

Contents

Radio Art and Music: An Introduction Jarmila Mildorf and Pim Verhulst	1
1 The Making of a Nomenclature: José Iges on Radiophonic Art Luz María Sánchez Cardona	9
2 Maestro, If You Please: The Radio Producer as Musician Jeremy Lakoff	33
3 Norman Corwin, Bernard Herrmann, and Musical Direction for Columbia Presents Corwin Reba A. Wissner	49
4 “Attitudes Toward History” and the Radiophonic Compositions of Daphne Oram and the Firesign Theatre David McCarthy	67
5 Between Art and Promotion: The Prix Italia, Its Historical Context and Aims in the First Fifty Years 1949–1998 Angela Ida De Benedictis	85
6 A Canadian Experiment in Words-as-Music: Glenn Gould’s Invention of Form in His Radio Program The Idea of North Elissa S. Guralnick	99
7 Jewish Musical Material in a 1946 American Radio Drama: “Rachel” Paula Eisenstein Baker and Robert S. Nelson	111

8	The Bad Violin's Good Politics: Music of Protest and Disavowal in The Jack Benny Program	135
	Jade Conlee
9	Shifting Hues of Blackface: Performance of Race in Radio Adaptations of Holiday Inn (1942)	153
	Emily Lane
10	Voicing the Other World: Music and the Victorian Occult in Mid-Century American Radio Drama	169
	Olivia Cacchione
11	Collective Responsibility in Ingeborg Bachmann and Hans Werner Henze's Radio Drama The Cicadas	185
	Lucy Jeffery
12	Music and Politics in the BBC Radio Adaptation of Alan Bennett's The Madness of George III	205
	Jarmila Mildorf
13	Adapting the Soundtrack of Revolution: Tom Stoppard's Rock 'n' Roll from Stage to Radio	217
	Pim Verhulst
14	Children's Songs as Sociopolitical Comment in the Greek Radio Show Edo Lilipoupoli	235
	Aikaterini Giampoura
	Index	255
	About the Contributors	265