

CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION	xix
THE BOOK OF TEMPLE SERVICE	I
TREATISE ONE: THE TEMPLE	3
Chapter 1. Commandment to make a temple for offerings (Sec. 1); temporary sanctuaries (Sec. 2); the Jerusalem Temple built by Solomon and the temple of the future (Secs. 3, 4); plan of a temple and its essential equipment (Secs. 5-7); the materials used in its construction (Secs. 8-10); effort to beautify it (Sec. 11); when the work was done and who participated in it (Sec. 12); stones for the Altar and the Temple (Secs. 13-17); materials for the vessels used in the Temple Service (Secs. 18-20)	5
Chapter 2. Site of the Altar (Secs. 1, 2); dimensions and shape of the Altar (Secs. 3-12); the ramp leading to the Altar (Secs. 13-15); how the Altar was built (Secs. 16-18)	10
Chapter 3. Design and measurements of the Candlestick (Secs. 1-11); design of the Table (Secs. 12-15); other tables (Sec. 16); the Altar of Incense (Sec. 17); the Laver (Sec. 18)	13
Chapter 4. The Holy Ark (Secs. 1, 2); dimensions of the Temple building (Secs. 3-5); gates and entrances (Secs. 6-8); extensions to the Temple (Sec. 9); the cells, the corridor, and the upper story (Secs. 10-13)	17
Chapter 5. Areas called the Temple Mount, the Rampart, the Court (Secs. 1-6); the Court of Women and its chambers (Secs. 7-11); dimensions of the Court (Secs. 12-16); chambers in the Court (Sec. 17)	21
Chapter 6. Topography of the Sanctuary (Secs. 1-5); underground chambers (Secs. 6-9); procedure for increasing the hallowed area of Jerusalem or the Court (Secs. 10-14); the holiness of Jerusalem and the Temple area after its destruction (Secs. 15-16)	25
Chapter 7. Commandment to revere the Sanctuary (Secs. 1, 2); the manner of entering and leaving the Temple (Secs. 3-5); sitting in the Court (Sec. 6); respect for the Temple area after its destruction (Sec. 7); proper conduct when facing the Temple (Secs. 8, 9); on replicas of the Temple or its furnishings (Sec. 10); camps in the wilderness and their corresponding limits in Jerusalem (Sec. 11); degrees of holiness in the Land of Israel (Secs. 12, 13); special regulations governing Jerusalem (Sec. 14);

degrees of holiness in the area of the Sanctuary (Secs. 15-23)	29
Chapter 8. Commandment to guard the Sanctuary (Secs. 1-4); the guard headquarters (Secs. 5-9); the officer over the guards (Secs. 10-12)	35
TREATISE TWO: VESSELS OF THE SANCTUARY	39
Chapter 1. Commandment to prepare the anointing oil (Sec. 1); the oil made by Moses (Secs. 2, 3); prohibition of compounding it (Sec. 4), and of pouring it (Secs. 5, 6); those anointed with it (Sec. 7); manner of being anointed (Secs. 8-11); consecration of the vessels of ministry (Sec. 12); materials of the vessels and their repair (Secs. 13-15); dry and liquid measures in the Temple (Secs. 16-19)	43
Chapter 2. Commandment to compound the Incense (Sec. 1); spices out of which the Incense was compounded and their names in Arabic (Secs. 2-4); manner of compounding (Secs. 5-8); prohibition of compounding it for profane use (Secs. 9, 10); where the Incense was burned (Sec. 11); carrying of the Ark (Secs. 12, 13)	47
Chapter 3. Services performed by the Levites (Secs. 1-3); musical instruments played at the Temple service (Secs. 4-6); training and length of service of the Levites (Secs. 7-8); the twenty-four divisions of the Levites and their respective duties (Secs. 9-11)	50
Chapter 4. Sanctification of the priests (Secs. 1, 2); the priestly divisions (Sec. 3); equal share in the Festival service (Secs. 4-6); if a priest brought his own offerings (Secs. 7-10); the priestly subdivisions (Sec. 11); appointment of High Priest and his consecration (Secs. 12-15); appointment of other Temple officers and their ranks (Secs. 16-19); rule of succession (Secs. 20, 21); a High Priest who committed a transgression (Sec. 22)	53
Chapter 5. Qualifications of a High Priest, and the maintaining of his dignity (Secs. 1-4); a High Priest who was in mourning (Secs. 5, 6); his residence (Sec. 7); his appearance in a court of law (Secs. 8, 9); laws of marriage affecting a High Priest (Sec. 10); manner of his ministry (Secs. 11-14); age at which a priest was admitted to minister (Sec. 15); his initiation offering (Secs. 16, 17)	58
Chapter 6. Men of the Post (Sec. 1); their gatherings (Sec. 2); their fasting and praying (Secs. 3-5); their reading of the Law (Secs. 6, 7); their function on special occasions (Sec. 8); the wood offering (Secs. 9, 10); regulations for the men of the Post (Sec. 11)	62
Chapter 7. Officers of the Temple and their respective duties (Secs. 1-20); trumpet blasts in the Temple (Secs. 5, 6); selling of nests for bird offerings (Sec. 9); selling of drink offerings (Secs. 10-13); curtains in the Temple (Secs. 16-18)	64

