

CONTENTS

EDITOR'S NOTE	v
INTRODUCTION	xix
THE BOOK OF HOLINESS	I
TREATISE I: FORBIDDEN INTERCOURSE	3
Chapter 1. Liability for forbidden intercourse (Secs. 1-2); prior warning required (Sec. 3); varieties of punishment (Sec. 4); burning (Sec. 5); strangulation (Sec. 6); flogging (Sec. 7); punishment for intercourse other than that punishable by the aforementioned penalties (Sec. 8); victim of duress—woman, not man—exempt (Sec. 9); definition of “initiator” and “consummator” (Sec. 10); intercourse without erection (Sec. 11); illicit intercourse mistaken for licit, and intercourse with person or animal moribund or dead (Sec. 12); influence of age of parties upon liability (Sec. 13); intercourse between male and male (Sec. 14); intercourse with hermaphrodite or tumtum (Sec. 15); intercourse with animal (Secs. 16-18); intercourse between adult and minor, person awake and person asleep, etc. (Sec. 18); witnesses need not have seen the parties in the act itself (Sec. 19); presumptive propinquity, menstruation, adultery, or betrothal (Secs. 20-23).	16
Chapter 2. Female relatives forbidden in perpetuity (Secs. 1-2); sister (Secs. 3-4); aunt (Sec. 5); daughter and granddaughter (Sec. 6); wife's kin (Secs. 7-10); paramour's kin (Sec. 11); precautions required in case of suspected or rumored incest (Sec. 12); consanguinity results from marriage, not from illicit relationship (Sec. 13); permitted relatives (Sec. 14).	20
Chapter 3. Wife of minor, deaf-mute, imbecile, etc. (Sec. 1); minor wife of adult husband (Sec. 2); priest's daughter (Sec. 3); betrothed maiden (Secs. 4-11); multiple liability (Sec. 12); bondmaid (Secs. 13-17).	25
Chapter 4. Menstruation and flux: liability for intercourse with menstruant (Secs. 1-3); heathen menstruant (Sec. 4); woman delivered of a child (Sec. 5); time of immersion (Secs. 6-8); woman subject to fixed period presumed to be clean at other times (Sec. 9); credibility of woman herself (Sec. 10); onset of menstruation during intercourse (Sec. 11); intercourse near time of period or immediately after (Secs. 12-13); self-examination before and after intercourse, and use of test rags

- (Secs. 14-19); habitual hemorrhage during intercourse (Secs. 20-22). 31
- Chapter 5. Hemorrhage due to mishap (Sec. 1); structure of female reproductive organs (Secs. 2-4); clean and unclean blood (Secs. 5-12); miscarriage (Secs. 13-15); blood found in inserted tube or in urine (Secs. 16-17); virginal blood (Secs. 18-25). 37
- Chapter 6. Identity of blood of menses, of flux, of travail, of childbirth, and of purification (Sec. 1); menstrual period and period of flux (Secs. 2-6); flux of lesser or greater degree (Secs. 7-8); rules of calculation and procedure (Secs. 9-23). 44
- Chapter 7. Blood of travail (Secs. 1-4); childbirth in state of flux (Secs. 5-6); rules of calculation and procedure (Secs. 7-24). 51
- Chapter 8. Regular and erratic menstrual periods (Sec. 1); symptoms of onset of menses (Sec. 2); when intercourse is forbidden (Sec. 3); determination of menstrual period (Secs. 4-10); necessity of diligent self-examination (Sec. 11); failure to examine (Secs. 12-13); hemorrhage from wound (Sec. 14); procedure for blind, deaf-mute, or imbecile woman (Sec. 15); procedure if period is unknown (Secs. 16-22). 57
- Chapter 9. Hemorrhage unaccompanied by sensation indicative of menses or flux (Secs. 1-2); retroactive effect (Secs. 3-4); definition of pregnant woman, nursing woman, virgin, and old woman (Secs. 4-5); bloodstains found on woman's flesh and those found on her garment (Sec. 6); bloodstains found on articles not susceptible to uncleanness (Sec. 7); stains found on flesh opposite, or in line with, a woman's private parts, and those found elsewhere on her body (Sec. 8); shape of stain (Sec. 9); location of stain on garment (Secs. 10-11); multiple or oversized stains (Sec. 12); undersized stain (Sec. 13); stain followed by flow (Secs. 14-18); stain attributable to external cause (Secs. 19-28); stain on garment shared by several women (Secs. 29-35); testing of stain for blood (Secs. 36-38); stain found during menses or flux results in corresponding doubtful uncleanness (Sec. 39). 67
- Chapter 10. Confinement, regardless of result, involves uncleanness (Sec. 1); time of miscarriage relative to date of conception (Sec. 2); structure of foetus (Secs. 3-4); infant emerging "from its mother's side" (Sec. 5); foetus emerging piecemeal (Sec. 6); foetus that puts forth its hand and then withdraws it (Sec. 7); monster birth (Secs. 8-11); "sandal" (Sec. 12); caul (Secs. 13-17); twin birth, etc. (Sec. 18); lost foetus of unknown nature (Sec. 19); procedure governing mother's uncleanness (Secs. 20-21). 74
- Chapter 11. Procedure governing menstruation, flux, and childbirth during the time of the Great Court (Secs. 1-2); further restrictions adopted by the Sages, and by Israelite women themselves (Secs. 3-5); observance of blood of purification abolished by the Geonim (Sec. 6); rules and procedures in use at present time (Secs. 7-15); valid and invalid immersion (Secs. 16-17); physical contact between husband and wife during her uncleanness (Sec. 18); effect of wife's uncleanness upon her services for husband (Sec. 19). 80

