

CONTENTS

OF THE SECOND VOLUME.

BOOK II.

CHAPTER I.

A.D. 1595-6. ÆTAT. 35.

	Page
1. Literary work: 'Formularies and Elegancies,' 'Essays,' etc.	1
2. Letters of Advice from the Earl of Essex to the Earl of Rutland.
Traces of them among Bacon's papers	2
3. Reasons for suspecting Bacon's hand in them	4
4. TO THE EARL OF RUTLAND ON HIS TRAVELS.
LETTER I.	6
LETTER II.	16
LETTER III.	19
5. LETTER OF ADVICE FROM THE EARL OF ESSEX TO SIR FOULKE GREVILLE ON HIS STUDIES	21

CHAPTER II.

A.D. 1596. ÆTAT. 36.

1. Borrowing on security	27
LETTER TO MR. MAYNARD AND MR. HICKS, 12th of March, 1596	28
2. Projected attack on the Spanish fleet and coasts. Qualifications of the Earl of Essex for command	28
3. Death of Lord Keeper Puckering. Egerton made Lord Keeper .	30
LETTER TO THE EARL OF ESSEX	30
LETTER TO ANTHONY BACON, 15th of May, 1596	32
LETTER TO THE SAME, 20th of May, 1596	32
The Rolls in Commission	33
LETTER TO ANTHONY BACON	33
Letters from the Earl of Essex recommending Bacon for Master of the Rolls	34

	Page
LETTER TO THE EARL OF ESSEX	36
LETTER TO ANTHONY BACON	36
4. LETTER TO MR. R. CECIL, ABROAD	38
5. Expedition against Spain. Essex commander of the forces by land. Capture of Cadiz. Position of Essex	38
LETTER TO THE EARL OF ESSEX	40
Occupations. 'Maxims of the Law,' 'Essays,' 'Colours of Good and Evil,' 'Meditationes Sacrae'	45
LETTER TO MR. THOMAS HESKET, 22nd of December, 1596	46

CHAPTER III.

A.D. 1597. ÆTAT. 37.

1. Essex at Court. Quarrels and reconciliations. Made Master of the Ordnance. Mastership of the Rolls still vacant. Some arrangement proposed to make a place for Bacon	47
LETTER TO LORD BURGHEY	49
LETTER TO SIR JOHN STANHOPE	50
LETTER TO THE EARL OF ESSEX	51
LETTER TO LORD BURGHEY	51
2. Death of Sir William Hatton. Bacon's project of marriage with his widow. Another expedition against Spain. Essex com- mander-in-chief both by land and sea	53
LETTER TO THE EARL OF ESSEX	55
3. Inquiry concerning the fees exacted by Mr. Mill, Clerk of the Star Chamber	56
THE HUMBLE MOTION AND ALLEGATIONS OF FR. BACON CONCERNING CERTAIN FEES RESTRAINED BY THE RIGHT HONOURABLE THE LORD KEEPER, etc.	57
LETTER TO LORD KEEPER EGERTON	60
4. Mr. Mill threatened with other charges. Bacon's interest in the matter	64
LETTER TO LORD KEEPER EGERTON, 12th of November, 1597	65
5. Further proceedings against Mr. Mill	66
LETTER TO THE LORD KEEPER, 22nd of January, 1597	66
LETTER TO THE QUEEN	67
6. The Island Voyage. Plan and conduct of the expedition; causes of failure. Why Essex took the fleet to St. Michael's when his business was to intercept the passage to Terceira; and why the capture of Fayal by Raleigh was not mentioned in the official report of the voyage. The English coast in danger. The Spanish fleet in the Channel dispersed and disabled by a storm. Return of the English fleet. Essex's grievances	68

CHAPTER IV.

A.D. 1597-8. ÆTAT. 37.

