

Contents

Introduction .....	5
I A Discourse Perspective on the Foreign Language Classroom
Conversational Structures in the Foreign Language Classroom Wolfgang Lörcher .....	11
Repair in Foreign Language Teaching Gabriele Kasper .....	23
II Focus on the Learner
Learning to Talk: Talking to Learn. An Investigation of Learner Performance in Two Types of Discourse Juliane House .....	43
The Influence of L1 and L3 in the Foreign Language Classroom: An Analysis of Learners' Questions Horst Raabe .....	59
Some Ideas Concerning the Emotional Dimension of Foreign Language Learning Sabine Börsch .....	71
III Focus on the Teacher
Quantitative Studies of Teacher Talk Gisela Håkansson .....	83
The Role of Simplified Input in Classroom Language Craig Chaudron .....	99
Some Ways in Which the Teacher Brings Errors into Being Willis Edmondson .....	111
Rules of Thumb and Other Teacher-formulated Rules in the Foreign Language Classroom Claus Færch .....	125
IV Goals, Methods and Strategies in the Foreign Language Classroom
An Ordered Inventory of Communicative Functions for General Foreign Language Teaching Hans Arndt and Althea Ryan . . . . .	145
Teaching "Polite Noises": Improving Advanced Adult Learners' Repertoire of Gambits Mary Wildner-Basset .....	163
Strategic Competence in Foreign Language Teaching Claus Færch and Gabriele Kasper .....	179
Language Learning Processes and Strategies in the Foreign Language Classroom: A Reconstructive and Interventive Model Henning Bolte and Wolfgang Herrlitz .....	195