Chapter 8. Kinds of priestly vestments (Secs. 1-3); regulations concerning the vestments (Secs. 4-6); money for the vestments (Sec. 7); storage of the vestments (Secs. 8-10); their proper use (Secs. 11, 12); their materials (Secs. 13-15); their handiwork (Secs. 16-19)	69
Chapter 9. The frontplate (of the High Priest) (Secs. 1, 2); his robe (Secs. 3, 4); the golden threads for the ephod and breastplate (Sec. 5); the rows of precious stones on the breastplate (Secs. 6-8); the ephod and its stones (Secs. 9-11)	73
Chapter 10. Order of putting on the vestments (Secs. 1-3); prohibition of ministering without the prescribed vestments (Secs. 4, 5); on interposition between the flesh of the priest and his vestments (Secs. 6-9); counsel asked of the Urim and Thummim (Secs. 10-12); linen ephod mentioned in the Prophets (Sec. 13)	76
TREATISE THREE: ENTRANCE INTO THE SANCTUARY	81
Chapter 1. Prohibition of priest to minister while drunk (Secs. 1, 2), and of anyone to render a decision while drunk (Secs. 3-5); when a priest might not drink (Secs. 6, 7); if a priest's hair grew long (Secs. 8-11); regulations concerning men of a priestly division (Secs. 12-14); prohibition of entering the Sanctuary in disgraceful condition (Secs. 15-17)	85
Chapter 2. When the High Priest or ordinary priest might enter the Holy Place (Secs. 1, 2); the penalty for entering at an improper time (Secs. 3, 4); on leaving the Sanctuary during the time of the Service (Sec. 5); priest, or High Priest, who became a mourner (Secs. 6-8); who was considered a mourner and for how long (Secs. 9, 10); offerings sent by a mourner, or by a leper (Sec. 11), or by an unclean person (Sec. 12)	89
Chapter 3. Commandment to send the unclean out of the Sanctuary (Secs. 1-7); penalty for entering while unclean (Secs. 8-15), for bringing something unclean into the Sanctuary (Secs. 16-18); entering through the roof (Sec. 19); if uncleanness was found in the Temple (Sec. 20); how an unclean person was to leave the Temple (Secs. 21-24)	92
Chapter 4. Penalty for ministering in condition of uncleanness (Secs. 1-4); ministry of an unclean priest (Secs. 5, 6); when the frontplate effected acceptance of sacrifice offered in uncleanness (Secs. 7, 8); which offerings superseded laws of uncleanness (Secs. 9-16); explanation of certain acts of King Hezekiah (Secs. 17-18)	98
Chapter 5. Rules of ablution for a ministering priest (Secs. 1-9);

