

CONTENTS

List of Figures	vii
List of Contributors	viii
Acknowledgements	xi
Introduction	1
Thomas Austin and Angelos Koutsourakis
1. Aesthetics of Crisis: Art Cinema and Neoliberalism	25
Alex Lykidis
2. Beyond Neoliberalism? Gift Economies in the Films of the Dardenne Brothers	43
Martin O'Shaughnessy
3. The Resurgence of Modernism and its Critique of Liberalism in the Cinema of Crisis	60
Angelos Koutsourakis
4. Post-Fordism in Active Life , Industrial Revolution and The Nothing Factory	76
Patricia Sequeira Brás
5. Re-evaluating Crisis Politics in the Work of Aku Louhimies	93
Kate Moffat

6. Crisis of Cinema/Cinema of Crisis: The Car Crash and the Berlin School Olivia Landry	105
7. Representing and Escaping the Crises of Neoliberalism: Veiko Õunpuu's Films and Methods Eva Näripea	119
8. The Future is Past, the Present Cannot be Fixed: Ken Loach and the Crisis Martin Hall	136
9. It Could Happen to You: Empathy and Empowerment in Iberian Austerity Cinema Iván Villarme Álvarez	150
10. The Double Form of Neoliberal Subjugation: Crisis on the Eastern European Screen Anna Batori	164
11. Housing Problems: Britain's Housing Crisis and Documentary Anna Viola Sborgi	180
12. Miserable Journeys, Symbolic Rescues: Refugees and Migrants in the Cinema of Fortress Europe Thomas Austin	198
13. Frontlines: Migrants in Hungarian Documentaries in the 2010s Lóránt Stóhr	215
14. Mongrel Attunement in White God Rosalind Galt	231
15. Labour and Exploitation by Displacement in Recent European Film Constantin Parvulescu	244
16. A Hushed Crisis: The Visual Narratives of (Eastern) Europe's Antiziganism Dina Iordanova	260
Bibliography	277
Index	304