

Contents

List of Illustrations	XV
Abbreviations	XX

Introduction	1
--------------	---

PART 1

The Old Colony

SECTION 1

The Colony

1	Plymouth's Creation: a Congregational Commonwealth	9
1	The Mayflower Compact Gave Structure to Plymouth Colony's Society	11
2	The Mayflower Compact: Lastingly Significant and Influential, or Temporarily Expedient and Forgotten?	13
3	Creating a Consensual Commonwealth	18
4	The Mayflower Compact as the Cornerstone and Framework of Plymouth Colony Constitutionalism	20
5	Dividing the Land, the First New Towns, and Other Democratic Choices	25
6	Plymouth's Expanded Constitution of 1636, More Towns and Churches, and the Shift to Representative Government	29
7	Churches, Government, Toleration, and Quakers	33
8	Representation by Selectmen, Taxation Supporting Churches	41
9	Conclusion	45
2	Tribes and Land Reserves in Plymouth Colony	46
1	The Tribes	48
2	Tribal Land, Tribal Losses	61
3	William Bradford's Sources for Dutch Law: Edward Grimeston and Emanuel van Meteren	87
1	Civil Marriage in Holland – Edward Grimeston	87
2	King James I and Church Reform – Emanuel van Meteren	92
3	The Union of Utrecht and the Act of Abjuration	94

4	Constructing History	96
4	Intellectual Baggage: the Useful Pilgrims and the Culture of Plymouth Colony	97
1	Death Preceded Them	97
2	Bibles	114
3	Psalm Books	116
4	Theology	120
5	Exegesis	126
6	Piety	130
7	Religious Polemics	132
8	History	133
9	Other	140
5	Towards a Revision of the Pilgrims: Three New Pictures	149
1	Background	149
2	A New Departure	154
3	A New Plymouth?	168
4	Another Portrait of Edward Winslow	175

SECTION 2

The Towns

6	Scituate: Excerpts from the Introductions to The Seventeenth-Century Town Records of Scituate, Massachusetts	181
1	Studying Families in Context: the New Antiquarianism	183
2	Scituate's Reality and Historiographical Myths	187
3	What Kind of Town Was Scituate? Historians Provide Answers	203
4	Topics of Conversation	211
5	Business and Craft Production in Scituate: Ships and Shipping	213
6	Mills, Fishing, Furniture, and Other Work	218
7	Misbehavior	222
8	Prices, Wages, and Livestock	226
9	Some Conclusions	233
7	Eastham Town Records Introduction	238
1	Nauset	238
2	Eastham's Native Leaders and the First Colonists	240

8	Sandwich Town Records Introduction	248
9	Marshfield Town Records Introduction	257
1	Establishment	257
2	The Sufferings of Arthur Howland	262

PART 2

The Dutch Context of Toleration

10	Dutch Aid to Persecuted Swiss and Palatine Mennonites, 1615–1699	267
1	Persecution, Reports, Response, and Remembrance	267
2	Doctrinal Bickering Amidst Persecution – 1614	271
3	Dutch Aid Begins (1640's)	275
4	Isaac Hattavier's Attempts to Help (1637–1658)	279
5	Hans Vlamingh's Contacts and Dutch Government Intercession (1650's and 1660's)	282
6	1663 Extract of List of the Names of Mennonite Prisoners	291
7	Philipp von Zesen's Book, Against the Coercion of Conscience (1665)	299
8	Hans Vlamingh, Galenus Abrahamsz. de Haan, Jacob Everling, and Valentin Huetwohl: Disaster Relief in 1671–1672	301
9	The Disaster Year, 1672	308
10	Galenus Abrahamsz. de Haan, William Penn, and David Holtzhalb	311
11	Philippus van Limborch and John Locke's "Letter on Toleration" (1685–1689)	315
12	Mennonite Relief during the War of the Grand Alliance	322
11	Dutch Contributions to Religious Toleration	337
1	Adriaen van der Donck and the Absence of Toleration in New Netherland	339
2	Why Did English People in 1657 Think there Was Religious Freedom in Holland?	344
3	Dutch Sources for Ideas on Toleration in Plymouth Colony and Rhode Island	354
4	Dutch International Pleas for Toleration among Protestants	358

PART 3

Patterns of Pilgrim Commemoration

- 12 Commemorating Colonial New England's First Families: the Triumph of the Pilgrims 371
- 1 Introduction 371
 - 2 Objects of Veneration 375
 - 3 The Rock in the Ooze 376
 - 4 Eloquence 383
 - 5 Seats of Authority 390
 - 6 The Triumph of the Pilgrims 392
 - 7 First-Person Fun 403
- 13 The Hypothetical Nature of Plimoth Plantation's Architecture 409
- 1 Fashionable Modes of Memory 409
 - 2 The Background 411
 - 3 1947–1966: Plimoth Plantation's Pilgrims as Prototypical Suburbanites 416
 - 4 1967–1985: Pilgrims as Folk 420
 - 5 1986–2000: Pilgrims as Identifiably Ethnic 429
 - 6 2000–now: Pilgrims as Representative of Their Class 433
 - 7 Hypothetical Nature 441
 - 8 Hypothetical Future 443
 - 9 Postscript 2019 446
- 14 Always More Pilgrim Books 447
- 1 The Primary Sources for the Pilgrim Story 448
 - 2 Nineteenth-century Histories 450
 - 3 Twentieth-century Repetition and Revision 456
 - 4 Into the Future – Pilgrims 2000 and Beyond 464
 - 5 Where Do We Go Next? 470
- 15 Thanksgiving on the Net: Roast Bull with Cranberry Sauce 473
- 1 Talking Turkey 473
 - 2 The Text 475
 - 3 Thanking Whom? 478
 - 4 Colored Clothes, No Buckled Hats! My Goodness! 480
 - 5 And, Yes, They Did Call Themselves "Pilgrims" 481

6	The Fake Thanksgiving Proclamation of 1623	483
7	The Libertarian's First Thanksgiving	486
8	A Cornucopia of Grievances	488
9	The National Day of Mourning	491
10	Genocide	493
11	Lies My Teacher's Telling Me Now	494

Jeremy Dupertuis Bangs: a List of Publications Concerning the Pilgrims and Plymouth Colony 501

Books – Author or editor of 501

Book Chapters 502

Lemmas 502

Articles 502

Bibliography 505

Index of People 539

Index of Places and Subjects 553