proper way of cleansing (Secs. 10-16); position of priest while performing a service (Sec. 17); performance with his right hand (Sec. 18); if a stone of the pavement became loose (Sec. 19)	103
Chapter 6. Regulations concerning a priest with a blemish (Secs. 1, 2); permanent and temporary blemishes (Secs. 3, 4); three categories of blemishes (Secs. 5-7); case of uncircumcised priest (Sec. 8); a priest married in sin (Sec. 9); a priest's lineage (Secs. 10-12)	107
Chapter 7. Blemishes that applied both to the priest and to the offering (Secs. 1-13)	110
Chapter 8. Blemishes that disqualified the priest only (Secs. 1-17)	113
Chapter 9. If a nonpriest ministered in the Temple (Secs. 1-5); services that might be performed by a nonpriest (Secs. 6, 7); removal of ashes and raring of wood (Secs. 8, 9); penalties for unqualified persons who ministered (Secs. 10-12); if a priest had worshiped an idol (Sec. 13); service in a temple other than the Jerusalem Sanctuary (Sec. 14); list of persons unfit for Temple service (Sec. 15)	119
TREATISE FOUR: THINGS PROHIBITED FOR THE ALTAR	125
Chapter 1. Commandment that all offerings be without blemish (Secs. 1-3); penalty for offering an animal with a blemish (Secs. 4-6); penalty for inflicting a blemish in a consecrated animal (Secs. 7-9); redeeming an offering with a blemish (Secs. 10-12)	129
Chapter 2. Blemishes that rendered animals unfit (Secs. 1-9); an offering that was diseased ( tērefah ) (Secs. 10, 11); symptoms of permanent blindness (Secs. 12-16)	133
Chapter 3. Blemishes in a bird (Secs. 1, 2); an animal of doubtful or double sex (Sec. 3); animals that were crossbred, born from the side, or "deficient in time" (Sec. 4), that resembled a different species (Sec. 5), that committed or suffered sodomy, or were devoted to idolatry or were worshiped (Sec. 6); a harlot's hire and the price of a dog (Sec. 7); meaning of "deficient in time" (Secs. 8, 9); if unfit animals were consecrated (Sec. 10); list of animals prohibited for the Altar (Sec. 11); their offspring (Secs. 12, 13); if a prohibited object was transformed (Sec. 14); offerings from a heathen (Sec. 15)	137
Chapter 4. Testimony concerning an animal that had committed a crime (Secs. 1, 2); if men made sport with an animal or committed with it an unnatural crime (Sec. 3); the law of an animal devoted to idolatry, of an animal worshiped (Secs. 4-6); other objects worshiped (Sec. 7); the law of the hire of a harlot (Secs. 8-15), of the price of a dog (Secs. 16-18)	141
Chapter 5. Prohibition of leaven and honey on the Altar (Secs.

1-4); things forbidden to be burnt upon the Altar (Secs. 5, 6); unfitness of stolen objects for the Altar (Secs. 7, 8); meal or drink offerings from forbidden produce (Secs. 9, 10); command- ment to season all offerings with salt (Secs. 11-13)	146
Chapter 6. Commandment that drink offerings be without blem- ish (Sec. 1), that the wood for the Altar be of the best (Sec. 2); if spoiled wine, flour, oil, or wood was consecrated (Secs. 3-5); if water had become unclean (Sec. 6); if olives and grapes had become unclean (Sec. 7); unclean seeds and wood and frankin- cense (Sec. 8); what wines were deemed unfit (Secs. 9, 10); fine flour that was deemed unfit (Secs. 11-13); oils that were unfit (Sec. 14); grain fit for meal and drink offerings, for the Sheaf of Waving, for the Two Loaves (Sec. 15)	149
Chapter 7. Quality of things offered (Secs. 1, 2); the kind of wood and the size of the logs (Sec. 3); manner of preparing wheat and wine for offerings (Secs. 4-7); nine kinds of oil (Secs. 8, 9); oils valid for the Candlestick (Sec. 10); true generosity (Sec. 11)	153
TREATISE FIVE: MANNER OF OFFERING SACRIFICES	157
Chapter 1. Kinds of offerings and species of animals offered (Secs. 1-3); congregational offerings (Secs. 4, 5); offerings of an indi- vidual (Sec. 6); responsibility for offerings (Sec. 7); species, gender, and age of animals and birds for various kinds of offerings (Secs. 8-15); sin offerings which had to be burned (Sec. 16); most holy and less holy offerings (Sec. 17); the term "sacrificial portions" (Secs. 18, 19)	163
Chapter 2. Drink offerings and meal offerings (Secs. 1-3); the required amounts of flour, oil, and wine for drink offerings (Secs. 4-6); measures and their overflow (Secs. 7-11); independence of sacrifice and parts of a drink offering one from the other (Sec. 12); brought from profane produce only (Sec. 13); on the offer- ings described in Ezekiel and those brought in the time of Ezra (Secs. 14, 15)	167
Chapter 3. Who was eligible to bring an offering (Secs. 1, 2); offerings of a gentile and of an apostate Israelite (Secs. 2-5); the laying-on of hands and confession (Secs. 6-15)	171
Chapter 4. Commandment to slaughter and to sprinkle the blood by day only (Sec. 1); burning of the sacrificial portions at night (Secs. 2-4); drink offerings made only by day (Sec. 5); services performed by day and those performed by night (Sec. 6); the knife for slaughtering (Sec. 7); receiving of the blood (Secs. 8, 9); what the ministering priest must bear in mind (Secs. 10, 11)	175

