

Contents

List of figures and tables	ix
DAN EDELSTEIN and CHLOE SUMMERS EDMONDSON, Introduction: historical network analysis and social groups in the Enlightenment	1
I. Correspondence networks
NICHOLAS CRONK, Voltaire's correspondence network: questions of exploration and interpretation	23
KELSEY RUBIN-DETLEV and ANDREW KAHN, Catherine the Great and the art of epistolary networking	47
CHERYL SMEALL, 'He belonged to Europe': Francesco Algarotti (1712-1764) and his European networks	75
PIERRE-YVES BEAUREPAIRE, The networks and the reputation of an ambitious Republican of Letters: Jacques de Pérard (Paris, 1713-Stettin, 1766)	107
II. Social networks
CHLOE SUMMERS EDMONDSON, Julie de Lespinasse and the 'philosophical' salon	139
CHARLOTTA WOLFF, 'Un admirateur des philosophes modernes': the networks of Swedish ambassador Gustav Philip Creutz in Paris, 1766-1783	173
MARIA TEODORA COMSA, Casanova's French networks: transitioning from a backstage coterie to the beau monde	201

III. Knowledge networks

MELANIE CONROY, The eighteenth-century French academic network	225
MARK ALGEE-HEWITT, The principles of meaning: networks of knowledge in Johnson's Dictionary	251
Summaries	279
Bibliography	283
Index	299