Chapter 12. Legal marriage with heathen forbidden by Scripture (Sec. 1); extramarital intercourse, by Rabbinic enactment only (Sec. 2); in the case of a priest, both are subject to Scriptural interdiction (Sec. 3); public intercourse between Israelite and heathen woman (Secs. 4-6); harmful effects of such transgression (Secs. 7-8); punishment for it (Secs. 9-10); marriage or intercourse with bondswoman (Secs. 11-14); freewoman's child and bondswoman's child confused with one another (Secs. 15-16); proselytes and manumitted slaves become full-fledged Israelites, provided they marry Israelite mates (Sec. 17); special restrictions affecting Ammonites, Moabites, Egyptians, and Edomites (Secs. 17-21); and the Seven Canaanitish nations, particularly the Gibeonites (Secs. 22-24); at present, owing to the intermingling of nations, all proselytes may enter the congregation of Israel (Sec. 25). 86

Chapter 13. Definition of act of proselytism (Secs. 1-4); sacrifice no longer required (Sec. 5); but circumcision and immersion both essential (Sec. 6); immersion of minor, or pregnant woman, and immersion performed privately (Secs. 7-8); pious conduct is sufficient evidence of proselytism, except for marriage with Israelite mate, when witnesses or immersion are required beforehand (Secs. 9-10); heathen slaves must also be circumcised and immersed (Sec. 11); and if later manumitted, must be immersed once more (Sec. 12); rules governing immersion are the same as those applying to menstruants (Sec. 13); status of Samson's and Solomon's wives, and necessity of inquiry into proselyte's motives (Secs. 14-16); failure to inquire does not invalidate act of proselytism, nor does the proselyte's relapse into idolatry (Sec. 17); most proselytes likely to be inspired by ulterior motives and to lead Israel astray (Sec. 18). 91

Chapter 14. Procedure of receiving a proselyte (Secs. 1-6); resident stranger (Secs. 7-8); slave (Sec. 9); laws affecting converted heathens and slaves (Secs. 10-19). 96

Chapter 15. Definition of bastardy (Sec. 1); laws affecting bastards and foundlings (Secs. 2-33). 105

