

CONTENTS

OF THE FIRST VOLUME.

BOOK I.

CHAPTER I.

A.D. 1560-80. ÆTAT. 1-20.

	Page
1. Birth. Parents. Circumstances and impressions of boyhood. Residence at Cambridge. Ideas and aspirations with regard to the advancement of knowledge. Three leading objects of interest	1
2. Residence in France with the English Ambassador. Condition of Europe at the time. Death of his father, and commencement of law studies at Gray's Inn	6

CHAPTER II.

A.D. 1580-84. ÆTAT. 20-24.

1. LETTER TO MR. DOYLIE, 11th of July, 1580	10
2. Application for employment in the Queen's service	11
LETTER TO LADY BURGHELY, 16th of September, 1586	12
LETTER TO LORD BURGHELY, 16th of September, 1586	12
LETTER TO LORD BURGHELY, 18th of October, 1586	13
3. Progress at Gray's Inn. Admitted Utter Barrister	15
NOTES ON THE PRESENT STATE OF CHRISTENDOM	16
4. Occupations at Gray's Inn	30
LETTER OF ATTORNEY DRAWN FOR HIS BROTHER ANTHONY	32

CHAPTER III.

A.D. 1584-86. ÆTAT. 24-26.

1. Commencement of public life. M.P. for Melcombe in the Parliament of 1584. Unanimity of parties in measures for the safety of the Queen's person	36
--	----

	Page
2. Strength of the Opposition on Church questions. State of the question between the Nonconformists and the Government. Orthodoxy. Great Petition. Conference with the Bishops. Letter from Lady Bacon to Burghley on behalf of the Preachers. Answer to Great Petition, and consequences	37
3. Fleetwood's note of a speech by Bacon	42
4. LETTER OF ADVICE TO QUEEN ELIZABETH	47
5. LETTER TO SIR FRANCIS WALSINGHAM, 25th of August, 1585	57
6. Fate of Bacon's first suit. Fresh application to Burghley for some furtherance in his professional career. Contemporary criticism of his behaviour. Burghley's admonition	57
LETTER TO LORD BURGHLEY, 6th of May, 1586	59

CHAPTER IV.

A.D. 1586-89. ETAT. 26-29.

1. Character of the Act passed in the last Parliament for defence of the Queen's person. Conspiracy and trial of Mary, Queen of Scots. A new Parliament summoned. Execution of Mary. Conduct of Elizabeth	63
2. Bacon a Bencher of Gray's Inn	64
3. Proceedings in Parliament. Subsidy voted. Benevolence proposed and offered; but declined. Committal of Members to the Tower for raising questions concerning ecclesiastical government and right of free speech in the Lower House	65
4. Political Tract ascribed to Bacon	67
5. Defeat of the Spanish Armada. Apprehensions of another invasion. A new Parliament summoned. A double subsidy granted for the first time; with request for a declaration of war against Spain. Bacon now a Reader of Gray's Inn	68
6. Progress of disputes between High Churchmen and Nonconformists. Martin Marprelate	70
ADVERTISEMENT TOUCHING THE CONTROVERSIES OF THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND	74
7. Effect of the controversies upon opinion abroad. Importance of making Elizabeth's dealings with the religious parties in England properly understood in France	95
LETTER TO THE ARCHBISHOP OF CANTERBURY	96
SIR FRANCIS WALSINGHAM TO M. CRITON	97
8. Clerkship of the Counsel in the Star Chamber granted to Bacon in reversion	102

CHAPTER V.

A.D. 1590-92. ÆTAT. 30-32.

