

Contents

Aesthetics in Classical German Philosophy (and Current Cognitive Science)	7
Alexander Gottlieb Baumgarten and the Birth of Aesthetics as Gnoseologia Inferior in German Thinking	17
The Focal Point of Modern Aesthetics in the Receptive-Reflective Concept of Immanuel Kant	33
An Attempt to Defragment an Individual and the Aesthetic Holism of German Romanticism as a Reaction to Kant's Rationalism	55
Friedrich Wilhelm Joseph von Schelling's Concept of Beauty Viewed through the Philosophy of Identity	75
Georg Wilhelm Friedrich Hegel's Dynamic Aesthetics in Abstracto et Concreto	93
Arthur Schopenhauer, Søren Kierkegaard and Friedrich Nietzsche – the Aesthetics of Will	107
Phenomenology as Aesthetics and Vice Versa	125
The Heritage of German Aesthetic Idealism – Aesthetics as a Science of the Cognition of the Beautiful, Neuroaesthetics	141
References	149
About Authors	169