Chapter 5. Proper place for slaughtering, and for receiving the blood of, most holy offerings and less holy offerings (Secs. 1-4); if peace offerings had been slaughtered before the doors of the Temple were opened (Sec. 5); where and how the blood of burnt offerings, guilt offerings, and peace offerings was sprinkled (Sec. 6); how the blood of sin offerings consumed by priests was sprinkled (Secs. 7-10); where and how the blood of sin offerings consumed by fire was sprinkled (Secs. 11-16); how the blood of firstlings, tithes, and Passover offerings was offered (Sec. 17); when the sacrificial portions were burned upon the Altar (Sec. 18); which hides of most holy offerings belonged to the priests (Secs. 19-21)

178

Chapter 6. How a burnt offering was made (Sec. 1); which parts of the animal were burned (Sec. 2); if limbs of a burnt offering bounded off the Altar (Sec. 3); act of tossing the limbs upon the fires (Sec. 4); how a burnt offering was cut into pieces (Secs. 5-9); number of priests who carried the limbs of a lamb, a goat, or a ram (Secs. 10-17); the number who carried an ox (Secs. 18, 19); how a bird burnt-offering was offered (Secs. 20-22); how its head was pinched off (Sec. 23)

183

Chapter 7. How a sin offering which had to be consumed by man was offered (Sec. 1); how a sin offering which had to be burned was offered (Sec. 2); places (other than the Altar) where offerings were burned (Secs. 3-5); how a bird sin-offering was offered (Secs. 6, 7); act of pinching off its head (Secs. 8, 9); uses of the southwest corner of the Altar (Sec. 10); how priests ascended to the Altar (Secs. 11, 12)

188

Chapter 8. If blood of a sin offering was splashed on a garment (Secs. 1-9); how the spot of blood was washed away (Sec. 10); vessels in which a sin offering was cooked (Secs. 11-15); if something absorbed (the flavor of) an offering by contact or by being cooked with it (Secs. 16-18); if a garment or priestly robe splashed with blood was taken outside the Court (Secs. 19, 20); if vessels were taken outside (Sec. 21)

191

Chapter 9. How guilt offerings were made (Secs. 1, 2); how peace offerings were made (Secs. 3-6); manner of waving (Secs. 7, 8); the ram of a Nazirite (Secs. 9, 10); parts consumed by the priests and parts consumed by the owner (Secs. 11-14); if an offering was brought by two or more persons, or by a woman (Secs. 15, 16); how the bread brought with a thank offering was made (Secs. 17-22); the bread brought with the ram of a Nazirite (Secs. 23, 24); how the firstling, tithe, and Passover offerings were made (Sec. 25)

197

Chapter 10. Commandment to eat the flesh of (certain) sin offerings and guilt offerings and the residue of meal offerings (Secs. 1, 2); parts of offerings eaten by priests and their families (Secs. 3-5); the time they might be eaten (Secs. 6-8); by whom they might not be eaten (Sec. 9); their cooking and seasoning (Sec. 10); their manner of consumption (Sec. 11); what kind of offering might be cooked with another kind (Secs. 12-13); distribution of the flesh of offerings among the priests (Secs. 14-23) 202

Chapter 11. Penalty for eating the flesh of a burnt offering or sacrificial portions (Secs. 1-3), for eating the flesh of an offering before the sprinkling of the blood (Sec. 4), for eating it outside the Court (Secs. 5-7), of a nonpriest who ate flesh designated for priests (Secs. 8, 9) 208

Chapter 12. Kinds of meal offerings (Secs. 1-4); quantity of flour for a meal offering (Sec. 5); act of "bringing near" (Sec. 6); requirement of oil and frankincense, and the case of a jealousy, or a sinner's, meal offering (Secs. 7, 8); act of taking a Handful of meal offerings (Secs. 9-13); if meal offerings were leavened (Secs. 14-21); place where meal offerings were prepared (Secs. 22, 23) 211

