

Table of Contents

Preface	7
List of Illustrations	9

Introduction

Transregional History: New Perspectives on Early Modern Borders and Borderlands in the Low Countries and the Habsburg Worlds	13
Bram DE RIDDER and Violet SOEN

PART I

Transregional Families

Upper Guelders's Four Points of the Compass: Historiography and Transregional Families in a Contested Border Region between the Empire, the Spanish Monarchy, and the Dutch Republic	23
Raingard ESSER
Transregional Marriages and Strategies of Loyalty: The House of Arenberg Navigating between the Spanish and Austrian Habsburgs, 1630–1700	43
Sophie VERREYKEN

PART II

Cross-Border Circulations

Negotiating Consensual Loyalty to the Habsburg Dynasty: Francophone Border Provinces between the Low Countries and France, 1477–1659	73
Yves JUNOT and Marie KERVYN

Franche-Comté, the Low Countries, and the Catholic Backbone of Seventeenth-Century Europe: Transregional and Cross-Border
Circulations of Devotional Practices and Artistic Knowledge 103
Patricia SUBIRADE

How Local Politics Became a Matter of Transregional Concern:
German and Dutch Pamphlets Calling Jülich Nobility to Assemble in Cologne, 1642–1651 139
Christel Annemieke ROMEIN

PART III
Border Management

The Scheldt Estuary during the Dutch Revolt: War, Trade, and Taxation, 1572–1609 163
Victor ENTHOVEN

Border Management during the Eighty Years' War: Passports for Persons Crossing the New Habsburg-Dutch Border, 1568–1648 183
Bram DE RIDDER

'Cannon Law' during the Politique des Réunions: French Power
Politics at the Bidasoa Border and the Crisis of the Customary
Law of Nations 209
Fernando CHAVARRÍA MÚGICA

Notes on Contributors 247
Index of Names 251
Index of Places 257