

Contents

Contributors	page ix
Preface	xv
Introduction	1
Kathryn Ierulli, Edward L. Glaeser, and Mariano Tommasi
PART I DISCRIMINATION AND IMMIGRATION
1 The economics of discrimination: a primer	15
Barry R. Chiswick
2 The economic analysis of immigration	27
George J. Borjas
PART II CRIME, PUNISHMENT, AND RIGHTS
3 Rational criminals and profit-maximizing police: the economic analysis of law and law enforcement	43
David Friedman
4 Property rights in children	59
James S. Coleman
PART III ALL IN THE FAMILY
5 Human capital, fertility, and economic growth	77
Robert Tamura
6 Marriage market models	92
Shoshana Grossbard-Shechtman
7 The marriage premium	113
Kermit Daniel

PART IV GOVERNMENT AND POLITICS

- 8 The process of government 129
Edgardo Enrique Zablotzky
- 9 The economic approach to democracy 140
John G. Matsusaka

PART V HEALTH, RELIGION, AND MASS BEHAVIOR

- 10 The economic approach to addictive behavior 157
Michael Grossman
- 11 Household production, human capital, and the economics of religion 172
Laurence R. Iannaccone
- 12 The blind leading the blind: social influence, fads, and informational cascades 188
David Hirshleifer
- 13 Public health and economic epidemiology 216
Tomas Philipson
- Index* 235