

Contents

Part I. Literature and History

1. A Philological Exercise	11
2. Language and History: The Cognitive Turn	35
3. Pious Spectacle	49
4. The Sacred	59
5. Forms of Devotion	73

Part II. Changes in the Ontology of the Sacred

6. The Ontology of the Sacred	107
7. The Sources of the Spiritualization Process	117
8. The Material Symbol and the Linguistic Sign	123
9. The Stages of Spiritualization	127
10. The Transcendentalization of the Sacred as a Civilizational Transformation	141

Part III. The Profane: The Human Estate

11. Lower Tiers of Sacrality	157
12. The New Place for People in Nature	167
13. From the Universalism of Obedience to the Pluralism of Predictability	187
14. Confraternities as Media in the Civilizing Process	201

Part IV. The Aesthetics of Recapitulation: To Inscribe into the Living Hearts

15. Theatrica	233
16. Spectator, Participant, Co-Author	249
17. The Incarnational Aesthetics of the Theatrical Performance	261
18. The Aesthetics of Articulation and Factuality	287
19. Knowledge of the Miracle	327
20. Recapitulation and Creativity	337

Part V. Spirituality and Subjectivity in Drama

21. The Forms of Devotion and Drama	359
22. The Mystery Play	381
23. The Miracle Play	405
24. The Morality Play	421
25. The Recapitulatory Drama	439
26. The Farce	469
Concluding Remarks	505
Bibliography	507
Index	549