

1	Introduction.....	7
2	Palesticide(s) – A Contemporary History of Zionism and the Nakba	27
	2.1 Defining the Nakba.....	27
	2.2 Zionist Settler-Colonialism	28
	2.3 Ethnic Cleansing.....	44
	2.4 Contemporary Colonialism and Disturbing Natives	54
	2.4.1 The Nakba – A History of the Present	54
	2.4.2 Colonial Violence	59
	2.4.3 Erasure and Inscription	71
	2.5 Perpetual War	83
	2.5.1 Palestinian Responses	83
	2.5.2 Mowing the Lawn or Removing the Topsoil?	85
	2.5.3 Incitement and the Banality of Evil	94
	2.5.4 The Question of Genocide	99
3	Palestine in U.S.-Israeli Similes.....	107
	3.1 Imagined Arabs, Imagining Arabs – Orientalist Fantasies	108
	3.2 American Zionism and U.S.-Israeli Exceptionalism	112
	3.3 U.S.-Israeli Concepts of Peace and Terrorism	118
	3.4 Palestine as a Laboratory	124
	3.5 Arab America: From Inclusion to Marginalization	126
4	Black-Palestinian Solidarity.....	133
	4.1 A History of Transnational Resistance and Solidarity	133
	4.1.1 Palestine and the Third World	135
	4.1.2 Palestine in the Black Power Movement	138
	4.1.3 Black-Palestinian Intersections in Israel.....	148
	4.1.4 South Africa Between Palestine and Israel.....	153

4.2	Contemporary Struggles	158
4.2.1	Wars on Drugs and Terror	158
4.2.2	Black Lives Matter.....	163
4.2.3	Hashtag Solidarity: The Gaza/Ferguson Moment	166
4.2.4	Statements of Solidarity	170
4.2.5	Black Lives in Israel	177
4.2.6	Jewish Solidarity and Resistance	181
5	Arts as Resistance	185
5.1	On Transnational Literature.....	185
5.2	The Artist as Activist.....	186
5.3	Black-Palestinian Transformations.....	190
5.4	Poetic Resistance: A Literary History	196
6	Literary Analysis.....	211
6.1	Humanization	211
6.2	Displacement, Home, and the Living Room	225
6.3	Contesting the U.S.-Israeli Alliance	235
6.4	Concentration Camps and Mass Incarceration	240
6.5	Feminist Responses	247
6.6	Transnational Remapping.....	255
6.7	Revolution as a Solution.....	268
7	Conclusion	275
	Works Cited	287