

TABLE OF CONTENTS

TABLE OF ABBREVIATIONS .....	xiii
PREFACE .....	1
I. THE PROBLEM OF NATURAL THEOLOGY .....	23
A. Barmen as Natural Theology .....	25
1. Barmen Opposes Natural Theology .....	25
2. Barmen as Natural Theology .....	26
3. Barmen I's Rejection of "Other Sources" of Authority: The Function of Modern Philosophy and Social Science .....	31
4. Hegel's Dialectic: A Pointer to Barmen and Barth ...	35
5. Hegel and Barth .....	41
B. Barmen and Political Theology .....	47
1. Political Theology and Other "Hyphen-Theologies" ...	47
2. Identity of Identity and Non-Identity in Barth's Theology .....	55
3. Anthropology and Christology: Barth and Gogarten ..	60
II. CHRISTOCENTRISM AND SOCIAL SCIENCE .....	67
A. Systematic Introduction .....	67
B. Perspectives on History: Moltmann and Rendtorff .....	70
C. Eigengesetzlichkeit: Max Weber .....	74
1. Plural, Autonomous Realms and Two Kingdoms .....	74
2. Autonomous Spheres and the Loss of Theory .....	99

III. THE CHURCH AS THE COMMUNITY OF FREEDOM . . .	105
A. Introduction . . . . .	105
B. The Lack of an Ecclesiology in the Augustana . . . . .	106
C. Ecumenics vs. Christocentrism in the CA . . . . .	108
D. Ecclesiology as Apophantic Doctrine . . . . .	113
E. The Church as Historical Organism . . . . .	120
F. Ecclesiology and Ethics . . . . .	133
IV. THE RETURN OF THE SPIRIT INTO ITS COMMUNITY . . . . .	137
A. Systematic Issues and Historical Setting . . . . .	137
B. Hegel and Bonhoeffer: Community and Return . . . . .	148
1. The First Element: The Eternal Spirit In Itself— Generality . . . . .	155
2. The Second Element: The Manifestation of the Spirit—Individuality . . . . .	158
3. The Third Element: The Return of the Spirit into Itself—Particularizing Community . . . . .	170
V. THEOLOGICAL ETHICS OF POLITICS . . . . .	189
A. Introduction: Structure and Content of the Issue . . . . .	190
B. Driver: Is Barth's Christocentrism "Christofascist"? . . .	194
C. Ruether: Does Barth's Christocentrism Support Nazi Antisemitism? . . . . .	208
D. Willis, Ebeling: Did Barth Identify Dogmatics and Ethics? . . . . .	219
E. Wagner, Rendtorff, Graf: Does Barth Promote Totalitarian "Gleichschaltung"? . . . . .	240

F. Moltmann: Did Barth's "Modalism" Promote Nazi Politics? . . . . .	264
G. Marquardt, Gollwitzer: Did Barth Advocate Radical Politics? . . . . .	275
VI. GOD'S SELF-INTERPRETATION AND HUMAN FREEDOM . . . . .	291
A. Historic Setting and the Target of Thesis VI . . . . .	292
B. Necessary Progress in the Consciousness of Freedom . .	299
NOTES TO CHAPTER ONE . . . . .	319
NOTES TO CHAPTER TWO . . . . .	351
NOTES TO CHAPTER THREE . . . . .	371
NOTES TO CHAPTER FOUR . . . . .	383
NOTES TO CHAPTER FIVE . . . . .	403
NOTES TO CHAPTER SIX . . . . .	489
BIBLIOGRAPHY . . . . .	501
INDEX . . . . .	541