	Page
1. Beginning of acquaintance between Bacon and the Earl of Essex. Anthony Bacon's return from abroad	104
2. Progress of time. Objects, hopes, and wishes	107
LETTER TO LORD BURGHELY	108
3. Lady Bacon at Gorhambury. Her interview with Captain Allen. Her letter to Anthony on his return. Specimens of her cor- respondence with her sons	109
4. LETTER TO LADY BACON, 18th of February, 1591	116
5. Bacon at Twickenham	117
LETTERS TO MR. PHILLIPS, 14th of August, and 15th of September	117
6. Celebration of the Queen's Day, 1592: perhaps the occasion for which the two following speeches were composed	119
7. MR. BACON IN PRAISE OF KNOWLEDGE	123
8. MR. BACON'S DISCOURSE IN THE PRAISE OF HIS SOVEREIGN	126
9. Publication of Parsons's 'Responsio ad Edictum Reginæ Angliæ'. CERTAIN OBSERVATIONS MADE UPON A LIBEL PUBLISHED THIS PRESENT YEAR, 1592	143 146

CHAPTER VI.

A.D. 1593. ÆTAT. 33.

1. Fresh intrigues between Spain and Scotland. Apprehensions of invasion. A new Parliament summoned. Relations between the Crown, the Lords, and the Commons. Certain points of constitutional usage not yet fully established. Attempts on the part of the Crown and the Upper House to encroach. Com- mittal of Peter Wentworth and others, for introducing a petition relating to the succession	209
2. Motion for Committee of Supply. BACON'S SPEECH IN SUPPORT OF THE MOTION	212
3. Grant of a double subsidy recommended by the Committee. Con- ference demanded by the Lords. Intimation from the Lord Treasurer that the proposed grant is not sufficient, and demand of another conference to discuss the matter. Bacon's objection to joint-discussion, as against the privileges of the Lower House. The proposal declined	214
4. The Queen prepares to retreat; and the pretension of the Lords is silently withdrawn	219

	Page
5. Grant of three subsidies, payable in four years, proposed. Bacon's amendment	222
SPEECH ON MOTION FOR GRANT OF THREE SUBSIDIES PAYABLE IN FOUR YEARS	223
Original motion carried in Committee, and agreed to without division in the whole House. Progress of taxation	224
6. Bill passed and presented to the Queen. Balance of loss and gain to the Crown upon the whole proceeding	225
7. SPEECH ON THE SECOND READING OF A BILL FOR THE BETTER EXPEDITION OF JUSTICE IN THE STAR CHAMBER	226
Fate of the Bill. Conduct of Coke as Speaker. The Queen's message to the House delivered by him. Right of the Crown to determine what subjects should be discussed in Parliament, and what not	228
9. Competition between Bacon and Coke for the Attorney-Generalship. Their pretensions compared	231
10. Consequences of Bacon's speech on the Subsidy Bill. Intimation of the Queen's displeasure	232
LETTER TO THE LORD TREASURER BURGHLEY IN EXCUSE OF HIS SPEECH IN PARLIAMENT AGAINST THE TRIPLE SUBSIDY	233
11. Bacon forbidden to come into the Queen's presence. Proposes to give up Court and Law, and betake himself to other pursuits	234
LETTER TO THE EARL OF ESSEX	235
Essex persuades him to postpone his resolution, and promises to get him made Attorney-General. Bacon endeavours to engage Burghley in the cause by the mediation of his sons	236
LETTER TO SIR ROBERT CECIL, 16TH OF APRIL, 1593	237
Sir Robert Cecil's advice	238
12. Progress of Essex's mediation. Bacon takes occasion to state his case for himself	239
LETTER TO THE EARL OF ESSEX	240
LETTER TO THE QUEEN	240
The Queen reported to be appeased	241

CHAPTER VII.

A.D. 1593. ÆTAT. 33.

1. Importance to Bacon of having the question settled, whichever way	242
2. Pecuniary difficulties. Proposed sale of land. Lady Bacon's consent necessary. Conditions required by her	243

