

Contents

Preface ix

1 Introduction 1

2 Economic Policies in Developing Countries 11

Across-the-board Economic Policy

Difficulties 13

Contrasting Economic Policies of the High

Flyers 29

3 Origins of Economic Policies 37

Initial Conditions under Which Economic Policy

Was Formulated 39

Ideas Underlying Industrialization in Developing Countries 43

Role of Government in the Economy 48

4 Models of Government 53

Government as Benevolent Social Guardian 54

Alternative Models of Government 59

Costless and Fully Informed Administrative Capacity? 66

Conclusions 73

5 Political Economy of Trade and Payments Regimes	75
6 Political Economy of Agricultural Pricing Policies	91
Origins of Agricultural Pricing Policies	92
Market Responses to Government Policies	96
Political Reactions	98
Questions for Political Economy	101
7 Macroeconomic Political-Economic Interactions	107
Sequences of Macroeconomic Political-Economic Interactions	109
Buildup to Economic Crisis	119
What Determines Whether to Reform	124
What Determines the Nature of Reforms	129
What Determines the Success of Reforms	132?
8 Conclusions	135
Cycles of Policy-making	135
Is There a Political-Economic Evolution?	138
Notes	143
References	157
Index	165