

Table of Contents

Introduction: Old Norse Alterities in Contemporary Context Rebecca Merkelbach and Gwendolyne Knight	9
---	---

Section I Paranormal Beings

Categorizing the Werewolf; or, the Peopleness of Shapeshifters Gwendolyne Knight	27
--	----

Taming the Wolf: Reading Bisclaret in Light of Old Norse Kennings Minjie Su	45
--	----

Between Myths and Legends: The Guises of Goðmundr of Glæsisvellir Tom Grant and Jonathan Y. H. Hui	69
--	----

Section II Rogue Sagas

‘The coarsest and worst of the Íslendinga Sagas’: Approaching the Alterity of the ‘Post-Classical’ Sagas of Icelanders Rebecca Merkelbach	101
---	-----

Considering Otherness on the Page: How Do Lacunae Affect the Way We Interact with Saga Narrative? Joanne Shortt Butler	129
--	-----

Section III Marginality and Interconnectedness

Surface, Rupture, and Contextualities: Conflicting Voices of the Iberian ‘Other/s’ in Old Norse Literature Roderick W. McDonald	159
---	-----

Otherness along the Austrvegr: Cultural Interaction between the Rus' and the Turkic Nomads of the Steppe
Csete Katona 189

The Man Who Seemed Like a Troll: Racism in Old Norse Literature
Arngrímur Vídalín 215

Afterword.

Otherness, Monstrosity, and Deviation: The Perpetual Making of Identities
Ármann Jakobsson 239

Index of Primary Sources 241

General Index 243