Chapter 13. How the "Baked Cakes" were offered (Secs. 1-4); how meal offerings of fine flour, of a griddle, of a stewing-pan, and of that baked in an oven were made (Secs. 5-11); the order of bringing a meal offering (Sec. 12); how the Handful was taken (Secs. 13, 14) 216

Chapter 14. Vow offerings and free-will offerings (Secs. 1-4); the difference between them (Secs. 5, 6); offerings for a temple other than the Jerusalem Temple (Sec. 7); pledges for a sin offering or a guilt offering (Sec. 8); pledges for offerings owed by other persons (Secs. 9-11); agreement of spoken vow with intention (Sec. 12); commandment to bring all one's obligations at the first Pilgrimage Festival (Secs. 13-14); means taken by authorities to ensure fulfillment of obligations to the Sanctuary (Secs. 15-17) 220

Chapter 15. Consecration of the offspring, or a part, of an animal (Secs. 1-4), of an animal's money value (Secs. 5-7), of an unborn offspring on condition of its sex (Sec. 8) 225

Chapter 16. Specific and unspecific vows (Secs. 1-5); if a blemish befell a pledged animal (Sec. 6); if it was stolen (Sec. 7); if there was doubt concerning a pledge (Secs. 8-12); a pledge of frankincense, wood, oil, or wine (Secs. 13, 14); pledges brought from unconsecrated money (Secs. 15-17) 227

Chapter 17. Meal offerings brought according to the pledge made (Secs. 1-5); quantity of flour brought in one vessel (Secs. 6-8);

- a pledge made in improper terms (Secs. 9-11); quantity of wine and oil that might be pledged (Secs. 12-15) 231
- Chapter 18. Commandment to offer all sacrifices in the Holy Temple (Sec. 1); penalty for offering a sacrifice, or slaughtering it, outside the Temple Court; conditions under which it was incurred (Secs. 2-18) 236
- Chapter 19. What constituted a sacrifice "offered outside" (Secs. 1-6); invalid sacrifices offered outside (Sec. 7); minimum quantity to make one liable for "offering outside" (Secs. 8-10); penalty incurred for each act involved (Sec. 11); if two persons slaughtered, or offered, outside (Sec. 12); if part of an offering was offered outside (Secs. 13, 14); the law of "offering outside" applicable in present times (Sec. 15), not applicable to Gentiles (Sec. 16) 241
- TREATISE SIX: DAILY OFFERINGS AND ADDITIONAL OFFERINGS 247
- Chapter 1. The two daily offerings and the time proper for slaughtering them (Secs. 1-3); the time for slaughtering the Passover offering (Secs. 4, 5), for the service of burning upon the Altar (Secs. 6-8); manner of making the daily offerings (Secs. 9-12) 252
- Chapter 2. Fire to be kept burning upon the Altar (Sec. 1); ranging of the wood and kindling of the fires (Secs. 2-9); removal of the ashes (Secs. 10-15) 254
- Chapter 3. Incense to be burned upon the Altar of Gold (Sec. 1); manner of burning the Incense (Secs. 2-9); cleaning of the Candlestick and dressing and kindling of the lamps (Secs. 10-17); daily offering of the Baked Cakes (Secs. 18-22) 258
- Chapter 4. Casting of lots for particular services (Secs. 1-8); how the service was performed on the Sabbath (Sec. 9); the Showbread and the two censers of frankincense (Secs. 10-14) 263
- Chapter 5. Ranging of the Showbread on the Table (Secs. 1-5); how the Showbread was prepared (Secs. 6-11); if the Showbread and the censers were ranged at improper time (Secs. 12-16) 267
- Chapter 6. The daily order of the service (Secs. 1-7); daily chanting of psalms (Secs. 8-11) 271
- Chapter 7. Additional offering on New Moon Days and Passover (Secs. 1-3); the Sheaf of Waving offered on the second day of Passover (Secs. 4-10); elaborate procedure at the reaping of the Sheaf (Sec. 11); preparation of the flour and taking of a Handful (Sec. 12); prohibition from reaping any other grain before reaping the Sheaf (Secs. 13-21); counting of seven weeks (Secs. 22-25) 275
- Chapter 8. Additional offerings on the Festival of Weeks (Sec. 1); the Two Loaves brought on that day (Secs. 2-10); how they were waved (Sec. 11); the Two Loaves and the Two Lambs (Secs. 12-16); interdependence of the various offerings (Secs. 17-20)	281

