

Contents

List of Illustrations	vii
Notes on Contributors	viii
Acknowledgements	ix
List of Abbreviations	x

Part 1 Contextualizing Occupation

1	Introduction: Reframing Occupation as a System of Rule Camilo Erlichman and Christopher Knowles	3
2	Preoccupied: Wartime Training for Post-War Occupation in the United States, 1940–5 Susan L. Carruthers	25
3	Benign Occupations: The Allied Occupation of Germany and the International Law of Occupation Peter M. R. Stirk	43

Part 2 The Past in the Present: Transitional Justice and Managing the Nazi Legacy

4	Transitional Justice? Denazification in the US Zone of Occupied Germany Rebecca Boehling	63
5	The Allied Internment of German Civilians in Occupied Germany: Cooperation and Conflict in the Western Zones, 1945–9 Andrew H. Beattie	81
6	What Do You Do with a Dead Nazi? Allied Policy on the Execution and Disposal of War Criminals, 1945–55 Caroline Sharples	97

Part 3 Doing Occupation: Image and Reality

7	‘My Home, Your Castle’: British Requisitioning of German Homes in Westphalia Bettina Blum	115
8	Game Plan for Democracy: Sport and Youth in Occupied West Germany Heather L. Dichter	133

9	Occupying the Environment: German Hunters and the American Occupation Douglas Bell	151
Part 4 Experiencing Occupation: Daily Life and Personal Relationships
10	The Sexualized Landscape of Post-War Germany and the Politics of Cross-Racial Intimacy in the US Zone Nadja Klopprogge	171
11	Shared Spaces: Social Encounters between French and Germans in Occupied Freiburg, 1945–55 Ann-Kristin Glöckner	191
12	‘Gosh ... I Think I’m in a Dream!!’: Subjective Experiences and Daily Life in the British Zone Daniel Cowling	211
Part 5 Mediating Occupation: Interactions, Intermediaries and Legacies
13	‘We Are Glad They Are Here, But We Are Not Rejoicing!’: The Catholic Clergy under French and American Occupation Johannes Kuber	233
14	From Denazification to Renazification? West German Government Officials after 1945 Dominik Rigoll	251
15	The Value of Knowledge: Western Intelligence Agencies and Former Members of the SS, Gestapo and Wehrmacht during the Early Cold War Michael Wala	271
	Select Bibliography	283
	Index	293