- Chapter 16. Laws affecting male persons whose reproductive organs are injured (Secs. 1-2); definition and varieties of such injuries (Secs. 3-8); defects caused by act of heaven exempt (Sec. 9); deliberate mutilation of reproductive organs of man or beast (Secs. 10-13). 108
- Chapter 17. Classes of women forbidden to Israelites of priestly descent (Sec. 1); penalty for transgression of this interdict (Sec. 2); widow (Secs. 3-5); heathen woman (Sec. 6); woman released from levirate marriage (Sec. 7); women affected by compounded prohibitions (Secs. 8-11); widowed sister-in-law (Sec. 12); virgin (Secs. 13-17); divorcée (Secs. 18-20); woman subject to derogatory rumor (Sec. 21). 112
- Chapter 18. Definition and varieties of "harlot" (Secs. 1-6); victim of rape (Secs. 7-9); betrothed wife alleged to have already been deflowered (Secs. 10-11); suspected wife (Sec. 12); unmarried mother (Secs. 13-15); deaf or mute woman, etc. (Sec. 16); woman abducted into captivity (Secs. 17-29); woman confined in prison (Sec. 30). 121
- Chapter 19. Definition and varieties of "profaned woman" (Secs. 1-10); prohibition of marriage to invalid mate applies only to priestly men, not to priestly women (Sec. 11); effect of invalid descent of parent upon status of issue (Secs. 12-16); doubtful or contested validity of descent (Secs. 17-23). 127
- Chapter 20. Validity and proof of priestly descent (Secs. 1-20). 133
- Chapter 21. Lascivious and suggestive behavior (Secs. 1-6); conduct of father with daughter, and mother with son (Sec. 7); Lesbianism (Sec. 8); conduct of husband with wife (Secs. 9-15); behavior in bathhouses (Sec. 16); behavior of women in market places (Sec. 17); masturbation and similar practices (Secs. 18-24); early and suitable marriage recommended (Secs. 25-26); conduct of divorced couple (Sec. 27); temporary marriage (Sec. 28); widely separated domiciles of same husband's wives (Sec. 29); women subject to hereditary diseases (Sec. 30); repeated widowhood, and marriage between unlettered and scholarly persons (Secs. 31-32). 140
- Chapter 22. Seclusion with relatives (Sec. 1); with males and animals (Sec. 2); with unmarried or heathen women (Sec. 3); seclusion with woman in the presence of one's own wife (Sec. 4); seclusion of Israelite child with heathen teacher (Sec. 5); delivery of animals into heathen's care (Secs. 5-7); seclusion of one woman with several men, and vice versa (Secs. 8-9); seclusion with child (Sec. 10); seclusion with hermaphrodite (Sec. 11); seclusion of woman with male acquaintance or relative, etc. (Sec. 12); unmarried man or woman as teacher of children (Sec. 13); precautions to be taken by women while in privy (Sec. 14); male watchmen or administrators (Sec. 15); widow, and female owner of male slaves (Sec. 16); precautions to be observed in teaching law of forbidden unions (Sec. 17); man's tendency toward illicit sexual indulgence, and duty to overcome it (Secs. 18-21).	146

TREATISE II: FORBIDDEN FOODS	147
Chapter 1. Tokens of permitted and prohibited animals (Secs. 1-3); offspring of animals (Secs. 4-7); clean species of animals (Secs. 8-12); hybrids (Sec. 13); clean and unclean species of birds (Secs. 14-20); clean species of locusts (Secs. 21-23); clean species of fish (Sec. 24).	158
Chapter 2. Unclean species of animals (Secs. 1-2); human flesh and fat forbidden (Sec. 3); unclean birds (Sec. 4); unclean locusts and similar creatures (Sec. 5); "creeping things of the earth," and kindred creatures (Secs. 6-11); "creeping things of the water" (Sec. 12); "creeping things that move," or "creep, upon the earth" (Secs. 13-17); creeping things originating in still waters (Secs. 18-19); gnats and similar creatures strained out of liquid (Sec. 20); minimum amount required for liability (Secs. 21-22); compound liability (Secs. 23-24).	164
Chapter 3. Products of forbidden species of food: milk, animal and human, and honey (Secs. 1-6); roe of fish, and birds' eggs and newborn chicks (Secs. 7-11); dairy products processed by heathens (Secs. 12-17); eggs, birds' or fishes', of uncertain origin (Secs. 18-20); cheese or cuts of fish of uncertain origin (Sec. 21); brine and minced fish (Secs. 22-24).	169
Chapter 4. Definition of nēbelah (Secs. 1-2); live or dead bird (Sec. 3); stillborn or newborn calf (Sec. 4); caul (Sec. 5); definition of ṭerefah (Secs. 6-10); sick animal (Secs. 11-12); absence of blood, and failure to quiver before death (Secs. 13-14); sick animal slaughtered at night (Sec. 15); combination of several kinds of forbidden food (Secs. 16-17); skin, bones, horns, etc. (Secs. 18-21); stoned ox (Sec. 22).	176
Chapter 5. Limb severed from living animal (Secs. 1-5); dangling flesh or limb (Sec. 6); dislocated or crushed limb (Sec. 7); fractured bone (Sec. 8); internal organ of mother, or limb of unborn young, severed, but left in situ , or exposed only in

