

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements .....	ix
Introduction .....	1

SECTION ONE

HISTORICAL ANALYSIS

I. The Root of the East/West Dispute .....	11
II. Muhammad, the Prophet of Allah .....	14
III. The Islamic Conquest and the Crusades .....	20
IV. The Rise and Fall of the Ottoman Empire .....	28
V. Europe and Colonial Rule .....	32
VI. The State of Israel and the Deepening of the Tension between Islam and the West .....	37
VII. Egypt — from Antiquity to the Islamic Conquest .....	42
VIII. Egypt in Modern Times .....	48
IX. Egyptian Nationalism at the Dawn of the Twentieth Century	56

SECTION TWO

AL-JIHAD: ITS ROOTS AND IDEOLOGY

X. The Muslim Brotherhood, Nasser, and Sadat .....	67
XI. The Link between the Muslim Brotherhood and al-Jihad ....	78
XII. A Consideration of Alternatives to Secularism .....	85
XIII. Organizational Structure and Operation .....	92
XIV. Strategy for Seizing Power .....	99

SECTION THREE

COMPARATIVE ANALYSIS

Introduction .....	113
XV. The General Conditions that Give Rise to Social Movements and al-Jihad in Particular .....	115
XVI. The Nature and Variety of Social Movements .....	121
XVII. The Developmental Structure of Social Movements .....	130
XVIII. From the Present to the Future .....	138
Appendix I. The Missing Religious Precept .....	146
Appendix II. Postscript .....	178
Glossary .....	180
Bibliography .....	182