	Page
3. Correspondence relating to the sale of Barly, an estate of Anthony Bacon's	246
DRAFT OF A LETTER FROM ANTHONY BACON TO HIS BROTHER SIR NICHOLAS, 28th of July, 1593	247
LETTER TO MR. TROTT, 22nd of August, 1593	248
LETTER TO ALDERMAN SPENCER, 26th of August, 1593	249
LETTER TO THE SAME, 20th of November, 1593	249
4. Earl of Essex sworn a Privy-Councillor. Relation between him and the Bacons	250
LETTER TO MR. PHILLIPS	252
LETTER TO THE EARL OF ESSEX	253
5. Progress of Essex's mediation in favour of Bacon. Disposition of Burghley	253
LETTER TO LORD KEEPER PUCKERING, 3rd of July, 1593	256
LETTER TO MICHAEL HICKS, 26th of September, 1593	256
LETTER TO SIR THOMAS CONEYSBY, 27th of October, 1593	259
LETTER TO HIS AUNT COOKE, 29th of October, 1598	260
LETTER TO ROBERT KEMP, 4th of November, 1593	261
LETTER TO THE EARL OF ESSEX, 10th of November, 1593	262
LETTER TO ANTHONY STANDEN, 2nd of December, 1593	263
LETTER TO HIS MOTHER, 4th of December, 1593	263
LETTER TO SIR FRANCIS ALLEN, 20th of December, 1593	264
Still no resolution taken with regard to the Attorneyship	266

CHAPTER VIII.

A.D. 1594, JANUARY—JUNE. ÆTAT. 34.

1. Bacon's first pleadings in the King's Bench and Exchequer. Progress of canvass for the Attorneyship. Conversation between Essex and Sir Robert Cecil	267
2. LETTER TO LADY BACON, 14th of February, 1593	270
3. Conspiracy of Dr. Lopez to poison the Queen	271
A TRUE REPORT OF THE DETESTABLE TREASON INTENDED BY DR. RODERIGO LOPEZ	274
4. Coke to be Attorney-General. Bacon the likeliest candidate for the Solicitorship, if the impression of his speech on the Subsidy Bill were removed. Essex's account of his interview with the Queen	288
LETTER TO THE EARL OF ESSEX, 30th of March	290
Coke's warrant for the Attorneyship, and Egerton's for the Mastership of the Rolls, signed	291
LETTER TO LORD KEEPER PUCKERING, 7th of April, 1594	292

	Page
LETTER TO THE SAME, 8th of April, 1594	292
Delay owing to the illness of Burghley. Bacon recommended to be about the Court in hope of obtaining access	293
LETTER TO LORD KEEPER PUCKERING, 19th of April, 1594	293
Great case of Perpetuities. Bacon for the defendant	294
5. Essex in eclipse: canvass suspended	295
LETTER TO SIR ROBERT CECIL, 1st of May, 1594	295
Essex unwell, and visited by the Queen. His account of the in- terview	297
6. Foulke Greville comes to Court and intercedes with the Queen for Bacon. Bacon's patience wearing out	298
LETTER TO MR. CONISBY, 17th of May, 1594	299
LETTER TO HIS MOTHER, 9th of June, 1594	300

CHAPTER IX.

A.D. 1594, JUNE—DECEMBER. ÆTAT. 34.

1. The Queen shows signs of relenting. Bacon begins to be em- ployed in business of the Learned Counsel. Appointed to go to the North on State service. Introduction of a French gen- tleman to the authorities of Oxford	301
LETTER TO THE PROVOST OF A COLLEGE IN OXFORD, 3rd of July, 1594	303
LETTER TO THE PROCTOR OF THE YEAR, 3rd of July, 1594	303
2. Bacon stopped on his way by illness at Huntingdon	304
LETTER TO THE QUEEN, 20th of July, 1594	304
Takes his M.A. degree at Cambridge and returns to London	305
3. FRAGMENTS OF A DISCOURSE TOUCHING INTELLIGENCE AND THE SAFETY OF THE QUEEN'S PERSON	305
4. Conditions of the time and duties of a Crown Lawyer. State of Elizabeth's Council-Table. Bacon continues to be employed in examinations	307
5. Lady Bacon and her household at Gorhambury. Solicitorship still vacant. Canvass renewed	310
LETTER TO LORD KEEPER PUCKERING, 24th of August, 1594	313
LETTER TO THE SAME, 25th of August, 1594	314
LETTER TO ANTHONY BACON, 26th of August, 1594	314
6. Question as to appointment of Solicitor again adjourned	315
LETTER TO RICHARD YOUNG, 2nd of September, 1594	315
7. "Tower employment." Nature of an examination upon interro- gatories	316

