

Contents

INTRODUCTION	vii
I. Oklahoma Revisited by Pierre Delattre	1
II. A Model for Research in Programmed Self-instruction by John B. Carroll	11
III. A Study of Programmed Self-instruction for Seventh-grade Learners by Gerald Newmark	47
IV. Toward Self-instruction in Foreign Language Learning by Albert Valdman	76
V. Programming Second Language Reading by George A. C. Scherer	108
VI. The Pauseless Tape in Programmed Pattern Drills by G. Mathieu	130
VII. Modern Greek Self-taught: First Step to a National Library by Paul Pimsleur	138
VIII. Closing the Circle: Training the Teachers' Teachers by Jack M. Stein	147
IX. Observation of Demonstration Classes as a Method of Teaching Teachers by F. W. Nachtmann	164
X. A Model Design for the In-service Training of Foreign Language Teachers by David M. Feldman	173
XI. Continuum in Language Learning by Everett V. O'Rourke	183
XII. Prospects for FLES by Roger A. Pillet	196
ABOUT THE CONTRIBUTORS	211