

Contents

Foreword. Living with Death by Timothy J. Clark	VII
Introduction. Roman Decorated Sarcophagi as a Source for the Cultural Historian by Christopher H. Hallett	1
Putting the Deceased in the Picture: ›Pictorial Devices‹ as Visual Cues by Paul Zanker	9
Why Mythology? by Alan Cameron	27
The Violence of Emotions: Death, Myths, and Empathy in Rome (and Etruria) by Francesco de Angelis	43
Mythologizing Death: Silvae and Sarcophagi by Kathleen M. Coleman	57
Vivi fecerunt. Roman Sarcophagi for and by the Living by Ruth Bielfeldt	65
Isolating the Deceased in the Picture: Tools and Technique on Mythological Sarcophagi by Mont Allen	97
Standardization and Transformation. Some Observations on the Sarcophagus Trade and Sarcophagus Production by Michael Koortbojian	125
Hidden Splendour: The Display Context of Metropolitan Sarcophagi by Barbara E. Borg	145
Mythology and Sarcophagi at Aphrodisias and Rome by R. R. R. Smith	161
Roundtable Discussion by Christopher H. Hallett	177