

Contents

Foreword	13
A. Realisations of the Good News	17
I. Basics of the Church	17
1. In the Beginning: Word and Deed	17
1.1 The Experience of Meaning	17
1.2 Biblical Stories of God	19
1.3 Jesus's Practical References to God	21
2. Christian Belief within Redeeming and Liberating Experience	23
2.1 The Benefitting Church	23
2.2 The Practical Meaning of the Teaching	25
2.3 The Unarbitrary Nature of Praxis	28
II. Church as Evangelisation	30
1. Evangelisation	30
1.1 Integral Belief	30
1.2 Orientation to the Incarnation	32
1.3 The Competence of the Basis ("Basis Communities")	34
1.4 From the Many Words to the Decisive Deed	37
2. The Service of God and the Service of Humankind	40
2.1 Essential Realisations of the Church	40
2.2 Synopsis	41
2.3 Diaconal Responsibility of the Church's Ministers	43
2.4 Social (and) Pastoral Care	47
III. Church for Others	49
1. Introduction	49
2. Neighbourly Love in the Church and Its Limitations	50
3. The Fruitful Tension Between Fellowship and Service	52
4. The Scope of Service in the Community of the Church	55

5.	The Situational Priority of Service as Principle	58
6.	The Use of Theology	61
7.	The Messiah's Sensibility and Solidarity	62
7.1	Jesus Deals with People in a "Physical" and Gentle Way	63
7.2	Jesus Heals and Forgives	63
7.3	Jesus Expects Decisive Messages from Those in Need of Help and Justice	65
7.4	Jesus Supports the Suffering in Public	67
7.5	In Diaconia, Jesus Risks Becoming an Outsider and Oppression	68
7.6	Jesus's Relationship to the Diaconia of God	68
B.	Contexts and Challenges	71
I.	Christian Identity as Non-identitarian Gift and Task	71
1.	Introduction	71
2.	Love As a Given?	73
3.	Love Enhances and Encompasses Everything	74
4.	Political Implications	75
5.	From the Very Beginning: Theological Equality	76
6.	Mission from the Christian Perspective: a Liberating Release	78
7.	A Profligate Approach: Unchained and Unchaining	79
8.	For the Sake of Other Identities	81
9.	The Universalisation of Christian and Churchian Solidarity	82
II.	Rooted in the Life and Passion of the Cultures	83
1.	What Does "Contextual" Mean? Preliminary Clarifications	83
2.	Contextualisation from the Very Beginning	86
3.	Context and Tradition	88
4.	The Presence of the Resurrected Not Only with His People of Israel	90
5.	Contextualisation as Inculturation at the Grassroots	93
6.	Syncretism as a Necessary and Ambivalent Dynamic	96
7.	Cultural-normative Origin of Identity?	98
8.	The Passing on of Faith in Relation to the Bible, Church and Context	101

III.	The Challenge of Plurality	106
1.	Pastoral Care Projects in the Context of an Overall United Pastoral Conception	106
1.1	Plural Places and Spaces for Pastoral Activity	106
1.2	“Community” within the Joint Pastoral Conception	110
2.	Consequences of the Practice of Pastoral Care	114
2.1	In the Context of Freedom	114
2.2	In the Horizon of Grace	115
2.3	A Strict Focus on the Addressees	118
2.4	Openness to “Transcendence”	119
IV.	Suffering in the Practice of the Christian Faith in God	122
	Introduction	122
1.	Invocation: Dialectics of the Own Wish and God’s Will	123
1.1	Trust in the Prayer of Petition	123
1.2	Unfair Answering	125
2.	Resistance	126
2.1	Lamentation: Resistance and Hope	126
2.2	No Winner Discourse	128
2.3	Eschatological Event	130
3.	Dedication to God’s Secret	131
3.1	The Doxology of the Praise of God	131
3.2	God Is Greater than “Everything”	132
C.	Hermeneutical Keys of Memory	135
I.	Memory as Encounter	135
1.	Encounter with the Past	135
2.	Let Joshua 6:1–7.16–21 Be an Example!	137
3.	... But with What Intention?	139
4.	The Readiness to Repent	141
5.	The Readiness to Be Compassionate and to Deal Justly	143
6.	Responsibility of the Churches	145
7.	Responsibility for Sensitive Liturgical Remembrance	146
7.1	Christmas Idyll and Child Murder in Bethlehem	147
7.2	Liturgical Instrumentalization	148
7.3	Subordinate to the Messiah?	148
7.4	The Empire Strikes Back	149

