

Louise Lee
Editor

Victorian Comedy and Laughter

Conviviality, Jokes and Dissent

palgrave
macmillan

CONTENTS

Introduction: Victorian Comedy and Laughter—Conviviality, Jokes and Dissent Louise Lee	1
 Conviviality
Laughter and Conviviality Malcolm Y. Andrews	37
Brutal Buffoonery and Clown Atrocity: Dickens's Pantomime Violence Jonathan Buckmaster	49
Edward Lear's Travels in Nonsense and Europe Peter Swaab	75
 Jokes
'Capital Company': Writing and Telling Jokes in Victorian Britain Bob Nicholson	109

George Eliot's Jokes Louise Lee	141
The Game of Words: A Victorian Clown's Gag-Book and Circus Performance Ann Featherstone	187
'Sassin' Back': Victorian Serio-Comediennes and Their Audiences Louise Wingrove	207
'Deliberately Shaped for Fun by the High Gods': Little Tich, Size and Respectability in the Music Hall Oliver Double	235
Dissent
Laughing Out of Turn: Fin de Siècle Literary Realism and the Vernacular Humours of the Music Hall Peter T. A. Jones	265
What Was New About the 'New Humour'?: Barry Pain's 'Divine Carelessness' Jonathan Wild	291
Just Laughter: Neurodiversity in Oscar Wilde's 'Pen, Pencil and Poison' Matthew Kaiser	309
Bibliography	329
Index	351