- part (Secs. 9-12); foetus (Sec. 13); unborn calf (Secs. 14-15). 181
- Chapter 6. Blood (Sec. 1); human blood (Sec. 2); exempt blood (Secs. 3-4); foetal blood (Sec. 5); heart blood (Sec. 6); liver (Secs. 7-8); spleen, and organs that have absorbed blood (Sec. 9); salting and rinsing (Secs. 10-12); pickling and roasting (Secs. 13-15); bread soaked in gravy, and fish and meat salted together (Sec. 16); stuffed birds (Sec. 17); stuffed entrails (Sec. 18); roast birds encrusted with dough (Sec. 19); use of meat knives (Sec. 20); use of salting vessels for tableware (Sec. 21). 186
- Chapter 7. Fat (Secs. 1-2); fat of unborn young (Secs. 3-4); varieties of fat (Secs. 5-6); fat covered by flesh (Secs. 7-8); fat of heart and entrails (Sec. 9); veins, sinews, and membranes (Secs. 10-16); precautions and penalties incumbent upon butchers (Secs. 17-21). 190
- Chapter 8. Sinew of the thigh vein (Secs. 1-6); precautions and penalties incumbent upon butchers (Secs. 7-9); reliability of messengers (Sec. 10); meat of uncertain origin (Secs. 11-13); benefit derived from forbidden meat (Secs. 14-18). 195
- Chapter 9. Meat with milk (Secs. 1-4); fish, locusts, and unlaidd eggs with milk (Sec. 5); meat steamed in milk vapor, cooked in whey, etc. (Sec. 6); foetus, caul, hide, etc., cooked in milk (Sec. 7); meat dropped into milk, and vice versa (Secs. 8-10); milk boiled in pot previously used for meat (Sec. 11); udder (Secs. 12-14); stomach containing milk (Sec. 15); cheese curdled with stomach membrane (Sec. 16); effect of temperature of meat and milk (Sec. 17); comparison of salted food and boiled food (Sec. 18); poultry with milk (Sec. 19); poultry with cheese (Sec. 20); guests at inn eating at same table (Sec. 21); dough kneaded with milk (Sec. 22); bread baked with meat or fish, etc. (Sec. 23); vegetables cut with knife used previously for meat (Sec. 24); salt or vinegar standing next to jug of milk sauce (Sec. 25); rules to be observed when eating meat after having eaten dairy products, and vice versa (Secs. 26-28). 201
- Chapter 10. Prohibitions relating to agricultural produce (Sec. 1); new produce of the field (Secs. 2-5); mixed seeds of the vineyard (Secs. 6-8); 'Orlah (Secs. 9-14); fourth year's fruit (Secs. 15-18); Tebel (Secs. 19-22); other related prohibitions (Sec. 23); minimum amount required for liability (Sec. 24). 208
- Chapter 11. Libation wine (Secs. 1-2); undefined heathen wine (Sec. 3); wine touched by heathen, etc. (Secs. 4-8); wine fit or unfit for libation (Secs. 9-10); when prohibition takes effect (Sec. 11); wine treaded by heathen (Sec. 12); wine vinegar and grape juice (Sec. 13); grapeskins and pips, and wine lees (Sec. 14); wine poured into heathen wine skins, jugs, and other vessels (Secs. 15-19); wine press and its appurtenances used by heathen (Secs. 20-24); purchased wine (Sec. 25); host's reliability with regard to wine and food served to guest (Sec. 26).	213

