

Reading Chaucer in Time

Literary Formation in England and Italy

KARA GASTON

OXFORD
UNIVERSITY PRESS

Table of Contents

Introduction: Reading for Formation	1
1. Form and Formation in the Vita nuova , Filostrato , and Troilus and Criseyde	15
2. Writing Readers in the Thebaid , Teseida , and Knight's Tale	48
3. Learning in Time: Intellectual Formation in the Griselda Story	84
4. Assembling the Times in the Metamorphoses , Filocolo , and Franklin's Tale	116
5. How Much Is Enough in the Monk's Tale ? Setting Boundaries in Humanist Biography	144
Afterword: When Is the House of Fame?	175
Bibliography	179
Index	197