

CONTENTS

Introduction

Probing the Realms of Lostness, Non-Canonicity and Oblivion: An Introduction	3
Norbert Lennartz

(Re-)Discoveries from the Realm of Lostness in the Romantic Age

Six Characters in Search of Their Lost Playwrights	21
Frederick Burwick

Nathan Drake and the Rehabilitation of Superstition	41
Rolf Lessenich

Mary Blachford Tighe: ‘No Haunting Dream’	59
Anthony John Harding

Wild Verse: The Art of Nature in the Poetry of Ann Batten Cristall	75
Stefanie John

Towards a Labouring-Class Poetics: Recovering Edward Rushton Franca Dellarosa	93
Catching Up with Walking Stewart Tom Mole	111
Interludes of Semi-Lostness
Scaling Histories and Relating Systems: Figurations of Deep Time in the Poetry of Thomas Lovell Beddoes Ute Berns	133
Clare's Late Styles Andrew Hodgson	151
One-Hit Wonders in Romantic Celebrity Culture
Lost in Media: John Polidori's Vampyre as a Serial Figure in Romantic Popular Culture Ralf Haekel	171
John Polidori's Gothic Novel: Ernestus Berchtold and the Daring Narrative of Incest Serena Baiesi	189
Mary Shelley's Monstrous Abortion Richard C. Sha	203
Genre and Gender Issues in Mary Shelley's Narrative Lilla Maria Crisafulli	225

“Attendant Lords”: Marginalised Prufrockian Romantics

Henry Crabb Robinson and Edward Armitage’s Lost Fresco at Dr. Williams’s Library Philipp Hunnekuhl	249
The Lost Gastronomers Denise Gigante	265
Charles Armitage Brown: The Friend of Keats Nicholas Roe	283
Barry Cornwall: Lost Nightingale Richard Marggraf Turley	301
Index	327