

Contents

Part 1

Introduction

PAGE

1. Rational Policy through Mutual Adjustment 3

Part 2

Elements of the Process of Partisan Mutual Adjustment

2. The Participants and the Process 21
3. Adaptive Adjustments 35
4. Manipulated Adjustments: Preliminary Survey 54
5. Manipulated Adjustments: Specific Forms 66

Part 3

The Process in Government

6. The Governmental Process 87
7. Mixed Systems: Emphasis on Centrality 102
8. Mixed Systems: Mutual Adjustment Dominant 117

Part 4

Problem-Solving Strategy and Mutual Adjustment

9. Strategy in Problem Solving 137
10. Coordination through a Multiplicity of Strategic Problem Solvers 153

Part 5
Comparative Analysis
of Central Coordination and
Mutual Adjustment

11. Coordination by Overview	165
12. Reasoned Coordination	182
13. Consistency	192
14. Social Agreement	205
15. Conflicting Values	226
16. Equality as a Criterion	246
17. Inequality and Mutual Adjustment	265
18. Public Interest and Group Interests	274

Part 6
Policy Toward
Mutual Adjustment

19. Choice Among Policy-Making Methods	293
20. An Illustrative Application of the Analysis	311
Appendix: Summary of Analysis	330
Notes	336
Index	347