Chapter 12. Definition and varieties of heathen's touching wine (Secs. 1-29).	219
Chapter 13. Wine stored on heathen property (Secs. 1-2); Israelite hired by heathen to press wine (Sec. 3); wine purchased by Israelite from heathen (Secs. 4-5); wine stored in public domain (Sec. 5-6); wine stored on Israelite property adjoining heathen property (Sec. 7); wine deposited by Israelite with heathen (Secs. 8-10); wine touched by nonidolatrous Gentile (Sec. 11); wine entrusted to resident stranger (Sec. 12); related things prohibited only as a precaution (Secs. 13-27); wine maliciously touched by heathen in order to render it unfit (Sec. 28).	226
Chapter 14. Minimum quantity of forbidden food required for liability (Secs. 1-3); shrinkage or swelling (Sec. 4); combination of ingredients, quantity of food eaten, etc. (Secs. 5-9); inedible or unpalatable food (Secs. 10-11); forbidden food eaten playfully or unthinkingly (Sec. 12); forbidden food eaten in dire emergency (Secs. 13-17); compound liability (Secs. 18-19).	231
Chapter 15. Mixture of permitted and forbidden foods: criterion of flavor, or of preponderance of one ingredient (Secs. 1-3); criterion of one part to two (Sec. 4); criteria of 1:60, 1:100, and 1:200 (Sec. 5); summary of criteria (Sec. 6); libation wine and Tebel (Secs. 6-7); fruits of Sabbatical year (Sec. 8); leaven during Passover (Sec. 9); new grains and mukṣeh (Sec. 10); ' Orlah , mixed seeds, etc. (Secs. 11-12); proportions for individual items (Secs. 13-20); origin of proportion of 1:60 (Sec. 21); mixture of three ingredients (Secs. 22-23); method of measuring quantity of mixture (Sec. 24); deliberate neutralization of forbidden ingredient (Secs. 25-27); forbidden ingredient which spoils permitted ingredient (Sec. 28); choice of person to taste the mixture (Secs. 29-30); rodent drowned in beverage (Sec. 31); animal, or leg, roasted whole (Sec. 32); permitted and forbidden meat roasted or soaked together (Secs. 33-34).	239
Chapter 16. Souring or spicing agents, and "articles of value" (Secs. 1-10); effect of cracking, shredding, opening, or cutting (Secs. 11-12); leaven and condiments (Secs. 13-16); heave offering, ' Orlah , and mixed seeds (Secs. 17-27); libation wine, and water (Secs. 28-35).	248

Chapter 17. Pots previously used for cooking of forbidden food (Secs. 1-2); utensils purchased from heathen (Sec. 3); scalding (Sec. 4); immersion (Secs. 5-6); knives (Secs. 7-8); related precautionary prohibitions (Sec. 9); convivial drinking with heathens (Secs. 10-11); heathen bread (Secs. 12-13); food wholly cooked by heathen (Secs. 14-15); food partially cooked by heathen (Sec. 16); food salted or smoked by heathen (Sec. 17); vegetables and fried cakes cooked by heathen for sale (Sec. 18); food cooked unintentionally by heathen (Sec. 19); figs cooked by heathen (Sec. 20); kneaded lentils or wheat (Sec. 21); heathen oil (Sec. 22); heathen honey (Sec. 23); stewed dates and pickled vegetables and locusts (Sec. 24); fermented heathen beer (Sec. 25); foods flavored with heathen wine or similar additive (Sec. 26); forbidden food eaten by minor (Secs. 27-28); filthy and revolting food, and grimy tableware and hands, forbidden (Secs. 29-30); irregular evacuation of bowels harmful (Sec. 31); cleanliness of food and of person conducive to purity of soul (Sec. 31). 255