8.	Holocaust Remembrance as an Ongoing Breach	151
II.	Suffering as a Hermeneutical Key	153
1.	Biographical Context	153
2.	Careful Awareness and Analysis	155
3.	Sensitive Comparison or the Way to Find Options	156
4.	Power of Compassion	158
5.	Christian Martyrdom	159
III.	How to Deal with Violence in Biblical Texts	161
1.	Introduction	161
2.	Hermeneutical Explorations	163
	2.1 The Signature of God's Eschatological Power over History ...	163
	2.2 Not Imitation but Delegation	164
	2.3 Being Alarmed at Ourselves	165
	2.4 A Martyrial Criteriology	167
3.	Outlook	168
	3.1 The Path of the Church	168
	3.2 ... Towards the Bible's Fourfold Conception of Violence	170
IV.	Biblical Laments Wherever People Suffer	171
1.	Context: World Day of Prayer 1994 and 2024	171
2.	A Topopractical Criteriology of Biblical Hermeneutics	172
	2.1 The Hermeneutic Force of Personal and Situative Circumstances	172
	2.2 Diaconal Awareness Instead of Ahistorical Ideologies	175
	2.3 Election by God: Exclusive or Generative?	177
	2.4 Victims Caught Between Self-experience and Comparative Evidential Critique	179
3.	Preconditions and Detailed Explication	184
	3.1 Compassion's Power to Touch our Hearts	184
	3.2 A Concrete Case: Solidarity in Prayer	187
4.	Advocacy for the World Day of Prayer 1994 and 2024	191

D. Towards a New Mission	197
I. Christian Mission in a Pluralistic World	197
1. The Example of a Missionary	197
2. Mission as the Universalisation of Christian and Church Pro-existence (the Outside Aspect)	201
3. Mission as Radicalisation of Christian and Church Existence (the Inside Aspect)	203
3.1 Mission in “Martyrdom” (Martyrium)	204
3.2 Mission in Unfanatical Devotion	208
4. Result and Outlook	210
II. The Role of Religion in the European Constitution	214
1. The Problem	214
2. The Preamble: Memory and Re-shaping	214
3. Taking Account of the Critique of Religion	216
4. An Explicit Reference to God?	218
5. God Supports Justice and Compassion	220
6. God: Mystery of the World	221
7. God: Not a Shared Basis?	223
8. So What about Palestine?	225
III. The Churches’ Responsibility for the Media	227
1. The Kingdom of God as a Theological Point of Reference	227
2. Forms of Religious Presence in Secular Products	228
3. Learning to Hear and See	231
4. Not Flight, but “Walking Upright”	233
5. Economy and Coming of Age	234
E. Responsibility in Church Offices	237
I. Pope Benedict and the Perception of Reality	237
1. What Is at Issue	237
2. Spiritual Generalisation of Social Reality	239
3. The Papering over of History and Politics	243
4. Leadership Guided by Principles that “Trample on Corpses”?	246

5.	Not Inculturation, Rather Integration in a Specific Catholic Culture	248
6.	Generalising from One's Own Biography?	251
7.	God's Wholeness as Grace?	254
II.	Pope Francis and the Grace of Preaching	256
1.	Heart to Heart	256
2.	Given and Giving in Freedom	259
3.	The Message as Empowerment	262
4.	Theological Background: Indicative Preaching	265
5.	Against "God" as a Term of Achievement!	268
III.	Diaconate Between Title and Implementation	271
1.	Diaconia Is Rooted in the Gospel	271
2.	Dual Developments	273
3.	Contextual Meaning of the Titles	274
4.	Challenges Which Lead to Progress	277
5.	In the Art of Networking	278
F.	Spiritual Traces	283
I.	"Priest Mothers" and "God Mothers"	283
1.	Qualitative Empirical Approaches to the Image of God	283
2.	Empirical Social Research and Theological Choices	285
2.1	Priest Mothers	288
2.2	God Mothers	291
3.	Avenues of Future Research	295
3.1	God Images	295
3.2	The Communicative Method of Empirical Research	296
II.	The Pastoral Meaning of the Marital Rite	299
1.	Ritual as "Liminal"	299
2.	The Pregiven Set Format of Ritual as an Experience of the Unconditional Absolute	301
3.	Marriage and Pastoral Care: Between "Inside" and "Outside"	302
4.	A Plea for a "Sell-out"	304
5.	The Spirituality of the Gift	305

III.	Christian Eschatology and Pastoral Care	308
1.	Survival in the Context of Christian Eschatology	308
2.	On the Level of a Theology of Justification	312
3.	Meaningful Consequences	315
4.	The Sinful Character of Guilt as a Liberation for Change	317
5.	Pastoral Care in the Horizon of God's Grace	320
6.	Grace as Motivating Resource	322
7.	Abandonment of Survival for the Sake of Survival	324
8.	Conclusion: Easter – A Tremendous Victory of love	327
G.	Translations	333
I.	Poetry as a Deep Experience of a Different World: Goethe's West-Eastern Divan	333
1.	Mahomet: a Genius	334
2.	The Debate about Mahomet	335
3.	Poetic Appropriation	337
4.	A Journey into Open Space	340
5.	The Teaching Prophet Versus the Poet	343
6.	Removing of Boundaries	347
7.	Depth Relationships that Undermine Belief Systems	349
II.	Sermons and Meditations	353
1.	Christmas	353
2.	Conversion of Paul (January 25)	355
3.	Ash Wednesday	356
4.	Holy Thursday, Eucharist	357
5.	Easter (with St. Francis)	358
6.	One God as Trinity	361
7.	Assumption of Mary	364
8.	Which Picture of God?	366
9.	The First Will Be Last (Mt 19:23–30)	368
10.	Facilitating Grace	370
11.	Ready for Rest (Mk 6:30–31)	370
12.	The Coincidence of the Opposites	371
	Appendix: Publication and Translation References	373