	Page
1. A new Parliament. Decorous and dignified proceeding of the Government. Postponement of motion for Supply till all the principal Commonwealth measures had been introduced. Relief of the poor. Maintenance of husbandry	77
SPEECH AGAINST ENCLOSURES	82
2. Grant of three subsidies payable in three years, passed without a dissentient voice	83
SPEECH UPON THE MOTION OF SUBSIDY	85
2*. Jealousies and discontents of the Earl of Essex. The Lord Admiral created Earl of Nottingham. Question of precedence. Essex made Earl Marshal	89
3. Sir Robert Cecil's negotiation in France. Irish affairs. Truce with the Earl of Tyrone	91
A LETTER OF ADVICE TO THE EARL OF ESSEX TO TAKE UPON HIM THE CARE OF IRISH CAUSES WHEN MR. SECRETARY CECIL WAS IN FRANCE	94
4. Terms offered to Tyrone. His exceptions. Bacon's advice asked for by Essex	96
A LETTER OF ADVICE TO THE EARL OF ESSEX, UPON THE FIRST TREATY WITH TYRONE, 1598, BEFORE THE EARL WAS NOMINATED FOR THE CHARGE OF IRELAND	98
5. Tyrone pardoned. Measures of precaution neglected. Progress of negotiation in France	100
LETTER TO SIR ROBERT CECIL AT HIS BEING IN FRANCE	101
LETTER TO THE SAME	102
6. Essex and the Queen. The great quarrel	102
LETTER TO THE EARL OF ESSEX	104
Altered relation between Essex and the Queen	105

CHAPTER V.

A.D. 1598. ÆTAT. 38.

1. Bacon arrested for debt	106
LETTER TO SIR ROBERT CECIL, 24th of September, 1598	106
LETTER TO LORD KEEPER EGERTON	107
2. More Tower employment. Conspiracy of Edward Squire	108
A LETTER WRITTEN OUT OF ENGLAND TO AN ENGLISH GENTLEMAN REMAINING IN PADUA, CONTAINING A TRUE REPORT OF A STRANGE CONSPIRACY, etc.	110
Credibility of the story	119

	Page
3. Treatise entitled 'An Historical Account of the Alienation Office,' ascribed to Bacon upon insufficient evidence. Reasons for supposing that it was written by William Lambarde	120

CHAPTER VI.

A.D. 1599. ÆTAT. 39.

1. Irish affairs. Breach of the Treaty by Tyrone. Siege of Blackwater. Defeat of Sir Henry Bagnall and spread of the rebellion. Essex becomes more submissive and is admitted again to see the Queen	122
2. Death of Sir Richard Bingham. Necessity of a great effort to reconquer Ireland. Lord Montjoy nominated for the charge. Nomination cancelled by the influence of Essex, who undertakes the task himself	123
3. Bacon, being applied to for advice, endeavours unsuccessfully to dissuade him from going	126
4. Largeness of the authority stipulated for by Essex. Bacon's uneasiness	127
LETTER OF ADVICE TO MY LORD OF ESSEX IMMEDIATELY BEFORE HIS GOING INTO IRELAND	129
5. Misgivings with regard to Essex's purposes. Tone of his letters to the Council. Demands and complaints. Behaviour before he arrived at the scene of action	133
6. Proceedings upon his arrival. Disposition of the rebel forces. March through Munster, and return to Dublin with the army half wasted away	136
7. Professes an intention to march against Tyrone in Ulster, but wants a reinforcement of two thousand men. Disaster of Sir Conyers Clifford	139
8. March into Ulster. State of the army. Advice of the captains. Meeting with Tyrone; parley and truce	139
9. General result of the campaign. Difficulty of believing that Essex's first object was to put an end to the rebellion. Conjecture as to his real design	141
10. The Queen demands explanations, and in the meantime commands him to stay and wait for instructions	145
11. Essex's difficulty. Being unable to explain the grounds of his proceeding except in person, he proposes to return to England at the head of his army; but by advice of Blount and Southampton consents to take with him only a select band of captains. His sudden appearance at Nonsuch and reception by the Queen	146

	Page
12. Bacon, hearing that Essex has been commanded to keep his chamber, repairs to Nonsuch	149
LETTER TO THE EARL OF ESSEX	150
Bacon's account of their interview, and of the advice he gave him. His ignorance of Essex's real position	150

CHAPTER VII.

A.D. 1599-1600. ÆTAT. 39-40.