Chapter 9. Additional offerings for the first day of Tishri (Sec. 1); laws of precedence among various offerings (Secs. 2-13)	285
Chapter 10. Additional offerings for the Day of Atonement (Secs. 1, 2), for the Feast of Tabernacles (Secs. 3, 4), for the Eighth Day of Solemn Assembly (Sec. 5); libation of water on Tabernacles (Secs. 6-10); songs chanted on Tabernacles (Sec. 11); apportioning of the service to the twenty-four priestly divisions (Secs. 12, 13); mixing of meal offerings, sacrificial portions, and wines of different sacrifices (Secs. 14-20)	289
TREATISE SEVEN: HALLOWED OFFERINGS RENDERED UNFIT	295
Chapter 1. A nonpriest eligible to perform act of slaughtering hallowed offerings (Secs. 1, 2); slaughtering invalid without intention (Sec. 3); simultaneous slaughtering of two heads (Sec. 4), or of one head by two persons (Sec. 5); slaughtering performed by a minor (Sec. 6); if most holy offerings were slaughtered in an improper place (Secs. 7-18); if blood was received improperly (Secs. 19-21); acts of service requiring an eligible priest (Sec. 22); carrying of the blood (to the Altar) (Sec. 23); blood received in a profane vessel (Sec. 24); if blood spilled on the ground (Secs. 25, 26); if received by an ineligible person (Secs. 27, 28); if part of animal became missing before receiving the blood or sprinkling it (Secs. 29-31); when the blood should and should not be sprinkled (Secs. 32-37)	298
Chapter 2. Sprinkling of the blood on the Outer Altar (Secs. 1, 2), on the Inner Altar (Sec. 3); rules concerning the act of sprinkling (Secs. 4-10); if bloods of different hallowed offerings became mixed (Secs. 11-14); if blood of a sin offering was taken beyond its proper place (Secs. 15-17); blood of a bird sin-offering (Secs. 18-20); if blood was received in several bowls (Secs. 21-23); tossing sacrificial portions on the Altar (Sec. 24); libation of wine (Sec. 25); ranging of limbs (Sec. 26)	304
Chapter 3. If parts of an offering were brought up over the Altar prematurely or improperly (Secs. 1-4); if unfit offerings were placed on the Outer or Inner Altar (Secs. 5-18); hallowing by the Ramp and by vessels of ministry of objects destined for them (Secs. 18-21); if the Altar became defective (Secs. 22-25)	310
Chapter 4. What sin offerings had to be left to die (of themselves) (Secs. 1, 2); if a sin offering was lost (Secs. 3, 4); what sin offerings had to be left to pasture until a blemish befell them (Secs. 5-13); a sin offering from overseas (Sec. 14); what guilt

