

Imagining Inheritance From Chaucer to Shakespeare

ALEX DAVIS

OXFORD
UNIVERSITY PRESS

Contents

| | |
|--|------|
| List of Illustrations | xi |
| Note on Texts | xiii |
| Introduction: Imagining Premodern Inheritance | 1 |
| I. FICTIONS OF THE WILL | |
| 1. 'A Very Perfect Forme of a Will': The Fictional Testament | 21 |
| 2. Out of Bounds: Testamentary Fiction from The Tale of Gamelyn to As You Like It | 57 |
| II. NATURAL PHILOSOPHY | |
| 3. Petrified Unrest: Succession and Descent in Lancastrian Verse | 95 |
| 4. The Home-Bred Enemy: Inheritance and Constancy in Tudor and Stuart Writing | 133 |
| III. WORLD HISTORIES | |
| 5. Heavenly Inheritances | 181 |
| 6. The System of the World: Inheritance, Money, Modernity | 224 |
| Epilogue | 266 |
| Bibliography | 271 |
| Index | 291 |