

Table of Contents

Introduction.....	vii
Chapter I: Charity as Friendship with God.....	1
A. What it Means to Call Charity Friendship with God
B. Aristotle's Influence on the Thomistic Account of Friendship
C. The Good upon which Our Friendship with God is Based
D. Why Our Happiness is Charity-Friendship with God
E. The Elements of Friendship Once More Considered
Chapter II: The Passions in the Service of Friendship with God.....	51
A. The Passions Considered as Appetites
B. The Primacy of Love in the Thomistic Account of the Passions
C. Being Perfected by the God We Love
Chapter III: The Virtues in the Service of Friendship with God.....	87
A. Why We Need the Virtues: The Importance of Habits in the Formation of the Self
B. The Relationship Between the Virtues and the Telos: Why Charity Must be the Form of the Virtues
C. How Charity Forms the Virtues
D. Why God is the Measure of a Virtue's Goodness

Chapter IV: The Gifts of the Spirit: Why They are the Perfection of the Virtues.....	121
A. Why the Gifts are Needed
B. What the Gifts are and How They are Related to the Virtues
C. Why Moral Wisdom is the Harvest of Love
D. Conclusion
 Bibliography.....	 141