2.2 Formulating a researchable question	37
2.3 Fitting your research question into an appropriate theory	42
2.4 Choosing an effective research design	45
2.5 An effective literature review	50
2.6 Basic terms in research design	54
2.7 Conclusions	57
3 Generalising from Qualitative Data	59
3.1 Purposive sampling	63
3.2 Theoretical sampling	64
3.3 What is a 'case'?	72
3.4 Misunderstandings about case studies	73
3.5 Conclusions	75

4	Credible Qualitative Research	81
4.1	Does credibility matter?	83
4.2	Reliability	89
4.3	Validity	95
4.4	Conclusions	109
5	Data Analysis	113
5.1	Some rules for data analysis	114
5.2	Content analysis	120
5.3	Grounded theory	123
5.4	Narrative analysis	132
5.5	Conclusion	141
6	Research Ethics	147
6.1	Ethical pitfalls	150
6.2	Ethical safeguards	157
6.3	Some ethical complications	164
PART II METHODS		173
7	Interviews	175
7.1	Online or face-to-face?	176
7.2	What is an 'open-ended' interview?	177
7.3	When should you interview?	181
7.4	Implications: three versions of interview data	184
