

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface.		iii
Introduction.		1
Chapter I.	The Task of Theological Ethics in the Light of Eschatological Reality.	10
	Section A. Theological Ethics as a Task of Church Dogmatics.	10
	Section B. The Theological Exposition of the Ethical Event.	20
Chapter II.	Theological Rationality and the Thematic of Karl Barth's Ethical Thought.	46
	Part I. Theological Method and Rationality.	46
	Section A. The Critique of Modern Theological Methods and Rationality.	47
	Section B. The Theological Perspective and Eschatological Reality.	59
	Part II. Opponents of Theological Realism.	73
	Section A. Karl Barth's Struggle with Friedrich Schleiermacher and Idealism.	74
	Section B. A Critique of Modern Rationality, its Absolutism and Nihilism.	84
	Section C. Existentialism and the Limits of the Human Horizon.	90
	Section D. The Peculiar Significance of Ludwig Feuerbach's Thought.	95
Chapter III.	Humanity as the Theme of Theological Ethics.	106
	Section A. The Ethical Conditio sine qua non: Mitmenschlichkeit.	107
	Section B. Created in Co-existence: The Scheme of Analogies.	122
	Section C. Theological Anthropology and Theological Ethics.	133
	Section D. Ethical Existence as an Aspect of Human Solidarity.	139
	Section E. A Theo-Ethical Realism of God's Word.	146
Chapter IV.	Theological Ethics as Witness to Heilsgeschichte.	156
	Part I. God's Grace and Human Response.	156
	Section A. Theological Ethics Consists in Response to God's Grace.	157
	Section B. God's Regulation of the Christian Life.	164
	Section C. The Universal Validity of Divine Regulation of Human Life.	172
	Part II. The Ethical Responsibility of Theo-Realism	180
	Section A. The Teleological Character of Ethical Responsibility.	180
	Section B. The Circular Logic of Theological Realism in the Foundation of Theological Ethics.	190
	Section C. The Seriousness of Karl Barth's Theo-realist Thought is Ethical.	202

II

Chapter V.	The Christian Life and Theo-Ethical Realism.	208
Section A.	Theological Realism as Christian Ethical Performance.	208
Section B.	Wissenschaft and Hermeneutics in the Light of Eschatological Reality.	220
Section C.	Meta-perspective as the Integrating Principle of Karl Barth's Theological Ethics.	226
Bibliography		241