1. Spirit of Essex's followers. Danger of a violent rescue avoided by the course which the Queen took with him. Committed to the custody of the Lord Keeper. His professions. His real object in coming over. His reluctance to disclose the conditions demanded by Tyrone. Consequence of the disclosure when it came	152
2. The Queen's reasons for being dissatisfied with the Earl's story. Strange news from Ireland. Popular dissatisfaction, and measures taken to quiet it. Bacon's warning and advice. Declaration by the Councillors in the Star Chamber	156
3. Popular misapprehension of the part which Bacon had taken in the matter. Violence threatened. His absence from the Star Chamber when the declaration was made	159
LETTER TO THE QUEEN	160
LETTER TO LORD HENRY HOWARD	161
LETTER TO SIR ROBERT CECIL	162
4. Essex still at York House. How employed	162
5. LETTERS TO THE QUEEN ON SENDING NEW-YEAR'S GIFTS	163
6. Suit to the Queen for a grant of land	164
LETTER TO THE QUEEN, 12th of March, 1599	165
7. Essex's position. His secret negotiations with the King of Scots. Part taken by Lord Montjoy. Object of the intrigue	166
8. Essex recommended by his friends to attempt an escape into France: but refuses to lead the life of a fugitive	169
9. Montjoy appointed to the command in Ireland. Renewed proposition to the King of Scots for the arrangement of some joint action between the army in Scotland, the army in Ireland, and the Earl's partisans in England, to compel a declaration as to the succession. The King of Scots not prepared. Essex urges Montjoy to proceed with the design, who declines. Essex allowed to return to his own house under charge of a keeper	170
10. The Queen, having no suspicion of these things, resolves to bring the case of Essex to a formal hearing. Judicial proceeding at

	Page
York House. Composition of the Court and form of proceeding. Part assigned to Bacon. Sentence of the Court . . .	172
11. Bacon's advice to the Queen. Commanded to draw up a narrative of the proceeding; which having been read over to her, is at his suggestion and with her consent suppressed. Fragment of it found among Bacon's papers	174
THE PROCEEDINGS OF THE EARL OF ESSEX	175
12. Essex released from his keeper, and ultimately restored to full liberty	188

CHAPTER VIII.

A.D. 1600. ÆTAT. 40.

1. Bacon's part in the proceeding at York House. His dealings with and for the Earl during the next two months	190
LETTER TO THE EARL OF ESSEX, 20th of July, 1600	190
The Earl's Answer. Letters drawn up for him by Bacon	192
LETTER TO THE QUEEN	193
SUBSTANCE OF A LETTER I NOW WISH YOUR LORDSHIP SHOULD WRITE TO HER MAJESTY	194
2. TWO LETTERS FRAMED BY SIR FRANCIS BACON, THE ONE AS IN THE NAME OF MR. ANTHONY BACON, HIS BROTHER, TO THE EARL OF ESSEX, THE OTHER AS THE EARL'S ANSWER THEREUNTO	197
3. Bacon's advice followed for awhile. The effects of it. Essex's dangers and secret fears. Contrast between the temper in which he affected to be and the temper in which he really was. Change in the Queen's feelings towards him, and the causes of it. Monopoly-patent not renewed. Bacon's influence at an end	202
4. Private affairs. Preparation for his double reading at Gray's Inn. Payment of pressing debts	204
LETTER TO MR. MICHAEL HICKES, 25th of January, 1600	205
LETTER TO THE SAME	205
5. Essex, returning to his former projects, resolves to carry his ends by force. Unsuccessful attempt to engage Montjoy in the action. Renewed intrigues with the King of Scots. Preparations for surprising and overpowering the Court. Message from the Council. Sudden change in the plan of action. Message from the Queen. Treatment of the messengers. Endeavour to get help in the City. Proclamation. Fight on Ludgate Hill. The whole party surrounded in Essex House and forced to surrender at discretion	206
6. Proceedings of the Council. Investigations and ultimate discovery of the whole plot. Bacon's part	211

CHAPTER IX.

A.D. 1600-1, FEBRUARY. ÆTAT. 40.

