

CONTENTS

Preface	vii
Introduction: Workers into Belgians, Flemings, and Walloons	I
1 A Socialist Pillar of a Hyperliberal State	11
PART I
Trickle-Down Nationalism: The Institutional Forces of Nation-Building
2 Voting the Nation	33
3 Nationalist Celebrations and Mass Entertainment	43
4 An Anti-Militaristic State in Militaristic Times	55
5 The Royal and Colonial Paradox	71
6 Schooling the Nation	87
PART II
Everyday Nationalism: Performing the Nation in Daily Life
7 Encounters with the Belgian Flag and the National Anthem	105
8 Proletarian Tweets	125
9 Language, the Flemish Movement, and the Nation	145
Epilogue: The First World War	163
Notes	175
Bibliography	229
Index	257