

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments xi
Preface xv

Introduction 1
Miriam Boeri and Rashi K. Shukla

PART ONE BECOMING AN ETHNOGRAPHER

- 1 • Going Native with Evil 27
Marie Rosenkrantz Lindegaard
- 2 • Lost in the Park: Learning to Navigate the Unpredictability of Fieldwork 49
Elizabeth Bonomo and Scott Jacques
- 3 • Unearthing Aggressive Advocacy: Challenges and Strategies
in Social Service Ethnography 65
Curtis Smith and Leon Anderson
- 4 • Going into the Gray: Conducting Fieldwork on Corporate Misconduct 81
Eugene Soltes

PART TWO TEAM ETHNOGRAPHY

- 5 • Hide-and-Seek: Challenges in the Ethnography of Street Drug Users 103
Merrill Singer and J. Bryan Page

6 • Into the Epistemic Void: Using Rapid Assessment to Investigate the Opioid Crisis 120
Jason N. Fessel, Sarah G. Mars, Philippe Bourgois, and Daniel Ciccarone

7 • Conducting International Reflexive Ethnography: Theoretical and Methodological Struggles 141
Avelardo Valdez, Alice Cepeda, and Charles Kaplan

PART THREE
NAVIGATING THE UNUSUAL

8 • Hidden: Accessing Narratives of Parental Drug
Dealing and Misuse 163
Ana Lilia Campos-Manzo

9 • Navigating Stigma: Researching Opioid and Injection
Drug Use among Young Immigrants from the Former Soviet Union in New York City 183
Honorio Guarino and Anastasia Teper

PART FOUR
THE EMOTIONAL IMPACT OF DOING ETHNOGRAPHY

10 • Dangerous Liaisons: Reflections on a Serial Ethnography 205
Robert Gay

11 • The Emotional Labor of Fieldwork with People
Who Use Methamphetamine 219
Heith Copes

12 • Ethnography of Injustice: Death at a County Jail 232
Joshua Price

Conclusion: Looking Back, Moving Forward 249
Rashi K. Shukla and Miriam Boeri

List of Contributors 265

Index 269