

CONTENTS

---

Preface vii

Introduction 1

PART ONE. THE RISE OF MARKET POWER IN THE UNITED STATES 11

1. *Why Economists Like Competition . . .
and Why You Should Too* 13
2. Bad Concentration, Good Concentration 25
3. The Rise in Market Power 45
4. The Decline of Investment and Productivity 62
5. The Failure of Free Entry 80

PART TWO. THE EUROPEAN EXPERIENCE 97

6. Meanwhile, in Europe 99
7. Are US Prices Too High? 111
8. How European Markets Became Free 124

PART THREE. POLITICAL ECONOMY 151

9. Lobbying 153
10. Money and Politics 176

PART FOUR. AN IN-DEPTH LOOK AT SOME INDUSTRIES 205

11. Why Are Bankers Paid So Much? 207
12. American Health Care: A Self-Made Disaster 223
13. Looking at the Stars: Are the Top Firms Really Different? 240
14. To Regulate or Not to Regulate, That Is the Question 259
15. Monopsony Power and Inequality 279

Conclusion 287

Appendix 299 / Glossary 309 / References 317

Acknowledgments 331 / Index 333