

THE ROUTLEDGE INTRODUCTION TO NATIVE AMERICAN LITERATURE

Drew Lopezina

CONTENTS

List of figures	viii
Acknowledgments	x
Introduction to the Introduction: Entering Native Space	1
1 Oral Encounters: Moving the Forest and Rocks by Song	18
2 “Still the Same Unbelieving Indian”: Native Voices in the Emerging Republic	41
3 Red Progressives and Indian “Pass-Words”	65
4 Sunset, Sunrise: The American Indian Novel and the Dawning of the Native American Literary Renaissance	88
5 “Many of Our Songs Are Maps”: Poetry in the Native American Literary Renaissance and Beyond	113
6 “Every One of Those Stars Has a Story”: Narrative and Nationhood	134
7 Teaching Louise Erdrich’s Tracks : A Case Study	158
Conclusion: Greetings from Standing Rock	184
Appendix: Sample Syllabus for Native American Literature	190
Index	195