

6	BRIGITTE MANG	Foreword
10	RAINER ROBRA	Welcoming Address for the Opening of the Exhibition Georg Forster – The World Explorer at Wörlitz, 5 May 2018
14	FRANK VORPAHL	The First Permanent Georg Forster Exhibition A place for the great explorer and for perspectives beyond the “mausoleums of white curiosity”
22	LUDWIG UHLIG	The Adventure of Georg Forster’s Life
28	MICHAEL EWERT	Collecting, Contextualising, and Writing Georg Forster – a travelling collector
36	JANA KITTELMANN	An Interchange of Influences Georg Forster’s relationship to gardens and descriptions of gardens
46	JOACHIM MEISSNER	The Myth of the South Seas and the Cult of Freemasonry in Late 18th-Century Follies
62	UWE QUILITZSCH	On the History of the Forster Collection in Wörlitz Georg Forster and the Garden Realm
78	ANDREAS PEČAR	Georg Forster and Prince Franz A relationship illuminated by the Enlightenment
86	FRANK VORPAHL	After Almost Two-and-a-Half Centuries, a New Perspective on the Wörlitz Forster Collection
172	MELANIE KORN	Preserving the Forster World Cultural Heritage for the Future
180	ALANA THYNG	Maori Artifacts Across Cultures Johann Reinhold and Georg Forster’s nephrite objects at Wörlitz
190	DIETER HEINTZE	Oxford, Göttingen – and Wörlitz On the renaissance of the old South Seas collections
	Appendix
200	Bibliography
207	Picture Credits
208	Imprint	