- offerings had to be left to pasture (Secs. 14-21); money value of guilt offerings (Secs. 22-6); obligatory burnt offerings (Sec. 27) 316
- Chapter 5. Cases of money set aside for a sin offering and not used (Secs. 1-7); a surplus of meal offerings and of other offerings (Secs. 8, 9); redemption of an animal sacrifice and a bird offering (Sec. 10); money set aside for nests (of bird offerings) and for other obligations (Secs. 11-13) 322
- Chapter 6. If valid offerings were confused with invalid offerings, with profane animals, or with offerings of a different kind (Secs. 1-17); if a stray animal was found in Jerusalem or its environs (Sec. 18); if slaughtered offerings or their limbs became mixed (Secs. 19-24) 325
- Chapter 7. How bird offerings became unfit (Secs. 1-9); case of a bird sin-offering brought because of a doubt (Secs. 10-12) 330
- Chapter 8. If one or more bird sin-offerings became intermingled with one or more bird burnt-offerings after they had been specified as such (Sec. 1); if the pairs of birds had not been specified and were offered (Secs. 2-11) 333
- Chapter 9. Detailed rules concerning groups of bird offerings consisting of pairs—of which one was a burnt offering and one a sin offering—when one or more of the birds became intermingled with the others (Secs. 1-7) 336
- Chapter 10. The pair of bird offerings of a woman after childbirth (Secs. 1-5) 339
- Chapter 11. How the person, or manner of, taking the Handful rendered a meal offering unfit (Secs. 1-5); other acts that rendered a meal offering unfit (Secs. 6-9); if oil or frankincense were placed on a sinner's meal offering (Secs. 10-14); if the Handful of a meal offering was taken twice or offered without salt (Secs. 15, 16); proper and improper amount of frankincense (Secs. 17, 18); if the Handful or residue became unclean or was taken outside (Secs. 19, 20); if the tenth of flour was divided (Secs. 21-23); improper taking of the Handful (Secs. 24, 25); if a part of the tenth was lost (Secs. 26, 27); if a Handful was mixed with something else (Secs. 28-31) 341
- Chapter 12. Bread offerings rendered unfit by insufficient quantity (Secs. 1-4); how drink offerings might be rendered unfit (Secs. 5-7); when a thank offering did or did not require its bread offering (Secs. 8-13); if one of the loaves brought with a thank offering was broken or taken outside the Court, or became unclean (Sec. 14); when, and how much of, the bread brought with a thank offering became hallowed (Secs. 15-18) 346
- Chapter 13. What three intentions might render an offering unfit;

- definition of piggul and Leftover (Secs. 1-3); during which acts of service improper intentions invalidated offerings (Secs. 4-7); what intentions did not render an offering unfit (Secs. 8, 9) 350
- Chapter 14. Under what circumstances the law of improper intentions was applicable (Secs. 1-4); not applicable if there were intentions concerning parts of an offering that were not fit (and permissible) to be consumed either by man or upon the Altar; examples (Secs. 5-9), or concerning less than an olive's bulk (Sec. 10) 354
- Chapter 15. To what extent the validity of offerings was affected by intentions involving a change in name (Secs. 1, 2); why, and in what manner, a Passover offering and a sin offering were affected to a greater extent (Secs. 3-12); other offerings performed with an intention involving a change in name (Secs. 13-20) 358
- Chapter 16. Effect of improper intention concerning time in combination with one concerning place or involving a change in name (Secs. 1-6); cases where improper intention concerning time did not render an offering piggul (Secs. 7-11) 364
- Chapter 17. Effect of improper intention held during the sprinkling of the blood (a) upon the Outer Altar, (b) upon the Inner Altar (Secs. 1-2), or during the act of dipping the finger in the blood (Sec. 3); improper intention held during a service performed in the Court concerning a service performed in the Temple, or held during a service performed in the Temple concerning a service performed in the Court (Secs. 4-6); improper intention during a service for offerings requiring bread (Secs. 7-15), or during a service for the Two Lambs of Pentecost (Secs. 16-20) 368
- Chapter 18. Prohibition from impairing hallowed offerings by improper intention (Secs. 1, 2); penalty for eating hallowed offerings that had become unfit or invalidated by blemish (Secs. 3-5); penalty for eating piggul (Sec. 6); parts of an offering or offerings not subject to piggul (Secs. 7, 8); prohibition from "leaving over" flesh of a hallowed offering (Sec. 9); penalty for eating Leftover (Sec. 10); how piggul and Leftover combine (Sec. 11); prohibition from causing hallowed offerings to contract uncleanness; penalty for eating offerings that had become unclean (Sec. 12); penalty incurred by an unclean person for eating hallowed flesh (Secs. 13-15); no penalty incurred for piggul, Leftover, or unclean flesh unless the parts rendering the flesh fit for consumption had been duly offered (Sec. 16); offerings not subject to piggul but subject to laws of Leftover and uncleanness (Secs. 17-19); case of piggul, Leftover, and unclean flesh that