	Page
ARTICLES OF EXAMINATION OF RALF SHELDON, Esq.	318
8. Bacon employed in business belonging to the Solicitor-General, and in hope of the place	319
LETTER TO LORD KEEPER PUCKERING, 28th of September, 1594	320
Appointment still postponed.
LETTER TO ANTHONY BACON, 16th of October, 1594	321
9. Money matters. Debtor and creditor account between Anthony and Francis. More money wanted	321
LETTER TO ANTHONY BACON, 10th of December, 1594	323
LETTER TO THE SAME, 13th of December, 1594	324
10. Holiday occupations, grave and gay. Merry Christmas at Gray's Inn. 'Gesta Grayorum.' The Prince of Purpoole in Council	325
SPEECHES OF THE SIX COUNCILLORS	332
11. Relation of this composition to Bacon's serious speculations	342

CHAPTER X.

A.D. 1594-95, JANUARY—NOVEMBER. ÆTAT. 34.

1. Difficulty of arranging the letters taken from Rawley's Supple- mentary Collection	344
LETTER TO THE EARL OF ESSEX	344
Solicitor still unappointed. Lady Bacon's report of her conver- sation with Sir Robert Cecil	345
2. Bacon's resolution to give the matter up, and go abroad. Essex's attempt to bring the question to a crisis. Bacon sent for to the Court	347
LETTER TO ANTHONY BACON, 25th of January, 1594	347
LETTER TO SIR ROBERT CECIL, ENCLOSED IN THE LAST	350
LETTER TO THE EARL OF ESSEX	351
3. Money difficulties	352
LETTER TO ANTHONY BACON	353
4. Appointment still in suspense and Bacon still a suitor. Rumours and suspicions	353
LETTER TO SIR ROBERT CECIL	355
LETTER TO THE SAME	356
LETTER TO LORD BURGHLEY, 21st of March, 1595	357
LETTER TO FOULKE GREVILLE	359
LETTER TO LORD KEEPER PUCKERING, 25th of May, 1595	360
5. Bacon is again reminded of his old offence in the matter of the Subsidy Bill in 1593, and again tenders the old excuse	360
LETTER TO LORD BURGHLEY, 7th of June, 1595	361
Hope still alive.

	Page
LETTER TO LORD KEEPER PUCKERING, 11th of June, 1595	363
Hope fades and expires.
LETTER TO LORD KEEPER PUCKERING, 28th of July, 1595	364
LETTER TO LORD KEEPER PUCKERING, 19th of August, 1595	365
LETTER TO LORD KEEPER PUCKERING, 25th of September, 1595	367
LETTER TO LORD KEEPER PUCKERING, 11th of October, 1595	368
LETTER TO LORD KEEPER PUCKERING, 14th of October, 1595	369
6. Serjeant Fleming appointed Solicitor. Probable cause of the Queen's long indecision and final resolution	369
7. Munificence of Essex. Grant from the Crown to Bacon of the lease of certain lands at Twickenham, in reversion	370
LETTER TO THE EARL OF ESSEX	372
Apprehensions and warnings.
8. Essex in full favour again. Celebration of the anniversary of the Queen's accession. Essex's Device. Bacon's part in it	374
SPEECHES OF THE PHILOSOPHER, THE CAPTAIN, THE COUN- CILLOR, AND THE SQUIRE	376
9. Mr. Dixon's account of Bacon's endeavours to make peace between Essex and Raleigh. Evidence examined. Device of the Indian Prince. Foundation of the fiction	386
10. Bacon's position	391

ERRATA FOR VOL. I.

Page	line	for	read
32	22 . . .	1855 . . .	1585.
256	1 . . .	5 . . .	6.
295	21 . . .	dele comma.
313	11 . . .	5 . . .	6.
315	18 . . .	6 . . .	7.
316	7 . . .	7 . . .	8.
319	7 (up) .	8 . . .	9.