
Contents

Acknowledgements	7
Introduction	9

PART ONE: DEMOCRACY AND MARKET SYSTEM

1. Democracy and Economic Structure (1962)	25
2. The Rediscovery of the Market (1966)	67
3. Democratization in the U.S. and Its Problems (1980)	83
4. Changing Views on Conflict between Freedom and Equality (1980)	95
5. American Politics Since 1970 (1982)	101
6. Democracy and the Economy (1983)	115

PART TWO: POLICY MAKING

7. Bargaining: The Hidden Hand in Government (1955)	139
8. The Science of "Muddling Through" (1959)	171
9. Economic Development, Research and Development, Policy Making: Some Converging Views (with Albert O. Hirsch- man) (1962)	191
10. New Decision-Making Procedures Governing Research on and Treatment of Catastrophic Diseases (1970)	213
11. Still Muddling, Not Yet Through (1979)	237

PART THREE: SOCIAL SCIENCE

12. Integration of Economics and the Other Social Sciences through Policy Analysis (1972)	263
13. Another State of Mind (1982)	279
14. Who Needs What Social Research for Policy Making? (1984)	305
References	337
Index	345