

CONTENTS

List of illustrations ix

Contributors xi

Acknowledgements xv

Abbreviations xvii

Introduction: Why Anglican; Why Women; Why Novelists? Judith Maltby and Alison Shell 1

1 Charlotte Brontë (1816–55): An Anglican Imagination Sara L. Pearson 15

2 Charlotte Maria Tucker, ‘A.L.O.E.’ (1821–93): Anglican Evangelicalism and National Identity Nancy Jiwon Cho 29

3 Margaret Oliphant (1828–97): Opening Doors of Interpretation Alison Milbank 45

4 Charlotte M. Yonge (1823–1901): Writing for the Church Charlotte Mitchell 59

5 Evelyn Underhill (1875–1941): Mysticism in Fiction Ann Loades 73

6 Dorothy L. Sayers (1893–1957): God and the Detective Jessica Martin 87

7 Rose Macaulay (1881–1958): Anglican Apologist? Judith Maltby 103

- 8 Barbara Pym (1913–80): Anglican Anthropologies
Jane Williams 117
- 9 Elizabeth Goudge (1900–84): Clergymen and
Masculinity Susan D. Amussen 131
- 10 Noel Streatfeild (1895–1986): Vicarage and Other
Families Clemence Schultze 145
- 11 Iris Murdoch (1919–99): Anglican Atheist
Peter S. Hawkins 161
- 12 Monica Furlong (1930–2003): ‘With Love to the Church’ Peter Sherlock 175
- 13 P.D. James (1920–2014): ‘Lighten Our Darkness’
Alison Shell 191
- Afterword Francis Spufford 207
- Notes* 211
Further reading 253
Index 259