	Page
1. Arraignment of Essex. His intended defence	215
2. Opening of the case by the Queen's Counsel	216
3. Account of the MS. from which the history of the trial is taken .	217
4. Evidence of the tumult at Essex House. The Lord Chief Justice's deposition. The proceeding how justified by Essex .	218
5. Evidence of the preliminary consultations and preparations. Sir Ferdinando Gorge sent for. Unseasonable digressions	220
6. Pretext of personal danger : how justified. Sir Walter Raleigh's deposition	222
7. Story that the kingdom was to be sold to the Spaniard : how justified. Sir R. Cecil and Sir William Knollys	223
8. Desultory and disorderly setting forth of the evidence. BACON'S FIRST SPEECH	224
9. Essex's retort and unsuccessful attempt to draw Bacon into a personal altercation	226
10. His successful reply to Coke's charge of hypocrisy in religion .	227
11. Southampton's defence. Opinion of the Judges. Coke's argument. BACON'S SECOND SPEECH. Verdict and sentence .	228
12. Errors in the management of the case by Coke, and inadequate impression on the public mind. Chamberlain's account of the trial	230

CHAPTER X.

A.D. 1601, FEBRUARY TO APRIL. ÆTAT. 40.

1. Essex's confession of his own guilt, and information against his associates : how induced and of what nature. His behaviour on the scaffold	233
2. Trial of Sir John Davis. BACON'S SPEECH	237
3. Bacon commanded to draw up a narrative of the treason for the information and satisfaction of the public. Misconception of the character of this narrative by the next generation	239
4. Groundlessness of the charge brought against Bacon by Mr. Jardine	242
5. The Declaration meant and believed by its authors to be a scrupulously veracious narrative	244
A DECLARATION OF THE PRACTICES AND TREASONS ATTEMPTED AND COMMITTED BY ROBERT, LATE EARL OF ESSEX, AND HIS COMPLICES, etc., 1601	245
THE EFFECT OF THE EVIDENCE GIVEN AT THE SEVERAL ARRAIGNMENTS, etc.	275

	Page
SOME PARTICULARITIES OF THAT WHICH PASSED AFTER THE ARRAIGNMENTS, etc.	284
THE EFFECT OF THAT WHICH PASSED AT THE ARRAIGNMENTS OF SIR CHRISTOPHER BLOUNT, SIR CHARLES DAVERS, SIR JOHN DAVIES, SIR GILLIE MERICKE, AND HENRY CUFFE .	286
THE CONFESSIONS AND OTHER EVIDENCE (with all the omitted passages restored from the original MSS.)	291
Additional Evidences, not published with the Declaration	325
Declaration of David Hetherington, 8th of January, 1599	325
Examination of Thomas Lee, 14th of February, 1600	326
Henry Cuffe to the Council, [21st] February, 1600	330
Declaration of Sir Charles Davers	333
Examination of Henry Cuffe, 2nd of March, 1600	342
Sir Henry Neville's Declaration, 2nd of March, 1600	343
Examination of Henry Cuffe, 2nd of March, 1600	351
Henry Cuffe to Sir Robert Cecil	352
Examination of Sir Christopher Blunt, 7th of March, 1600	355
Confession of Henry, Earl of Southampton	358
Dr. Fletcher's Confession	363
Edward Temple's Letter to Westwood	364
Dr. Timothy Willis to Secretary Cecil	364
Mr. Richard Lovelace's Declaration	365
6. The one considerable error in Bacon's narrative. The substantial truth of his story confirmed by the correction of it	366
7. Upon a fair review of Bacon's conduct towards Essex from first to last, no fault to be found with any part of it	367
8. Letters of doubtful date :—
LETTER TO ANTHONY BACON	368
Marriage of Sir William Cooke to Joyce Lucy	369
LETTER TO SIR THOMAS LUCY	369
Project of joint Masque from the four Inns of Court	370
LETTER TO LORD BURGHELY (?)	370
Secretary Herbert made Secretary and Keeper of the Signet to the Council of the North. Edward Jones a candidate for the deputation	377
A LETTER FROM MR. FRANCIS BACON TO THE LORD PRESI- DENT OF YORK IN FAVOUR OF MR. JOHNS FOR THE SECRE- TARY'S PLACE AT YORK	371
The letters in the Library of Queen's College, Oxford, not ori- ginal draughts	372
LETTER TO THE LORD TREASURER	372
LETTER TO SIR FRANCIS VERE	373
LETTER TO MR. CAWFEILDE	373