TREATISE III: Šehiṭah 257

Chapter 1. Šehiṭah mandatory for animals and birds (Sec. 1); blessing to be pronounced (Sec. 2); no part of animal may be eaten before life is extinct (Sec. 2); no šehiṭah required for fish and locusts (Sec. 3); method of šehiṭah (Sec. 4); organs of šehiṭah (Secs. 5-9); incomplete šehiṭah (Secs. 10-11); post-mortem examination (Sec. 12); live animal forbidden (Sec. 13); instrument of šehiṭah (Secs. 14-22); examination of knife (Secs. 23-26); length of knife (Sec. 27); time of šehiṭah (Secs. 28-29). 265

Chapter 2. Place of šehiṭah (Sec. 1); šehiṭah within Temple precincts (Secs. 1-4); blood of šehiṭah flowing into sea, river, vessel filled with water, etc. (Secs. 5-6); manner of šehiṭah (Secs. 7-10); intention immaterial (Sec. 11); šehiṭah performed by deaf-mute, imbecile, minor, drunkard, or person temporarily deranged (Sec. 12); šehiṭah performed automatically (Secs. 12-13); šehiṭah in the name of mountains, seas, etc. (Sec. 14); šehiṭah for idolatrous purposes (Secs. 15-16); šehiṭah under the name of a consecrated animal (Secs. 17-20); šehiṭah performed jointly by more than one person (Sec. 21); šehiṭah performed by Israelite for heathen, or vice versa (Sec. 22). 270

Chapter 3. Malpractices which impair šehiṭah (Sec. 1); pausing (Secs. 2-8); digging (Secs. 9-10); pressing (Sec. 11); misplacement (Secs. 12-13); wrenching (Secs. 14-17); invalid šehiṭah renders animal nēḥelah (Sec. 18); missing hip, split body, fractured neck, etc. (Sec. 19); defective gullet (Secs. 20-22); defective windpipe (Secs. 23-25).	276

Chapter 4. Qualified and disqualified performers of šēḥiṭah (Secs. 1-16); slaughtering methods used during Israel's sojourn in the wilderness (Secs. 17-18).	280
Chapter 5. Definition of ṭērefah (Sec. 1); diseases rendering an animal ṭērefah (Sec. 2); clawing (Secs. 3-12).	282
Chapter 6. Perforation (Sec. 1); gullet (Sec. 2); brain (Secs. 3-4); heart (Sec. 5); gall bladder (Secs. 6-7); liver (Secs. 8-9); stomach and maw (Secs. 10-12); bowels (Secs. 13-16); crop and craw (Secs. 17-18); spleen (Sec. 19); total absence of organ, or duplicate organs (Secs. 20-21).	288
Chapter 7. Perforation of lung (Secs. 1-4); adhesion of main lobe of lung (Sec. 5); obstructed section of lung (Sec. 6); air escaping from lung (Secs. 7-8); decomposed inner part of lung (Sec. 9); swellings upon lung (Secs. 10-11); decayed lung, and lung perforated by slaughterer (Secs. 12-13); needle found in lung (Sec. 14); worm found in lung (Sec. 15); color of lung (Secs. 15-19); internal organs of bird scorched by fire (Secs. 20-21).	293
Chapter 8. Structure of lung (Sec. 1); absence of one or more lobes (Sec. 2); reversed order of lobes (Sec. 3); supernumerary lobe (Sec. 4); adhesion of lobes to one another (Secs. 5-7); puffed up lung (Sec. 8); shrunken lung (Secs. 9-10); missing or supernumerary leg (Sec. 11); fractured leg bone (Sec. 12); "meeting of the sinews" (Secs. 13-14); severed hind leg (Sec. 15); removed organ (Sec. 16); severed sinews (Secs. 17-19); fractured wing (Sec. 20); defective liver (Secs. 21-22); removed jaw (Sec. 23); difference between "removed" and "absent" (Sec. 24); removed womb or kidney (Sec. 25); abnormally small or diseased kidney (Sec. 26).	298
Chapter 9. Split organ (Sec. 1); softened marrow (Sec. 2); extent of spinal cord (Secs. 3-4); torn belly (Secs. 5-6); flayed hide (Sec. 7); fallen animal (Secs. 8-9); crushed internal organs (Secs. 10-20); loose organs (Sec. 21).	302
Chapter 10. Fractured ribs (Secs. 1-2); dislocated thigh or wing (Secs. 3-4); perforated or crushed skull (Secs. 5-7); animal seized with congestion of the blood, suffocated, chilled, or poisoned (Sec. 8); summary of 70 causes of ṭērefah (Secs. 9-10); additional causes in birds (Sec. 11); further additions prohibited, and possible conflict with medical knowledge immaterial (Secs. 12-13); reliability of performers of šēḥiṭah, and their punishment for willful deception (Sec. 14).	308