- had become mixed or had been taken up to the Altar (Secs. 20, 21); parts of an offering not subject to the laws of piggul, Left-over, or uncleanness (Secs. 22-24) 372
- Chapter 19. The commandment to destroy by fire any hallowed offering that had become unfit (Secs. 1-3); the status of flesh found (a) in the Court, (b) in Jerusalem (Sec. 4); when and where unfit offerings had to be burned (Secs. 5-9); what had to be destroyed by fire and what had to be buried (Secs. 10-14); whether a priest was to be trusted when stating that he had caused a sacrifice to become piggul (Sec. 15) 379
- TREATISE EIGHT: SERVICE ON THE DAY OF ATONEMENT 385
- Chapter 1. The (fifteen) sacrifices offered on the Day of the Fast (Sec. 1); the entire service of the Day performed by the High Priest (Sec. 2); his preparation for the services during the seven preceding days (Secs. 3-6); his being adjured on the eve of the Day (Sec. 7); his being kept awake all of the preceding night (Sec. 8) 387
- Chapter 2. Vestments worn by the High Priest (Sec. 1); the (fifteen) ablutions required on this Day (Secs. 2-4); special measures taken (Sec. 5); the three confessions; pronouncing of the Explicit Name (Secs. 6, 7) 390
- Chapter 3. The casting of lots over the two he-goats (Secs. 1-4); the (forty-three) sprinklings of blood (Secs. 5, 6); the sending away of the scapegoat (Sec. 7); reading from Scripture; the benedictions (Secs. 8-11) 394
- Chapter 4. Order of the complete service (Secs. 1, 2) 398
- Chapter 5. Individual acts of service which had to be performed in their proper order (Secs. 1-13); concerning the two he-goats (Secs. 14-22); if the Temple or the Altar was deficient (Secs. 23, 24); rules on the Incense which had to be burned in the Holy of Holies (Secs. 25-28) 403
- TREATISE NINE: TRESPASS IN REGARD TO SACRED OBJECTS 409
- Chapter 1. Prohibition to make profane use, even a pērutah's worth, of a hallowed object (Sec. 1); objects not included in the law of trespass (Sec. 2); the penalty for trespass (Secs. 3-6); prohibition from shearing or working with hallowed animals (Secs. 7-13) 411
- Chapter 2. How the law of trespass applied to less holy offerings (Sec. 1), to most holy offerings (Secs. 2-6), to a meal offering, to the Showbread and the Two Loaves, to drink offerings and the leper's log of oil (Secs. 7-10), to the blood and other parts of offerings (Secs. 11, 12), to embers and ashes (Secs. 13-15), to blemished most holy offerings (Sec. 16) 414

Chapter 3. How the law of trespass applied to offerings that had died or had become unfit (Secs. 1-5), to substitute sin-offerings or unfit bird-offerings (Secs. 6, 7), to unfit meal-offerings, unfit Showbread, unfit Two Loaves, or unfit Handfuls (Secs. 8, 9); how payments for unlawful use were expended (Sec. 10); instances of unlawful use exempt from payment (Sec. 11); concerning the use of the milk or eggs of hallowed animals (Sec. 12); trespass of money consecrated for the Altar (Sec. 13)	418
Chapter 4. How the law of trespass applied to money set aside for offerings (Secs. 1-8); how it applied to things banned by a vow (Secs. 9-11)	422
Chapter 5. The time during which the law of trespass applied to any object consecrated either for the Altar or for repair of the Temple (Sec. 1); acts of trespass combined to constitute a pěrutah's worth (Secs. 2-4); how the law of trespass applied to things attached to, or growing out of, the earth (Secs. 5-11), to hallowed lees, eggs, priestly tunics, and things consecrated by heathens (Secs. 12-15); whether it applied to a sound, sight, or smell (Sec. 16)	427
Chapter 6. Discrimination between objects that diminished in value through use and those that did not (Secs. 1, 2); case of trespass committed with the same object by different persons at different times (Secs. 3-7); trespass with a stone, beam, or money belonging to the Temple (Secs. 8-13)	430
Chapter 7. Trespass through an agent (Secs. 1-6); trespass with a hallowed object mingled with profane objects (Sec. 7); if less than a pěrutah's worth of use was derived from consecrated property (Sec. 8); trespass with money deposited or inherited (Secs. 9-11)	435
Chapter 8. How workmen for the Temple were paid with money rather than goods (Secs. 1-3); building for the Temple done with unhallowed material to forestall trespass (Sec. 4); how contracts with workmen were designed to forestall trespass (Sec. 5); no trespass with salt or wood used by priests (Secs. 6, 7); moral lesson to be derived from the law of trespass and, in general, from the laws of offerings (Sec. 8)	439
NOTES	443
LIST OF ABBREVIATIONS	492
GLOSSARY	495
SCRIPTURAL REFERENCES	499
INDEX	505