (Sec. 14), and excess or deficiency of rain (Secs. 15-18)	435
Chapter 3. Fasts for rain (Secs. 1-11)	439
Chapter 4. Order of public prayer and exhortation on fast days (Secs. 1-19)	443
Chapter 5. The four Scriptural memorial fasts (Secs. 1-4); the additional fast of the thirteenth of Adar (Sec. 5); rules governing the days preceding the ninth of Ab (Secs. 6-9); rules governing the ninth of Ab (Secs. 10, 11); acts forbidden to be performed ever since the destruction of the Temple (Secs. 12-15); rules for persons beholding the ruins of Judea and of Jerusalem (Secs. 16-18); all these fasts to be abolished in messianic times (Sec. 19)	447

TREATISE TEN: MEGILLAH AND HANUKKAH	453
Chapter 1. Commandment to read the Megillah (Secs. 1-3); date of reading (Secs. 4-14)	454
Chapter 2. Reading in wrong order or piecemeal (Secs. 1, 2); reading from memory or in a language other than Hebrew (Secs. 3, 4); intention to fulfill the duty of reading required (Secs. 5, 6); mistakes in reading, position while reading, and joint read- ing (Sec. 7); rules governing the Scroll of the Megillah (Secs. 8-12); funerals and fasting on the fourteenth and fifteenth of Adar (Sec. 13); rejoicing and feasting prescribed (Secs. 14-17); the Book of Esther to endure in messianic times (Sec. 18)	458
Chapter 3. Historical foundation of the Festival of Hanukkah (Secs. 1-3); benedictions to be recited over the Hanukkah lamp (Sec. 4); recital of the Hallel (Secs. 5-14)	463
Chapter 4. Number of Hanukkah lamps required (Secs. 1-4); time of lighting (Sec. 5); the oil and the wick (Sec. 6); location of the lamp (Secs. 7, 8); who must light it, and how (Sec. 9); lamps required for a courtyard with two doors (Sec. 10); lamp to be lighted by a traveler (Sec. 11); importance of the Hanukkah lamp (Secs. 12-14)	468
ABBREVIATIONS	472
NOTES	475
GLOSSARY	541
APPENDIX: ADDENDA AND CORRIGENDA TO TREATISE VIII	557
SCRIPTURAL REFERENCES	603
INDEX	