

Contents

Introduction: The challenge. Global injustice and the individual agent — 1

- 1 The 'circumstances of cosmopolitanism' — 5
- 2 The idea of cosmopolitanism — 8
- 3 Towards a global political ethics — 9
- 4 The pragmatic impulse — 11
- 5 Overview — 12

Part I

The cosmopolitan ethos

Chapter 1: Cosmopolitanism. The ideal of global justice, past and present — 21

- 1 Global citizenship — 21
- 2 Moral cosmopolitanism as egalitarian universalism — 23
- 3 The evolution of cosmopolitanism — 28
- 4 The current debate on global justice. A brief overview — 43
- 5 Global justice and global ethics — 57

Chapter 2: Equality. Towards global relational egalitarianism — 65

- 1 Domestic luck vs. relational egalitarianism — 68
- 2 What is the point of global equality? — 92
- 3 Global luck egalitarianism—a critique — 93
- 4 Towards global relational equality — 97
- 5 Global relational egalitarianism—for and against — 109
- 6 The priority of relations, the relevance of distributions — 115

Chapter 3: Pragmatism. Practice and the possibility of progress — 119

- 1 Cosmopolitanism as a personal way of life — 119
- 2 From criterial monism to pragmatic pluralism — 123
- 3 Elements of a pragmatic ethics — 125
- 4 The role of philosophy — 131

Part II Challenges

Chapter 4: Impact. Do my acts matter? — 137

- 1 Competing problems — 137
- 2 Making no difference? Imperceptible harm and threshold effects — 142
- 3 The most good you can do? — 147
- 4 Making a difference in social structures — 151
- 5 The responsibility to make a difference — 159

Chapter 5: Impartiality. The fragmentation of morality — 161

- 1 The puzzle of partiality — 161
- 2 Preference for oneself — 164
- 3 Relationships and integrity — 168
- 4 Parental partiality — 172
- 5 Preference for compatriots — 183
- 6 Two standpoints and the fragmentation of morality — 190

Chapter 6: Imperfection. Overdemandingness and the inevitability of moral failure — 193

- 1 Cosmopolitan demands and the danger of moral failure — 193
- 2 Demanding too much vs. demanding enough — 195
- 3 Can cosmopolitan moral requirements be met? — 207
- 4 Necessarily non-effective moral requirements — 212
- 5 Cosmopolitan sincerity — 220

Conclusion: The ethos of cosmopolitan responsibility — 221

- 1 Responding to global injustice — 221
- 2 Four features of global individual responsibility — 222
- 3 The cosmopolitan ethos — 226
- 4 Citizens of the world — 234

Bibliography — 236

Index — 251