

Contents

Preface vii

1. Reconciling Descriptive and Normative Insights 1
 - Speech Act Rules
 - Interactional Principles of Cooperation and Alignment
 - Four Core Commitments in the Study of Argumentation
 - Speech Acts and the Four Core Commitments
2. A Starting Point for Normative Description 20
 - Five Components of the Study of Argumentation
 - An Ideal Model of Argumentative Discourse
 - Higher-Order Conditions
 - Ideal Model and Actual Practice
3. Principles and Procedures for Normative Reconstruction 37
 - Normative Reconstruction
 - Interpretive Problems in Reconstruction
 - Approaches to Analysis and Reconstruction
4. Dialectical Reconstruction 60
 - Reconstruction Transformations
 - An Extended Example
 - The Analytic Overview

5.	The Pragmatic Organization of Conversational Argument	91
	Normative and Naive Reconstruction
	Virtual Standpoints and Disagreement Space
	Hierarchical Organization of Standpoints
	Felicity Conditions and "Issue Structure" in Argumentation
	Case Study: Responses to an Editorial Opinion
	Conclusions
6.	Mediation as Critical Discussion	117
	Third-Party Dispute Mediation
	Engineering Solutions in Discourse
	Conclusions
7.	Failures in Higher-Order Conditions in the Organization of Witnessing and Heckling Episodes	142
	Fields of Argumentation
	Witnessing and Heckling
	Standpoints and Perspectives
	Reflexive Structuring of Confrontation
	Conclusions
8.	Directions for Elaboration of the Model	170
	Implications for Philosophical Concepts of Reasonableness
	Implications for Normative Models
	Implications for Analytic Methods
	Implications for Empirical Description
	Implications for Practical Research
	References	185
	Index	193