

Contents

Martina Endepohls-Ulpe and Joanna Ostrouch-Kamińska

Introduction: gender, diversity, intersectionality –
(new) challenges in adult education ..... 7

I.

Gender stereotypes and gender roles as frames for adult learning and social behavior

Cristina C. Vieira, Lina Coelho and Silvia Portugal

The ‘learned disadvantage’: Unraveling women’s explanations about their greater responsibilities in doing household chores in Portuguese heterosexual couples with children ..... 19

Melanie Pohl

The impact of emotionalization in different text types on women and men in German (young) adults ..... 35

Monika Grochalska

Social representations of intimate relationships in female narratives as the effect of social learning ..... 47

Joanna Ostrouch-Kamińska

Male project of self-destruction and adult learning of authenticity.
Educational challenge for contemporary men ..... 61

II.

Intersectionality in adult education and counseling processes

Marialisa Rizzo

Feminine educational paths in three generations with Apulian origin in Milan ..... 73

Rita Bencivenga

The gender dimension in assessing migrant women’s non-formal and informal learning and skills ..... 87

Claudia M. Quaiser-Pohl, Mirko Saunders, Josephine N. Arasa,

Priscilla W. Kariuki, & Michaela Heinecke-Mueller

The role of gender and culture for the development of human resources in Kenya ... 105

Martina Endepohls-Ulpe & Victor Garnier
Gender-related occupational stereotypes, job-related goals, interests and educational and family preconditions of young women and men in apprenticeships in a technological field ..... 125

Cindy Hanson
Canada's Indian Residential Schools, intersectionality and decolonizing adult education ..... 139

Mariya Ivanova & Aneta Dimitrova
Improving the socio-economic integration of Roma women through adult education ..... 149

III.

Imparting gender competence in educator trainings

Elisabeth Hofmann & Rachel Besson
Complexing gender in a context of multiple layer hierarchies.
A case study from training French nursery professionals on gender ..... 163

Susanne Kreitz-Sandberg
Gender inclusion 2.0: Working with norm-critical perspectives for adult educators .. 175

IV.

Diversity as a challenge and chance for pedagogical approaches:

Museum educational service

Alexis K. Johnson
Co-curation, re-framing cultural spaces from an outsider lens ..... 191

Darlene E. Clover and Kathy Sanford
The feminist museum hack:
A cultural pedagogy of seeing the unseen ..... 197

Notes on contributors ..... 210