Chapter 11. Procedure in case of doubtful ṭerefah (Secs. 1-2); animals presumed to be in good health unless contrary evidence is present (Secs. 3-6); present day customary procedure (Secs. 7-12); procedure in case organ to be examined is lost (Secs. 13-14); unjustified customs (Sec. 15). 312

Chapter 12. Slaughtering of mother and young on same day prohibited (Sec. 1); prohibition is absolute (Sec. 2); applicable only to šḥiṭah (Sec. 3); does not apply to deaf-mute, imbecile, or minor (Sec. 4); procedure in case first animal is nēbelah (Sec. 5); in case product of šḥiṭah is not valid for consumption (Sec. 6); in case of idolatrous purpose (Sec. 7); prohibition applicable only to clean animals and crossbreeds (Secs. 8-9); pregnant animal (Sec. 10); prohibition applies to dam, and also, doubtfully, to sire (Sec. 11); case of dam with two young, etc. (Sec. 12); procedure when dam and young are sold separately to two purchasers (Secs. 13-16); definition of "same day" (Sec. 17). 315

Chapter 13. Liability for capture of dam with young birds, and its cancellation by releasing dam (Secs. 1-2); release mandatory by captor himself (Sec. 3); liability when dam's wings are clipped to prevent escape (Sec. 4); manner of release (Sec. 5); release of young has no effect on duty to release dam (Sec. 6); recapture of dam after release (Sec. 7); prohibition applies only to clean nondomesticated birds (Sec. 8); grown young, and addled eggs (Sec. 9); eggs incubated by male parent, or by bird of variant species (Secs. 10-11); dam incompletely slaughtered (Sec. 12); dam fluttering over nest (Sec. 13); multiple layers of eggs, etc. (Sec. 14); dam sitting without touching young or eggs (Sec. 15); dam perched on branches over nest (Sec. 16); dam sitting on only one chick or egg, etc. (Sec. 17); prohibition not affected by location of nest upon captor's property (Sec. 18); procedure when dam is consecrated for sacrifice or to Temple (Secs. 19-20); prohibition not applicable to homicidal bird (Sec. 21). 319

Chapter 14. Duty to cover up blood of šḥiṭah (Sec. 1); applies to both domesticated and nondomesticated animals, but not to consecrated ones (Secs. 2-3); crossbreeds (Sec. 4); birds and beasts slaughtered together (Sec. 5); blood mixed with other liquids (Sec. 6); blood uncovered after having been covered up (Sec. 7); blood that has spurted out or adheres to slaughtering knife must be covered up, if no other blood is present (Sec. 8); blood absorbed in ground (Sec. 9); duty applies to valid šḥiṭah only (Sec. 10); substances to be used in covering up blood (Secs. 11-13); procedure to be observed by slaughterer

CONTENTS

xvii

(Sec. 14); covering up blood should be done preferably by slaughterer, but if he fails to do so, any other person noticing the blood must cover it up (Sec. 15); covering up blood should be done with reverence, not with contempt (Sec. 16).	322
ABBREVIATIONS	323
NOTES	327
GLOSSARY	391
SCRIPTURAL REFERENCES	401
INDEX	405