

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
Translator's Acknowledgements	ix
A Note on Transliteration	xi
Preface	xiii

PART ONE

Chornobyl and Postmodernism	1
1. Nuclear Discourse, or Literature after Chornobyl	3
2. Nuclear Apocalypse and Postmodernism	10
3. The Socialist Realist Chornobyl Discourse	16
4. Nuclear (Non)-Representation	22
5. Chornobyl and Virtuality	28
6. Chornobyl and the Cultural Archive	33
7. Chornobyl Postmodern Topography	38
8. Chornobyl and the Crisis of Language	44

PART TWO

Post-Totalitarian Trauma and Ukrainian Postmodernism	49
9. Postmodernism: The Synchronization of History	51
10. Ukrainian Postmodernism: The Historical Framework	60
11. A Farewell to the Classic	66
12. The "Ex-Centricity" of the Great Character	83
13. Postmodernism and the "Cultural Organic"	91
14. Postmodernism as Ironic Behavior	96

PART THREEThe Postmodern Carnival 101

-
- | | |
|---|-----|
| 15. Bu-Ba-Bu: A New Literary Formation | 103 |
| 16. The Carnavalesque Postmodern | 109 |
| 17. Yuri Andrukhovych's Carnival: A History of Self-Destruction | 119 |
| 18. After the Carnival: Bu-Ba-Bu Postmortem | 136 |

PART FOURFaces and Topoi of Ukrainian Postmodernism 155

-
- | | |
|---|-----|
| 19. Narrative Apocalypse: Taras Prokhasko's Topographic Writing | 157 |
| 20. The Virtual Apocalypse: The Post-Verbal Writing of Yurko Izdryk | 164 |
| 21. The Grotesques of the Kyiv Underground: Dibrova—Zholdak—Podervianskyi | 175 |
| 22. Feminist Postmodernism: Oksana Zabuzhko | 186 |
| 23. Postmodern Europe: Revision, Nostalgia, and Revenge | 198 |
| 24. The Chornobyl Apocalypse of Yevhen Pashkovsky | 210 |
| 25. The Postmodern Homelessness of Serhiy Zhadan | 218 |
| 26. Volodymyr Tsybulko's Pop-Postmodernism | 237 |
| 27. The (De)KONstructed Postmodernism of Yuriy Tarnawsky | 253 |

PART FIVEPostscript 267

-
- | | |
|--|-----|
| A Comment from the "End of Postmodernism" | 269 |
| A Commentary on the "End of Ukrainian Postmodernism" | 290 |
| Bibliography | 303 |
| Index | 315 |