

Contents

Part I Introduction

- Competition in Morphology: A Historical Outline 3
Francesco Gardani, Franz Rainer, and Hans Christian Luschützky

Part II Derivational Morphology

- Competitors and Alternants in Linguistic Morphology 39
Mark Aronoff

- Competition in Derivation: What Can We Learn from French
Doublets in -age and -ment?..... 67
Bernard Fradin

- Competition Between Event-Denoting Deverbal Nouns and Nominal
Infinitives in Italian 95
Rossella Varvara and Roberto Zamparelli

- Rivalry and Lack of Blocking Among Italian and German
Diminutives in Adult and Child Language..... 123
Wolfgang U. Dressler, Lavinia Merlini Barbaresi, Sonja Schwaiger,
Jutta Ransmayr, Sabine Sommer-Lolei, and Katharina Korecky-Kröll

- Blocking as a Function of the Nature of Linguistic Representations:
Where Psycholinguistics and Morphology Meet..... 145
Arjen P. Versloot and Eric Hoekstra

Part III Inflectional Morphology

- When Nobody Wins..... 169
Kyle Gorman and Charles Yang

- Competition in Frisian Past Participles..... 195
Anne Merkuur, Jan Don, Eric Hoekstra, and Arjen P. Versloot

Overabundance: A Canonical Typology	223
Anna M. Thornton
An Apparently Noncanonical Pattern of Morphotactic Competition	259
Gregory Stump
Part IV Multiword Expressions and Compounding
Competition Between Morphological Words and Multiword Expressions	281
Francesca Masini
Chinese Adjective-Noun Combinations	307
Zheng Xu	